

Work Continues on New Laws

Legislators ended their session late Tuesday night, but all the work is not done. For David O'Hara, head of the secretary of state's elections division, it is just beginning. O'Hara is charged with assembling into book form all bills passed this year. Shown reading proofs of the forthcoming book are O'Hara and Mrs. F. D. Silkey. (Statesman photo.)

Portland Show To Feature Primroses

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
Garden Editor, The Statesman
Valley primrose growers will be exhibiting in Portland Saturday, April 25, when the American Primrose Society will hold its annual "Primrose Weekend." The Saturday show will be held at the Woman's Club Building at 1220 S. W. Taylor St.

Some of the entries at the Mt. Angel show Sunday were especially invited to enter the American event, by the judges who work all from Portland.

"The Mt. Angel show was most excellent. I'm sure that the American Primrose Society show at Portland, couldn't be much better," Mrs. John Karnopp, a member of the Portland show committee, said as she judged Sunday's show at Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Karnopp reported that aside from the gold or silver laced polyanthus, there will be no polyanthus exhibited in the Portland show this year. She explained that the committee felt it was too late in the season for these, so did not provide a division for them. The show was set late this year, she went on, to give growers an opportunity to show the late varieties which have usually been neglected in spring Primrose shows.

Ten divisions have been provided and include Asiatic Primulas, American Species, European Species, Auriculas, Juliae Hybrids, Sciboldii, Doulos Acaulis, Gold or Silver Laced Polyanthus, Flower arrangements for primulas and any foliage, and miniature arrangements not over six inches with any primulas with any foliage but not with other flowers, and the Bench Displays. The flower arrangements are open to school children of any age as well as adults. The bench display is non-competitive and is open to amateurs, commercial garden clubs or schools. Each display will be allotted approximately a space three by three feet.

Judging Starts 10 Saturday
Entries will be received Friday from 5 to 8 p. m. and Saturday from 8 to 10 a. m. Judging will start at 10 a. m.

On Sunday, April 26, members of the American Primrose Society will open their gardens to primrose visitors and commercial growers have promised to give special attention to the out-of-town visitors at this time.

Under the division of Auriculas and Juliae Hybrids, special classes have been arranged for potted hybrids grown from seed by the exhibitor and not previously exhibited.

Mrs. O. J. Zach, who is president of the American Primrose Society, may be reached for further information concerning the show, at 8825 N. W. Bailey St., Portland. She also has a telephone.

Wilamette Official Gets Scholarship

Timothy McDonald, admissions counselor at Willamette University, has been awarded a graduate assistantship in the history department of Duke University, it was disclosed today. The assistantship, effective in September, carries a stipend of $1,500.

McDonald, who received his B.A. degree from Willamette in February, will apply his graduate work to both M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. He will study under the eminent historian, Dr. Malcolm Carroll, author of "Germany and the Great Powers."
