Tornadoes in Texas Towns

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A tornado battered Helotes, little community near here, Tuesday night and another struck Smithville, in Central Texas.

Eight to ten persons were reported injured at Helotes and three at Smithville.

The injured at Helotes were not believed seriously hurt. Seven houses were damaged.

At Smithville, the twister struck the Leon Smith home. Mrs. Smith and her two sons were injured, but it was not immediately known how seriously.

Heavy rains battered North, East and Central Texas Tuesday. Mclntdale, near San Marcos, had a reported 10 inch rain. Red Rock, in the same general Central Texas area, had 9.

While rain, hail and wind battered a good portion of the state, choking dust whipped across West Texas.

Springfield Man Killed

EUGENE (AP)—Glenn Wilson, 61, of Springfield, Ore., was fatally injured Tuesday evening in a three-car smashup here, State Police reported.

He was a passenger in a car driven by Carl T. Veltman, Eugene, police said. The extent of Veltman's injuries was not immediately determined.

Driver of one of the other cars was Charles A. Mack of Eugene, police said. They were looking for the other driver, who disappeared shortly after the accident.

Librarians to Attend Meet

Six state and public librarians and members of their staffs are slated to attend the Oregon Librarians Association annual meeting to be held in Bend Friday and Saturday.

To go from Salem will be Miss Eloise Ebert, administrative assistant to the state librarian; Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, and members of her staff; Hugh Morrow, city librarian, and members of his staff; Miss Marjorie Chester, library coordinator for public schools; Miss Isabel Good-nough, Salem High School librarian and Ainsley Whitman, Willamette University librarian. Whitman is also the vice president and past president of the association.

Friday's agenda will include a county library workshop, public relations meetings and a banquet in the evening. Saturday morning will be devoted to a conference and panel discussions will be held in the afternoon.

Dulles Says More Money Earmarked For Indochina Aid

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told the French Sunday the United States had earmarked increased aid for the war in Indochina but there would be no more money for French budget balancing.

This was the summary of an exchange between the French and Americans at a conference in the French Foreign ministry attended by the top brass of both countries.

The conference was a continuation of the explanatory series which began Saturday as the NATO meeting ended.

College Names Woman Student Body President

LA GRANDE, Ore. (AP)—Eastern Oregon College of Education students Tuesday named a woman president of the student body for the first time in years.

The winner of the annual election was Vivian Harder, Boise, who was Homecoming queen and student body secretary in the past year.

Bob Bleker, Ferdinand, Idaho, was elected vice president.
