

Confined Girl Graduates at Special Rites

Statesman News Service
DAYTON—Miss Theola Grover, a patient at the State Tuberculosis Hospital at Salem, was presented her diploma this week at specially arranged commencement exercises. Fifty persons from Dayton including 25 seniors from the high school, faculty members, relatives and friends gathered in the auditorium for the occasion. She has been confined at the hospital since November.

Father A. W. Miemela spoke a word of welcome. Howard Holt, principal of the Dayton school introduced Miss Myrtle Smith who gave the salutatory. Miss Patty Grover sang a song accompanied by Miss Marcena Fowler. Miss Fowler presented the valedictorian address and Ersel Gubser, chairman of the school board, presented the diploma of graduation to Theola.

At the close of the afternoon, cookies and punch were served. Miss Grover underwent major surgery May 5 and is getting along very well.

Commencement for other Dayton graduates will be held May 22.

Program Due By Canyon Youth Troops

DETROIT—ALL scout troops of the Detroit-Idanha area will join in a program of entertainment and games for the public Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Girl Scouts and Brownies will present a stage talent show which will include music, dancing and a three-act comedy.

Boy scouts will take charge of bingo, pie-walk and food sales to follow the program and will also prepare the stage setting.

Admission will be free and funds will be raised on tickets sold for the games and from food sales. Pies are to be donated for prizes in the games.

Adult workers are Francis Kettleson and Albert Warby, scoutmasters; Mrs. Opal Leming and Alice Fryer, girl scout leaders; Mrs. Alene Kettleson and Mrs. Betty Deam, Brownie scout leader. Others assisting with the program are Mrs. Opal White, pianist, and Mrs. Virginia White, prompter.

Hubbard Lodge Honors Mothers' Plans Services

Statesman News Service
HUBBARD—A report on the Pythian Sister convention in Portland was made by Mrs. Zane Yoder at the recent meeting of Arion Temple Pythian Sisters.

The annual memorial services will be held at the May 19 meeting. Mrs. Harold Colgan presided and scheduled an officers' meeting for May 20 at the home of Mrs. Rich.

Mother's Day songs and readings were given by Mrs. Jess Falen, Mrs. Warren Grim and Mrs. Rich. Bouquets were presented to the oldest mother, Mrs. Anna Scholl, and the youngest, Mrs. Duane Hatcher.

A birthday party highlighted the social hour. Members contributed a penny for each year of age for a total of $16.82 which was added to the general fund. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Vredenburg, Mrs. Hannah Hunt and Mrs. Al Barendse.

Valley Briefs

Amity—Renewed enforcement of an ordinance preventing dogs from running at large from May to October has been announced by the Amity City Council.

Four Corners—Leonard Capps plans to operate a used-car lot at 275 S. Lancaster Dr., where he has leased property. He formerly owned the Estee Neckwear Co.

Brush College—The Home Extension Unit will meet at 10:30 a. m. Thursday with Mrs. Tandy J. Burton on Wallace Road. The host, assisted by Mrs. Monte Harris, will demonstrate vegetable cookery, and vegetables used will be served at the no-host lunch.

Sweet Home—Tom Hufford and J. T. Hunt have gone to Alaska to find a market there for plywood which they propose to truck over the Alcan Highway.

Jefferson—Eldon Turnidge of Talbot is in Alaska with a delegation of the Marine Medical Mission. He flew to Annette, Alaska, and will return by ship to Seattle.

Portlander Builds Metal 'Buttons'

PORTLAND, Ore. (P)—Ivan A. Williams of Portland has developed a device which buttons two sheets of metal together. He has been working on the project 15 years.

Now he has patents and a San Francisco firm hopes to market the tools. The "buttons" are made by cutting a row of slits in their two pieces of metal. Then a stamp pushes down the metal between the slits and forms buttons below the lower sheet.
