

Hemphill Huris 7-4 Win; Deyo Secured by Solons

'Free' Clash Set Tonight

Richardson Hits Two Homers; Luby Triples

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

The loaded and lead-in leading Lewiston Broncs proved no terror for the town Senators in their opening W.L. League series mix at Waters Field last night. Husky Jack Hemphill spun up a five-hitter for Hugh Luby's side, got some sharp batting support in the pinches as well as some ditto fielding gems, and came out with a 7 to 4 conquest of Bill Brenner's band.

The victory wasn't the only piece of good news at the ball yard. Business Manager Deke Walker announced before the game that Jimmy Deyo, regular center fielder on last year's club and with Sacramento this season, has been secured on a 24-hour recall option from the Sacs and will fly in today. He'll take over center field immediately, according to Boss Hugh Luby.

"We've been trying to get Deyo for some time," Luby added. "And we're still trying to line up some pitching help."

Long Home Runs

Were it not for two tremendous home runs by Ken Richardson, one of the numerous veteran warriors on the Broncs club, Hemphill would have had himself no trouble at all in registering his second win of the season.

Richardson treated the thin crowd of 996 to some power hitting reminiscent of the days of Dick Greco slamming out a second-inning clout over dead center field's barrier and then in the sixth heat lining out a two-runner over the left-center wall. His smash over the middle barricade was the first over that portion of the arena since Greco left the league.

A pinch-hit double by Don Stewart in the fifth coasted Hemphill to the only run scored off him. He had to whiff Al Heist with the bases loaded to get out of a bad jam in that stanza, the only really shaky spot he was in all night.

Luby Drives in Three

The Senators nabbed a run in the second off Lefty Earl Dollins via three walks and Hemphill's ground-out, driving in the tally. In the fourth Boss Luby took command of the situation by following up Joe Clardy's single, Don Masterson's double and a walk to Lou Scrivens with a three-run triple to right-center.

Connie Perez's single, a walk, a fielder's choice and Clardy's outfield fly produced the fifth Solon tally in the fifth, and in the eighth it was Hemphill's double to left, a walk to Scrivens, a welcome boot on Luby's grounder and Perez' bad-hop single by First-sacker Larry Barton that brought across two more runs.

In all the Solons had eight bingles off Dollins and his successor, Right-hander Jim Clancy. And where the Broncs committed three errors, same allowing as many unearned runs to trickle in, the Senators played errorless ball.

Collins to Pitch

Tonight's second game, at 8:15 o'clock, is to be the Salem Shopping Center's huge "all for free" night. Any ticket from the Shopping Center merchants—which are being given away free—will be honored at the park gates to-night. The Shopping Center chieftains are aiming for an 8,000 crowd and fans are advised that even if all seats are taken, they will be allowed to stand along the bleachers on the field.

Undefeated Bob Collins, sporting a 3-0 record, will be on the mound for the Solons tonight. His opponent will be Russ Butler, another newcomer in the loop this season.

McShain Beats Engstrom on Mat

Dashing Danny McShain retained his world junior heavy mat title last night at the Army, but only after a rousing brawl with Carl Engstrom. The strutting Hollywood dandy won the first fall with an atomic drop and a body press, climaxing a lively first stanza.

The Chicago youth came back strong to even it up with a twisting wrist lock. He had the crowd on his side all the way, for McShain's tactics aren't of the

Bearcats Eye Loop Victory

Already dual meet champions after six consecutive triumphs, Coach Ted Ogdahl's Willamette Bearcats shoot for the 1953 Northwest Conference track and field title next Saturday in McCulloch Stadium.

Ogdahl's well balanced team, victor over Portland U. Linfield, OCE, Pacific University, Whitman and Lewis & Clark, in that order, is expected to make a strong bid for the championship.

In distance runner Don Empey, Hurdler Dean Benson, Larry Stander and Bill Huff, 880 stars Bob Miller and Mike Hovis, Sprinters Bob Zoelch, Rolfe Cocking and Bill Van Horn and field performers Jim Hitchman, Stan Neperud, Layton Gilson, Wes Malcolm, Bill Colvard and Vern Shangle. Ogdahl hopes he has enough potential points for the victory.

The main event portion of Saturday's big meet, involving all six conference schools, will be run off in the afternoon.

Rocky, Joe Finish Work

CHICAGO (P)—Heavyweight King Rocky Marciano and ex-champ Jersey Joe Walcott finished the heavy work Tuesday for Friday's 15-round title rematch at Chicago Stadium.

Because of the one-month postponement due to Marciano's nose injury, it has been a long training grind for both principals. All hands concerned were anxious to get down to business with the six-ounce gloves.

Nobody has been breaking down any doors trying to buy $50 tickets but interest in the match seems to be picking up. The customers earlier indifference was attributed to the high ring-side tab and the severe letdown when the Chuck Davey balloon burst against Kid Gavilan.

Despite the 3 to 1 odds favoring Marciano, there was solid optimism in the camp of the 33-year-old Walcott who was trying to become the first man ever to win back the heavyweight title.

Up at Holland, Mich., where Marciano is in training, they expect the champ to flatten Jersey Joe faster than last time. It took him 13 rounds to do the trick at Philadelphia last September.

'Frisco Noses Portland 2-1 In 11 Innings

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—San Francisco's Elmer Singleton won an 11-inning pitcher's duel over Portland's Larry Ward, 2-1, Tuesday night as Left Fielder Bill McCawley doubled in the 11th to break a 1-1 tie and drive in the winning run in the season's first contest between the two Pacific Coast League teams.

Singleton struck out six and scattered seven hits.

Singleton gave up Portland's lone run in the fifth when he walked Hank Artt. Artt moved to third on Aaron Robinson's single and scored as Ed Basinski forced Robinson.

Portland's right hander Larry Ward fanned nine and yielded only six hits—but they came in the wrong place for him. The first doublet off him both came in the fourth when Sal Taormina batted in Jim Moran on San Francisco's first run.

In other Coast games Tuesday night the Seattle Rainiers whipped Hollywood 7-1. San Diego topped Los Angeles 4-2 and Marino Pieretti hauled Sacramento to a 6-4 win over the Oakland Oaks.

Kid Shows Effects Of Recent Sickness

PORTLAND, Ore. (P)—Favored Harry Matthews, 1B ¼, Seattle, has' to fight from behind to get a 10-round draw with Freddie Beshore, 196 ¼, Los Angeles, here Tuesday night.

It was a split decision, Referee Ralph Gruman voting 60-50 for Matthews; Judge Freddie Steele, 56 ½-53 ½ for Beshore; and Judge Bobby Richards calling it even.

Matthews showed the effects of a recent illness in the middle rounds as Beshore uncocked a heavy attack on the inside. The Seattle gladiator was trailing up to the ninth round.

Beshore Hangs On

In the ninth Matthews enjoyed his best three minutes of the bout. First he opened a cut over the Los Angeles' fighter's left eye. Then Matthews connected with a solid right to the head that staggered Beshore and followed with three more.

Beshore was hanging on at the bell that ended the ninth.

In the tenth Matthews went gunning for a knockout, but Beshore stayed inside and resumed his body attack.

In the first three rounds Matthews had all the edge as he consistently connected with jabs and right crosses. But starting the fourth Beshore took over with rights to the head and punishing body blows. Beshore won the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds by a clean margin.

Most fans booed the draw verdict, figuring Beshore to be the winner.
