

They Were Among the Many in Wednesday's OWGA Play

This group of women golfers were among the 152 present Wednesday at the Salem Club for the monthly OWGA tournament. From left to right are Mrs. Bob Robertson, Eugene; Mrs. Carl Teague, Eugene; Mrs. Edward Doyle, Riverside of Portland; Mrs. James Haworth, Salem; Mrs. J. W. Copp, Riverside; Mrs. Robert Hoffman, Salem; Mrs. Eugene Kokko, Salem; Mrs. Bruce Pringley, Eugene; Mrs. Jack Malone, Eugene; Mrs. Merle Hall, Oswego; Mrs. E. J. Kiesenehl, Alderwood of Portland; Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Salem; Mrs. Stan Caster, Oswego, and Mrs. Frank Stenger, Riverside, who is OWGA president. (See story for meet results.)

State Ball Tourney Opens Today; Salem Gals Share in Golf Honors

Viks, Cascade Ready to Go

ALBANY—(Special)—Eight high school baseball teams, champs in their respective districts, go after the big laurels in the annual State Tourney starting here on Thursday afternoon.

Generally picked as favorites in the single-elimination affair, are Harold Hawk's Salem Vikings and the Lincoln Cardinals, champs of the Portland race. The Salems, whose lineup consists almost entirely of members of last summer's Northwest Champion Legion crew, rolled through the season with a record of 13 wins and but two setbacks.

Cascade's Cougars will go into the tourney as a dark horse, after having upset highly favored Eugene 1-0 in a recent playoff.

Salem's initial action comes Thursday night at 9:30 in a first rounder against Pendleton. Cascade's debut is at 1:30 Thursday afternoon against Grant, runner-up in the Portland League.

At 3:30 Thursday Milwaukee battles Medford and the other contest of the first round finds Lincoln facing West Linn at 7 P.M.

Coach Harold Hawk Wednesday said he will start his ace Righthander, Lowell Pearce, in opening State Tourney action against Pendleton on Thursday night. Ken Pingel will be the hill nominee for Friday's semifinals if the Viks happen to get by the first round.

The rest of the Salem lineup will consist of Wayne Osborn behind the plate, Phil Jantze at first base; Twink Pederson, second; Jim Rice shortstop; Larry Springer at third base and Curt Jantze, Jerry Gregg and either Mike Campbell or Paul Beck in the outfield.

Bob Stewart, Cascade mentor, will lead with his ace, Dan Feller, who shut out Eugene in last weekend's playoff.

Mason Fourth At Pendleton

PENDLETON—Joe Greer, Yakima professional won the annual Pendleton Open golf tournament here Wednesday by clipping four strokes off par in the final day to nose out the Oregon Open champion, Bob Duden of Portland.

Greer shot rounds of 67 and 69 on the par 70 Pendleton Country Club course to finish the three-day tournament with 276. Duden had 69 and 68 on the final day finish with 277. They were the only two to better par of 280.

Bud Hofmeister, Hayden Lake, Idaho, shot 70 to 73 to take third place with 282. Next came John Langford, Portland, 140-71-72—283 and Bunny Mason, Salem, 143-70-70—283.

Jim Russell, Walla Walla, who held a two-stroke lead at the start of the day's play, slipped to 138-71-76—285, deadlocking with Al Fieldman, of Tacoma, 143-72-70—285.

Greer won $500, Duden $300, Hofmeister $250, Langford and Mason $200 each, Russell and Fieldman $145 each, Harold West, Pendleton, won $100 for his finish of 286, and Tom Boucher, Walla Walla; Joe Steiger, Salem, and Bob Mc Kendrick, Oswego, each got $53.33 for 289s.

Industrial Loop Meets Tonight

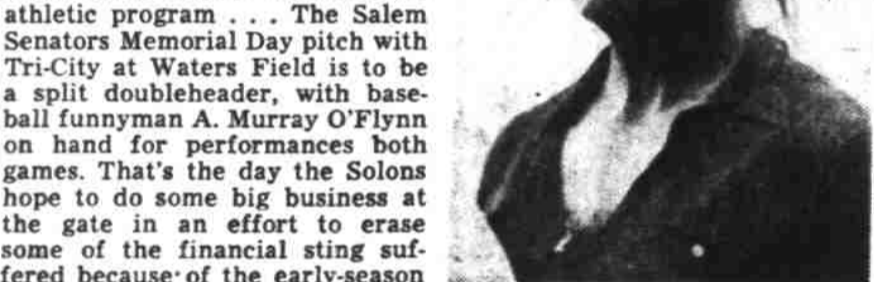

An important meeting of the Industrial Softball League will be held in room 109 of the Senior High School tonight at 8 o'clock—and City Director Jim Dimit urges all sponsors, managers and other officials to attend.

Business of the evening will concern plans for the campaign, which gets under way early in June. Dimit announces that approximately a dozen teams have sized for play in the circuit.

SPORTSLIGHTNER

This, that, etc:

Might easily be something warm in the forthcoming Oregon Collegiate Conference meeting this weekend at Portland. OCE, Portland State and Eastern Oregon are of a mind to vote the Oregon Tech Owls out of the circuit, and take in the Southern Oregon Red Raiders in their place. The Raiders recently left the Far West Conference and would like to join the OCC. The way we hear it, the other three members don't like the way in which the Klamath Falls school conducts its athletic program . . . The Salem Senators Memorial Day pitch with Tri-City at Waters Field is to be a split doubleheader, with baseball funnymen A. Murray O'Flynn on hand for performances both games. That's the day the Solons hope to do some big business at the gate in an effort to erase some of the financial sting suffered because of the early-season rainouts and cold weather here . . . Speaking of the baseball luffmunks, Wesley J. Schulmerich has okehed the invite from Lewiston that he make with his acts there, but on one condition—that being that the Salem Senators are playing at Lewiston that night. A real Senator rooster, Wes wants the local club to be in on the additional gate receipts he's certain to draw. It'll be a sort of homecoming for Schulmerich for that, he managed the Lewiston WI League entry in 1937 (first year for the circuit), and despite racking up 23 consecutive losses for what still stands as a WI record, the guy was ultra-popular there. Odd thing about that loss skin: The more the club got beat the more it drew at home. Then when the string was finally broken, the attendance fell off . . . No, Schulmerich will not put on his acts here again this year. He feels that two years of the same stuff is enough, and that he's getting too dang old to cook up some new gags . . . The Senators not only got themselves a veteran pitcher in Spectacle Joe Nicholas, but also one who can swing a bat authoritatively. Joe whacked a solid .279 last season in winning 11 and losing 11 with Lewiston. He also committed no errors the entire campaign to lead all flingers in the fielding department . . .

WES SCHULMERICH Looks out for Senators.

Next OWGA action is a three-day affair due in two weeks at Hood River, The Dalles and LaGrande. A number of local women will participate.

The Wednesday action was climaxed by a dinner, sponsored by the Salem contingent.

Important Road Jaunt for Bevus Too

That is a very important road trip for not only the Salem Senators, who want to come home as solid first divisioners, but also for their pitcher-coach Bill Bevus. This could be the week and a half that will make or break Bev as a member of the club.

Fast arriving at the finish of his career as an active participant in baseball, the 35-year-old Bevus hasn't been able to hit the fine groove he was in when a 20-game winner for the 1951 Senators. Which is a normal procedure, for one cannot go on forever.

The guy has been the target of more criticism than is his due in the early WI League going. Thankfully enough, most yelps and bleats have come from those who belong to the unappreciable group which doesn't like to see anyone make good simply because they haven't been up to making good themselves. There is that fraternity which is jealous of any success by another, you know, and our city has its full membership.

Bevus may or may not last out the season with the Senators, and perhaps the current road trip will be the deciding factor. The

Portland Chiefs Eye Proposal For $8,000,000 Sports Center

PORTLAND—A proposal for an eight-million-dollar sports center at Portland went before the City Council Wednesday.

A council committee recommended a 15,000-seat sports arena, a million-dollar baseball park and additional facilities for other attractions, all to be located at West Vanport, just north of Portland.

152 Swingers In OWGA Meet

A field of 152 swingers from throughout the state engaged in the monthly Oregon Women's Golf Association Tournament Wednesday at Salem Golf Club and when the firing finished in four different classes Portlanders and Salem divoters had collared the laurels.

In the Championship Class Mrs. R. L. Borst of Portland Golf Club took low gross honors with 83 and Mrs. R. M. Stearns of Portland's Columbia Edge-Water Club had low net with 77.

In Class A titles also went to two Portland women. Mrs. J. A. Rhodes of Alderwood Club had low gross with 92 and Mrs. Ed Young of Alderwood had a 72 for low net.

Mrs. Orval Lama of Salem won low net honors in Class B via a 75 score and holder of low gross was Mrs. John Kendall of Portland's Waverly Club with an 89.

In Class C honors went to Salem women. Mrs. Frank Shaffer had best gross score with 102 and low net honors belonged to Mrs. John Lewis.

Next OWGA action is a three-day affair due in two weeks at Hood River, The Dalles and LaGrande. A number of local women will participate.

The Wednesday action was climaxed by a dinner, sponsored by the Salem contingent.

Bevos, Stars Again Rained

By the Associated Press

Rain again stopped Portland's Beavers and Hollywood's Stars Wednesday night, washing out the second game of their Pacific Coast League series in the Rose City. The clubs will play a twin-bill Thursday evening, starting at 7 o'clock.

All games played in the league Wednesday night ended in identical counts. The Oakland Oaks nosed San Diego by that margin in a 12-inning mix, Steve Nagy hurled leading Seattle to a 3-2 win over San Francisco and Newcomer Dixie Upright's homer gave Los Angeles a 3-2 victory over Sacramento.

Phils, Braves Defeated Senators Again Rip Wenatchee '9' Club Reaches .500 in Climb

WENATCHEE—(Special)—The Salem Senators combined tight six-hit pitching by Jack Hemphill with a 13-hit barrage off two Wenatchee flingers Wednesday night to make it two in a row over the Chiefs in WI League baseball play here. The score was 7 to 1 and the win pushed the Salems to an even .500 level in their bid for a berth in the upper reaches of the standings.

In racking up his third win of the season Hemphill gave up the only run to Wenatchee in the first inning.

The Senators got one in the third when Connie Perez singled it across, another in the fourth on Joe Clardy's single, an error and Dick Sabatini's single another in the seventh on Sabatini's triple and Milt Smith's single and four big ones in the eighth on five hits and a walk.

Les Witherspoon swatted his second double in the eighth, Jim Deyo doubled, Joe Clardy singled, Bob Nelson walked, Sabatini singled and Tanzelli singled for the four runs.

Sabatini was the batting star of the game with three hits, Perez, Witherspoon and Clardy each had two. Babe Furman had two of the Chiefs' hits.

Victim of the Salem blast was Charles Oubre, Wenatchee ace.

The Senators will attempt to sweep the series Thursday night, with Bob Collins going after his sixth straight mound troup of the campaign.

Gray Horse Liked by Everybody . . . Preakness Experts Rate 'Dancer' Virtual Cinch

BALTIMORE (AP)—"The gray horse" walked on to Pimlico race track for the first time Wednesday morning and the railbird experts unanimously conceded him Saturday's Preakness.

The story was the same as before the Kentucky Derby when everybody was loudest in praise of Native Dancer and nobody saw how he could lose. But he did.

"Look at that big horse," drooled trainer Clyde Trout. "There ought to be a law making such a horse give weight to my little one."

Trout trains Royal Bay Gem, one of the six colts who will try to hand Native Dancer the second defeat of his career in the 77th Preakness. They'll all carry 126 pounds for the mile add three sixteenths.

As for the Preakness, "that Bill Winfrey's got it nailed down and laughing at everybody." Winfrey trains the Dancer, who is never called anything except "the gray horse" around the track.

Native Dancer, Dark Star, Royal Bay Gem and Jamie K are to be entered officially Thursday morning. Also expected are Mrs. Guiberson's Correspondent, Ben Whitaker's Tahitian King and Bruce Campbell's Ram O'War.

Red Sox Take 14 Inning Go

Yankees Nip Tigers; A's Nose White Sox

NEW YORK (AP)—Wednesday was a wild and woolly day in the major leagues.

Cincinnati, the last place club in the National League, beat Philadelphia, the first place club, 14-5. The Redlegs hit four home runs. And they battered Curt Simmons, who had won six and lost only one, into submission in four innings.

The New York Giants clubbed seven Chicago hurlers for 21 hits, a new high in the majors for the season. Needless to say, the Giants won. The score was 16-6.
