

High Society Wedding Held For Joe Kennedy's Daughter

By AGNES McCLOSKEY
NEW YORK (AP) — In a wedding sparkling with pomp, orchids and champagne, radiant Eunice Mary Kennedy became the bride Saturday of Robert Sargent Shriver Jr. It was one of high society's fanciest flings since the heyday of the Four Hundred. Intimates of financial philanthropist Joseph P. Kennedy, the bride's father who was once U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, would neither confirm nor deny published estimates that the couple's affair cost $100,000.

One thing was certain: Everything was done to make it a wedding to remember. Even the weatherman turned up with blue, sunny skies.

And just so things wouldn't be too formal, several score folks from among the uninvited through which crowded Fifth Avenue and pressed against the giant bronze doors of St. Patrick's Cathedral were invited in to sit with the 1,700 leaders of society, business and politics who had been invited.

Francis Cardinal Spellman officiated at the wedding ceremony and nuptial mass. Nine bridesmaids, with her sister, Patricia, as maid of honor, attended the bride.

The ushers were 20 scions of prominent New York, Connecticut, Illinois and California families. The bridegroom's brother, T. Herbert Shriver, II, was best man.

Among those attending was Margaret Truman in a blue gown with straw colored hat. Elder statesman Bernard Baruch was also on hand. Among those who previously accepted invitations to attend were Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Col. and Mrs. Robert R. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Farley.

McCarthy Not Present
One of those who previously had accepted but did not attend was U. S. Senator Joseph R. McCarthy. Earlier this week he had undergone

Doukhorbor Homes Razed By Arsonists

44 wyyfu vdouks ba 1015 pps NELSON, B. C. (AP) — Torch-throwing arsonists early Saturday burned seven homes and failed in attempts on two others in Kootenay district Doukhorbor villages.

The homes burned all belonged to the Radical Sons of Freedom Doukhorbor and were in the villages of Krestova and nearby Goose Creek.

The fires came following the Friday warning from Premier W.A.C. Bennett that the "fooling around" is over for the Doukhorbor.

The fires broke out around 3 a.m. within minutes of each other, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police reported.

Police spotted the fires from a distance and soon were at the scene.

"Houses started burning all about the district," said a police spokesman.

"Two unexploded bottles filled with gasoline were found, but by the time investigators got them several people had fingered them."

No arrests have been made, but police investigators worked throughout the district during the day.

"The fires followed exactly the same pattern as the burnings at Perry Siding and Appledale last month when 13 houses were destroyed," the spokesman said.

Krestova, headquarters of the Radical Sons of Freedom, was the scene of mass burnings in 1950.

Fire is a Doukhorbor form of protest, and it is not uncommon for the "Sons" to put the torch to their own homes.

Police reinforcements were recently sent into the Doukhorbor districts, 350 miles east of Vancouver, and commenting on the latest outbreak, Attorney General Robert Borner said:

"We have sufficient people on the ground to cope with the situation. The problem of stopping the Freedomite fires within their own village still remains."

The highways are patrolled each night and public buildings have been guarded for months.

Premier Bennett, who issued his warning in Victoria, was not available for comment.

Wrecks Leave 2 Injured, 5 Cars Damaged

Two men were hospitalized and five cars wrecked in three accidents Saturday in the Salem area investigated by state police.

Taken to Salem Memorial Hospital were Charles R. Moody, 110 Shaw St., Salem, and his passenger, Isam Dykes, Iola Acres.

Moody suffered a cut above an eye and fractured ribs, and Dykes a lacerated ear. Moody was released after treatment, but his companion was held for observation.

Police said the car in which they were riding apparently went out of control and into a ditch on Highway 51 between Independence and Independence Junction about 5 p.m.

Three cars smashed into each other on the North River Road near the skating rink about 7:20 p.m., and although all had to be towed away, none of the occupants was injured.

According to investigating officers, a 1941 Ford driven by Ben R. Cooper, 1375 Holgate St., Salem, collided with the rear of a 1953 Ford operated by David J. Ferguson of Pratum.

The Ferguson car was knocked into the opposite lane and swerved a 1947 Plymouth driven by Mary M. Swegart, 1168 Saginaw St., Salem.

Ferguson's wife was thrown from their car, but was uninjured, said police.

A second one-car accident involved a Rieckreall man, Leroy P. Neufeld, whose car swerved into a ditch near the Bonneville sub station on the Salem-Dallas Highway. Police said he was not hurt.

Rain Postpones Midget Racing

A wet track and grandstand seats, plus the threat of more rain forced postponement of last night's scheduled midget auto races at Hollywood Bowl.

Promoter Henry Ireland announced that a full-scale destruction derby, involving over 30 cars, will be held at the bowl next Saturday night. The midgets will be rescheduled later on.

Thieves Take Car, Gas, Suit

Thiefs of a car, a tank of gas and a man's suit were under investigation by Salem police Saturday.

The car, owned by Kelly White, 307 Jefferson St., Dallas, was stolen between 8 and 9:30 p.m. in the 200 block of Chemeke Street.

Police said it was a 1938 blue Chevrolet.

Mrs. Violet Truitt, 2209 N. Front St., reported to police that a full tank of gas was stolen from her car early Saturday morning while it was parked in her driveway.

The suit was reported stolen from Hewitt's Mens Shop, 501 Court St., and valued at $95 retail. The store owner said he suspected it was shoplifted. It was found missing when the store was opened yesterday morning.

Ranchers Ask Protection For Coyotes

YAMPA, Colo. (AP) — Imagine a catleman going to the defense of the coyote — despised "varmint" of Western history.

Forty Northwestern Colorado ranchers actually want protection for coyotes. They have closed 40,000 acres of grazing lands to hunting or poisoning of the animals.

They explain it's a matter of trying to regain a natural balance of wildlife. The coyote population has been reduced so drastically that their natural enemies — field mice and jack rabbits — have increased tremendously.

Mice and rabbits hurt grasslands, the cattlemen said — and coyotes don't eat grass.

New Insecticide Kills Flies, Bugs Immune to DDT

NEW YORK (AP) — A new insecticide that will kill flies and other insects that have become resistant to DDT was announced Saturday by American Cyanamid Company.

The new product, called Malathion, is a broad-spectrum insecticide which the company said is a killer of a wide range of farm and garden pests, including aphids, mites and scales.

The company added that experiments indicate that flies are less likely to become resistant to Malathion than they did to DDT.

Trucking Firm to Build $150,000 Salem Terminal

West Coast Fast Freight, Inc., announced Saturday it will build a $150,000 terminal in Salem at North Commercial and Academy Streets.

D. H. Roberts, company vice president, said a similar building will be built in Tacoma, Wash., and both will include the latest features of freight handling.

Features of the building here are 50 by 150-foot office and dock areas, concrete walls, overhead doors, canopy type roofs, parking space, and weighing facilities.

Maximum heights of waves in the Atlantic is about 60 feet, says the National Geographic Society.

Flooding River Ebbing in South

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — The cruel Calcasieu River began retreating Saturday from this flood-beaten city while engineers abandoned dynamiting U. S. Highway 90 at nearby Orange, Tex.

"The worst is over and the whole flood level is subsiding here very slowly," said weatherman Paul Cook.

GEN. MARSHALL SAILS

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. George C. Marshall, former secretary of state, sailed aboard the liner United States Saturday to attend the coronation of Queen Elizabeth as one of four representatives of President Eisenhower.
