Police Retake Boy Escapees

Two boys who had been halted in a stolen car by police gunfire were returned to MacLaren School for Boys at Woodburn Tuesday, following a Marion County Juvenile Court hearing.

The youths, 16 and 17 and both from Portland, were working near Salem, on probation from the school, where one had been sent for burglary and the other as incorrigible.

Last Wednesday evening they came into Salem, stole a car, drove to Lebanon and burglarized a service station at Crabtree of about $5, all of which they admitted. On their return trip to Salem, a state policeman gave chase and, when the boys would not stop, fired a bullet that creased the car and broke a window.

Circuit Judge Joseph B. Felton ordered that the boys make restitution for damage to the car when they can again earn money.

Washington Man Wins WU Scholarship

Robert R. Allen, valedictorian of Walla Walla, Wash., high school, will come to Willamette University on a four-year scholarship given by Union Carbide and Carbon Co. of New York.

The scholarship covers all tuition and allowances for books and fees.

Allen will enter the university in September, and plans to major in chemistry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Allen of Walla Walla.

Willamette was selected as the only college in the Northwest and one of 24 schools in the United States to participate in the Union Carbide Educational Fund which provides undergraduate scholarships and grants-in-aid to a limited number of liberal arts and technical colleges in the United States.

Used Car Dealers Elect Boniface

Milan Boniface was elected president of Salem Used Car Dealers Association at Monday night's meeting, to succeed Abe Samuels.

Other new officers are Dale Dorn, vice president, and Gale Dorn, secretary-treasurer. The association decided that all members would close this Saturday in observance of Memorial Day.

2 Salem Academy Students Honored

Marian Ratzlaff and Shirley Kight won college scholarships for their achievements at Salem Academy, the school announced Tuesday following commencement.

Miss Ratzlaff will go to Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kans., rather than Merle Fadenrecht, as inadvertently reported earlier. Miss Kight's scholarship is to Westmont College in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Dinner to Fete 4 Teachers

Four retiring Salem teachers will be honored guests at the annual banquet of Salem Teachers Association at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Senator Hotel.

Gift certificates will go to Mrs. Ellen Fisher, Miss Lyle Murray, Miss June Philpott and Mrs. Carrie Thoma. Mrs. Fisher and Miss Philpott teach at the Salem High School, Miss Murray at Highland School and Mrs. Thoma at the State Tuberculosis Hospital.

Harry Mohr, president of the teachers' association, will preside at the ceremonies and speakers will be Mayor Alfred Loucks, representing the city, Gardner Knapp of the school board, and Superintendent of Schools Walter Snyder.

A quartet from the high school—Ray Holmquist, Kay Brand, Dave Lauthan and Pete Van Horn—will sing, accompanied by Karen Johnson. James Fiske will play a cornet solo.

George Antrim Succumbs at Nursing Home

George Antrim, 87, late resident of 850 E St., who died at a local nursing home Tuesday, was for most of his life a farmer in the Wheatland and Unionvale vicinities.

He was born in Yamhill County in 1866, the grandson of pioneers, and received his schooling in Wheatland, Philomath and McMinnville. In 1889 he was married to Ollie Harvey of Lyle, Wash., at that city. For the past nine years, he has lived in Salem. He was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Unionvale.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Rada Thornton, Salem, and Mrs. E. A. Wolfe, Dayton, O., a brother, Ray L. Antrim of Aloha, six grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Announcement of service will be made later by Howell-Edwards.

Mrs. Erna Weiss, 64, mother of Mrs. Sidney Trot, 995 N. Summer St., died at a Portland nursing home Tuesday morning following an illness of four months.

Mrs. Weiss had resided here with her daughter previously. Funeral services will be at 9 a. m. Friday in the chapel of Miller and Tracy Funeral Home, Portland, with interment at Lincoln Memorial Park.

Other survivors are the widower, John J. Weiss of Portland; sons, J. H. and F. E. Martin of California; nine grandchildren, four sisters and one brother.

Jury Decrees Driver Guilty

Harry Elwood Corey, 1464 Marion St., was convicted by a unanimous ballot of the Marion County Circuit Court jury Tuesday evening on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The jury deliberated for 3 1/2 hours before reaching a decision. His case was continued for sentencing.

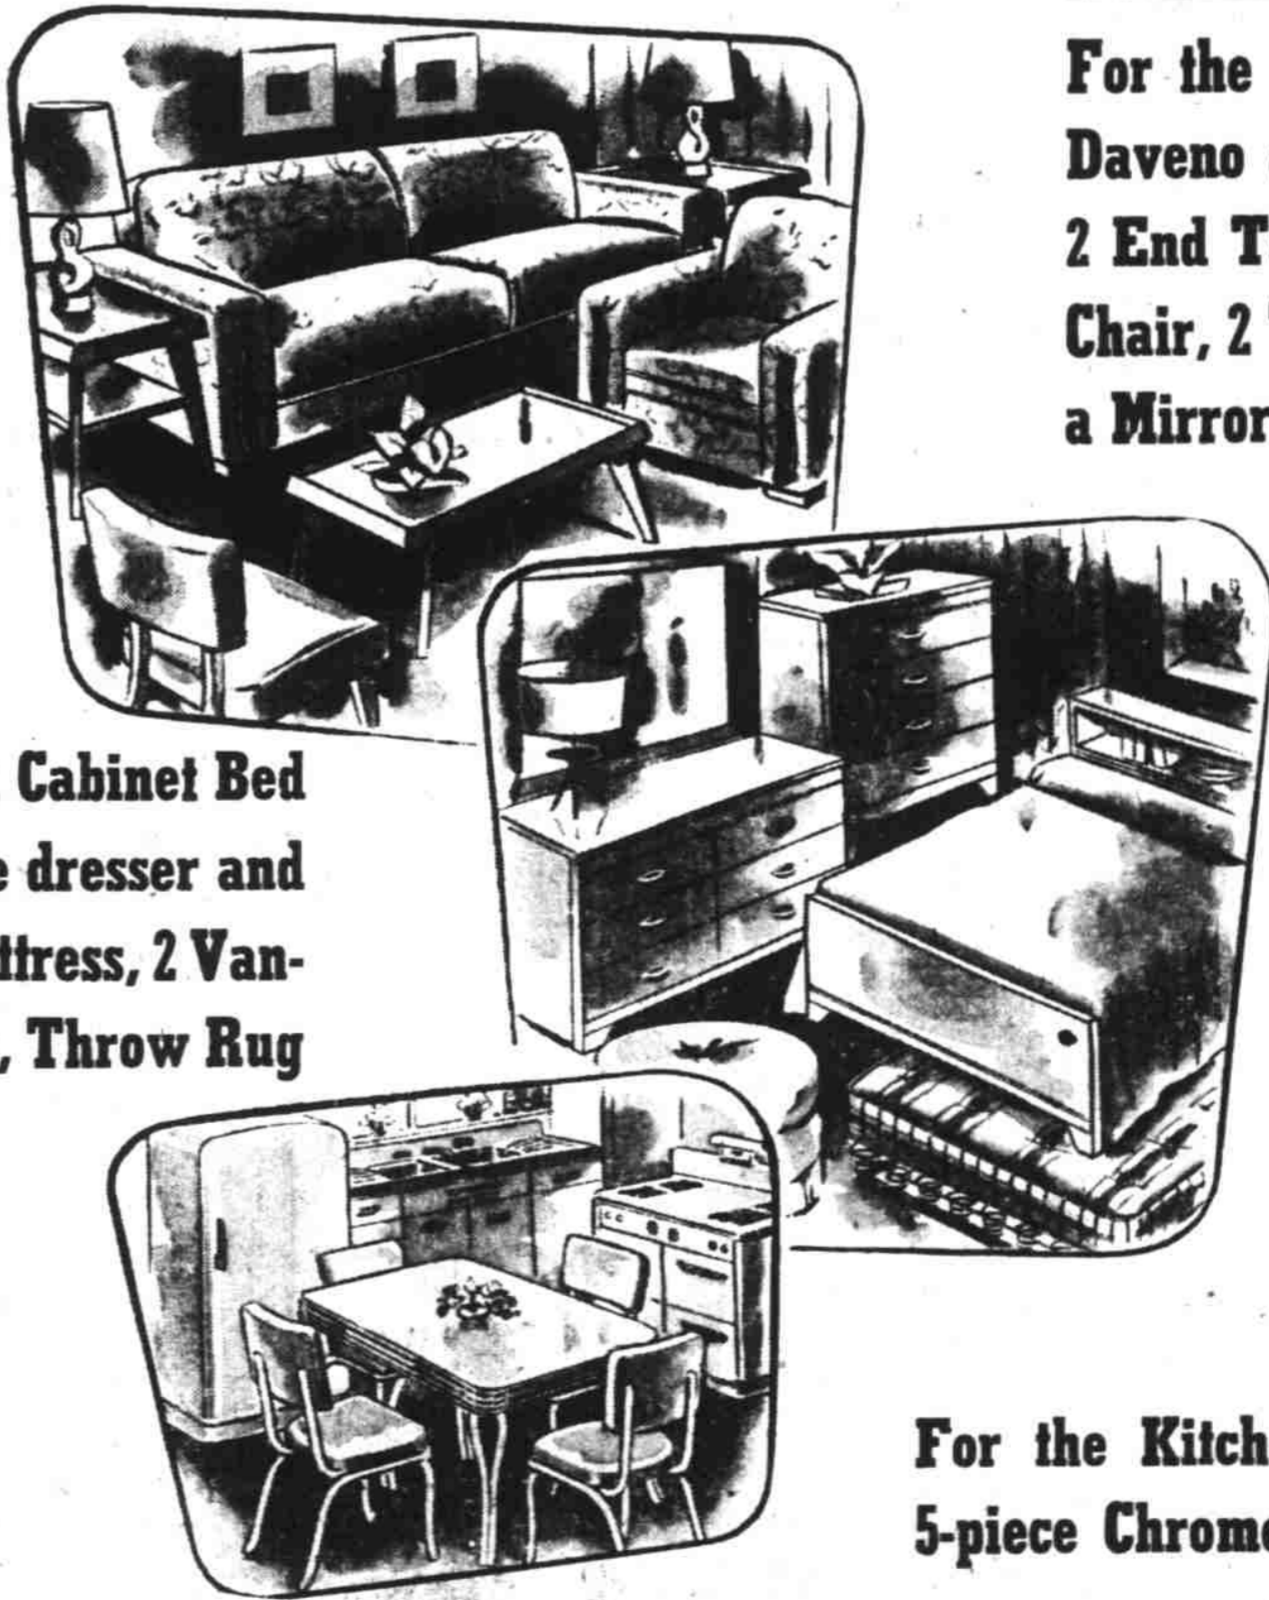

Corey had been arrested June 7, 1952, after his car allegedly ran over city water department barricades on Center Street between Winter and Cottage. A District Court jury convicted him last Nov. 5 and Corey was fined $250, but appealed the conviction.
