

Farming at Standstill in Unionvale

Statesman News Service
 UNIONVALE—Farming is at a standstill in this vicinity with fields too wet to work. Much barley must still be planted, and it will be necessary to reschedule the planting of corn for the canary.

Alderman Farms reports that the start of the strawberry harvest there will depend on weather conditions of the next few days. Damp, cool weather has slowed down the ripening of the berries.

Seaman 3/c Donald Marley and Mrs. Marley of San Diego were visitors last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marley and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Geiger.

Mrs. Carrie Launer and Royal Hibbs attended the funeral of Roy Robertson Monday at Newburg. Robertson was born in Unionvale and lived for many years on the farm now owned by Adolph Schutz, adjoining the Launer farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Smith and family are moving this weekend to their newly-constructed home east of Amity. They have been living for several years in the house on the Dick Kidd farm.

Property in News at Lyons

Statesman News Service
 LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith of Mehama have purchased the Elva Kuiken property in Lyons and moved this week. The Smiths lived here before purchasing property in Mehama. Smith is a teacher at Mari-Linn School.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and family of Mehama, who recently sold their home there, have rented the Bob Fetherston house in Lyons.

Mrs. Viola Zander left for West Point Military Academy by plane Tuesday night to attend graduation exercises for her grandson, Denell Zander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Zander of Pendleton, former Scio residents.

Mrs. Clyde Richards left for Cushing, Okla. Monday when she received word of the death of her mother in that city.

Mrs. Elmer Culwell was the honored guest when Women of the Assembly of God Church of Mill City held a shower at the home of Mrs. Ruth Bass in that city.

There are two theories about the origin of oil, one that it was formed from plants and the other that it was formed from inorganic materials.
