

Around Town

By JERYME ENGLISH

NUPTIAL NOTES . . . A happy and radiant bride was Shirlee Newbry when she became Mrs. William Bissell on Sunday afternoon . . . and the weatherman turned . . . his sunniest smile for the occasion . . . just perfect for the garden reception following the church ceremony . . . The newlyweds receiving under the huge weeping willow tree with their parents . . . Urns of calla lilies and blue delphinium arranged about the garden . . . also many colorful plantings of summer flowers . . .

The blue and white . . . color scheme repeated in the decor for the reception . . . The bride's table arranged at the far end of the garden under a white lattice arbor of ivy . . . the table covered with a floor length white organdy cloth over blue . . . At one end a striking bouquet of delphinium, iris and daisies in a large blue bowl centered with a figurine and small fountain . . . blue and white flowers extending from the tiered cake . . . Each served from a smaller table . . .

Sentimental note . . . A large contingent of the bride's Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters from Oregon State singing the Pi Phi Sweetheart song during the reception . . . Shirlee's bouquet of white roses tied with the ribbon which was used on her mother's bouquet at her wedding . . . Having a grand time at the reception, but not too sure whether they enjoyed the wedding or not . . . the flower girl, Carol Shupe, refusing to go down the aisle at the last minute as just a few too many people . . . but she finally trekked down after the bride . . . and the ring bearer, Ronald Newbry, just fine until they took the ring away from him . . . he didn't see why he couldn't keep it . . . The beautiful array of wedding gifts on display in the house . . .

Among the guests . . . Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sanders of Medford, formerly of Salem, up for the wedding . . . Mrs. Sanders chic in a white and blue silk shantung suit sprinkled with rhinestones and a tiny white lace hat . . . Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wittliff up from Astoria and returning with them for the summer was her daughter, Beverly Beakey, who just graduated from Oregon State . . . Mrs. Lyndel Newbry of Ashland wearing a becoming beige lace gown . . . her husband the head usher for his sister's wedding . . .

More of same . . . Joan and Sue Barnes, flew down after their graduation from the University of Washington on Saturday for the wedding . . . Sue busy taking pictures during the reception, as were many others . . . Jane Trojan, also a Washington coed, among those assisting . . .

Of the state officials . . . spotted . . . State Treasurer and Mrs. Sigfrid B. Underander . . . The supreme court justices and their wives . . . the Hall Lusks, the Earl Latourettes, the William Perrys, the Walter Toones and the George Rossmans . . . Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chambers . . . the Robert H. Baldocks and the Lee Bowns . . . the latter just back from Eugene as their daughter, Margaret, was married the day before . . . Mrs. Bown wearing the good-looking grey pleated shantung dress, which she wore for her daughter's nuptials . . . Shirlee and her handsome brunette bridegroom leaving on their honeymoon amidst a shower of rice . . .

JUNIORS TO PORTLAND . . . A number from the Salem Junior Woman's Club will be in Portland today to attend an all-day conference for junior clubwomen at the Benson Hotel . . . The guest of honor will be Mrs. Arthur Crom of San Diego, director of junior clubwomen for the General Federation of Women's Clubs . . . her visit is being arranged by Mrs. Fred C. Gast, Portland, formerly of Salem, who

Mrs. Jorgenson To Head Club

JEFFERSON—The Talbot Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Turnidge, the last meeting of the club until October. Mrs. Oakley Cochran was assisting hostess. Election of officers was held. Mrs. Ole Jorgenson was named president; Mrs. Fern McNamee, vice president; Mrs. A. E. Cole, secretary; and Mrs. Leo Weddle, treasurer.

Miss McNeil, James Houck Wed Sunday

Blue and white summer frocks decorated the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Shirley Colleen McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. McNeil, and James Earl Houck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Houck. The 3 o'clock nuptials were performed by the Rev. William Portis, cousin of the groom. Henry Fox was the soloist and William Fawk the organist.

Of white slipper satin was the bridal gown fashioned with a fitted bodice enhanced with Chantilly lace insertion and a Peter Pan collar of the lace. The full skirt, which ended in a short train, was designed with an overskirt of net with lace panel down the front end extending from the sides around in back were ruffles of the lace, edge in white satin. She wore lace mitts and a lace cap with seed pearl rosettes on the sides held in place her fingertip veil of tulle trimmed in lace. She carried a semi-crescent bouquet of white stephanotis and gold throated white orchid.

A quintet of attendants walked before the bride all wearing blue organdy frocks embellished with white flowers tied with white sashes. They wore white shoes, delphinium headbands and carried bouquets of delphinium and daisies. Miss Marilyn Blakley, the honor maid, wore mist blue and the attendants in a deeper shade of blue included Mrs. Robert Seamster, Mrs. Leonard Milligan, Miss Mary Sundet and Miss Bernice DaMoude. Cecilia McNeil was her sister's flower girl. Brother is Best Man.

Roy L. Houck Jr. was his brother's best man and ushers were Leonard Milligan, Frederick Sproule, Bill Bouffler and James Norton.

Mrs. McNeil wore a floor length pink nylon gown with pleated skirt and black accessories for her daughter's nuptials. Mrs. Houck chose a waist length black nylon gown with overskirt and bodice of blue lace and blue accessories for the wedding. Their corsages were lavender orchids.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. O. W. Gorton and Mrs. Kinley K. Adams. The groom's aunts, Mrs. J. E. Houck of Perrydale and Mrs. C. E. Corey of Medford, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Steven Benson, Mrs. Marion Venice, Misses Eunice Peckenpaugh, Norma Harrington, Wilma Willich and Betty Williams.

After a wedding trip to California the couple will be at home in Hubbard for the summer. This fall the Houcks will move to Corvallis, where both will attend Oregon State College. For traveling the new Mrs. Houck wore a powder blue dress with poodle box jacket to match, white hat and accessories.

Miss Shirlee Newbry Weds William Bissell Sunday At Church Ceremony

Memorable for its beauty was the wedding on Sunday afternoon which united in marriage Miss Shirlee Joan Newbry, only daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl Thomas Newbry, and William Edward Bissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bissell of Ashland. The ceremony took place at the First Congregational Church at 3 o'clock with Dr. E. W. Warrington of Corvallis officiating before a large gathering of relatives and friends of the two families, many coming from out-of-town.

A blue and white color scheme was carried out in the gowns of the attendants and the floral decorations. The altar was banked with the bouquets of white gladioluses and blue delphinium flanked by white tapers. Malcolm Campbell of Portland was the soloist and Prof. Maurice Brennan the organist.

Miss Joan and Miss Suzanne Barnes, wearing white lace over blue taffeta frocks, lighted the tapers before the bridal party entered.

The tall, pretty bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her exquisite bridal gown was of tulle and lace over white satin, fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The full skirt, which terminated in a train, was of tulle and the bodice extended into a peplum of the lace. Her illusion fingertip veil cascaded from a lace and satin bonnet. She carried a swing style bouquet of white roses.

Five attractive attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Shirley Damon of Ashland was the honor maid and wore a blue lace gown over blue taffeta and carried a swing bouquet of deep blue delphinium. The bridesmaids, Miss Nancee Bissell of Ashland, sister of the groom, Miss Marjorie Williams of Medford, cousin of the bride, Miss Ann Williams of Coos Bay and Miss Margaret Warner of Ashland, all wore white lace dresses over blue taffeta and carried swing bouquets of light blue delphinium.

Carol Ann Shupe of Eugene, the flower girl, wore pastel blue organdy and Ronald Newbry, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Louis Langer of Bend stood with Mr. Bissell as best man. Seating the guests were Lyndel Newbry of Ashland, brother of the bride, Fred Lincoln and James Garrett of Portland, and Robert Stewart of Turner.

A mauve lace gown over silk organza was chosen by the bride's mother for her daughter's nuptials. She wore pastel blue accessories and corsage of Elf rosylene and stephanotis. Mrs. Bissell attended her son's marriage in a teal blue chiffon gown with pink accessories and her corsage was of roses and stephanotis.

Reception at Newbry Home

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the garden at the home of the bride's parents on East Rural Avenue. E. M. Syring played organ music throughout the reception. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. L. G. Frink of Medford and Betty Williams.

After a wedding trip to California the couple will be at home in Hubbard for the summer. This fall the Houcks will move to Corvallis, where both will attend Oregon State College. For traveling the new Mrs. Houck wore a powder blue dress with poodle box jacket to match, white hat and accessories.

Alice Adams, Mr. Schmidt Married

Pink with a touch of blue were the colors chosen for the flowers and gowns of the bridal attendants at the wedding of Miss Alice Lorraine Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore O. Adams, and Karl Dietrich Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. Schmidt of Hood River, on Sunday afternoon.

It was at 4 o'clock that the couple exchanged their vows at the Leslie Methodist Church with the Rev. G. Wesley Turner of Lebanon, former pastor of the church, officiating. Al Isenberg of Walla Walla sang and Miss Gladys Blue was the organist.

The altar was banked with bouquets of pink gladioluses and snapdragons with blue bows and pink candles. The alternate pews were marked with blue bows. Miss Jodie and Miss Lorna Johnson, in blue taffeta ballerina frocks with net overskirts, lighted the tapers.

The tall, brunette bride wore a white taffeta gown with net overskirt enhanced with panels of Chantilly lace, which ended in a slight sweep train. The matching lace bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught to a tiara headress trimmed with seed pearls and caught on either side with rosettes of lace with pearl centers. Her bouquet was of white carnations combined with net.

The Bridal Party

Miss Janice Adams was her sister's honor maid and bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Taylor, Miss Arlene Deakins and Miss Norvada Smedley. They all wore pink taffeta ballerina dresses with net overskirts and scoop necklines. They wore flower clips in their hair and carried natural colored baskets filled with followed by installation of new officers.

Ten delegates will attend from Capital Unit; namely Mrs. A. D. Apperson, Mrs. T. J. Brabec, Mrs. Glenn Holman, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. Rose Habernicht, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Lucas Vogt, Mrs. J. D. White, and Mrs. Walter Spaulding. Mrs. Mem Pearce, department historian, will be a member-at-large. Other members-at-large are past department presidents; Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Frank Waters, and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Mrs. A. D. Apperson, president of the unit will serve as chairman of the convention credentials committee. Mrs. Earl T. Andersen will attend the Eight and Forty session as departmental chairman of Oregon.

Thursday the Auxiliary will hold its meeting in the Central School in Seaside with Mrs. Robert Keason of Dallas, presiding. The parade will begin at 7 p. m. Friday at 7:30 a. m. will be the Secretary and Treasurer breakfast in the Seaside Hotel. At 7:30 p. m. there will be a mass initiation by the American Legion in the City Park followed by the Drum and Bugles Corps contest.

Saturday at 7:30 a. m. will be the district president's breakfast in the Methodist Church. At the close of the business meeting election of officers will be held

Convention to Attract Many To Seaside

The Department of Oregon American Legion Auxiliary convention will be held in Seaside this week. Today the Eight & Forty, honor organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, will hold its session in the Gearhart Hotel on Wednesday there will be a joint memorial service of the American Legion and Auxiliary in the Broadway School at 9 a. m., a joint opening session at 1:30 p. m., and a reception and banquet held at the Hotel Gearhart honoring Governor and Mrs. Paul Patterson, each being a past commander and past president of the Legion and Auxiliary.

Thursday the Auxiliary will hold its meeting in the Central School in Seaside with Mrs. Robert Keason of Dallas, presiding. The parade will begin at 7 p. m. Friday at 7:30 a. m. will be the Secretary and Treasurer breakfast in the Seaside Hotel. At 7:30 p. m. there will be a mass initiation by the American Legion in the City Park followed by the Drum and Bugles Corps contest.

Saturday at 7:30 a. m. will be the district president's breakfast in the Methodist Church. At the close of the business meeting election of officers will be held followed by installation of new officers.

Ten delegates will attend from Capital Unit; namely Mrs. A. D. Apperson, Mrs. T. J. Brabec, Mrs. Glenn Holman, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. Rose Habernicht, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Lucas Vogt, Mrs. J. D. White, and Mrs. Walter Spaulding. Mrs. Mem Pearce, department historian, will be a member-at-large. Other members-at-large are past department presidents; Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Frank Waters, and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Mrs. A. D. Apperson, president of the unit will serve as chairman of the convention credentials committee. Mrs. Earl T. Andersen will attend the Eight and Forty session as departmental chairman of Oregon.

followed by installation of new officers.

Ten delegates will attend from Capital Unit; namely Mrs. A. D. Apperson, Mrs. T. J. Brabec, Mrs. Glenn Holman, Mrs. Anson Ingels, Mrs. Rose Habernicht, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. Lucas Vogt, Mrs. J. D. White, and Mrs. Walter Spaulding. Mrs. Mem Pearce, department historian, will be a member-at-large. Other members-at-large are past department presidents; Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Frank Waters, and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Mrs. A. D. Apperson, president of the unit will serve as chairman of the convention credentials committee. Mrs. Earl T. Andersen will attend the Eight and Forty session as departmental chairman of Oregon.

pastel summer flowers tied with blue bows. Christie Kleen, in blue organdy, was the flower girl. Wesley Hedeen stood with the groom as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Adams, brother of the bride, Robert Wiper and Jesse Jones.

Mrs. Adams selected a dusty blue gown with pink and navy accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Schmidt chose a navy blue gown with navy and white accessories for her son's marriage. She wore a corsage of white roses.

Reception Follows

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception at the Chi Omega house following the nuptials. Pouring and cutting the cake were Mrs. Mildred Smith of Portland, Mrs. R. J. Adams of Eugene and Mrs. Archie Hendricks of Brookings, all aunts of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. Jesse Jones, Mrs. Pat Murray, Mrs. Robert White of Portland, Misses Patricia Moll, Marge Aldinger, Shirley Nieswander, Jeanne deBury and Barbara Smith.

When the couple left on their honeymoon trip to Victoria, B. C. the new Mrs. Schmidt had changed to a navy blue summer suit with pink hat and gloves and navy accessories. The couple will be at home in Salem at 345 N. 17th Street until August, when they will move to Coquille where both will be teaching next year.

See Norge FREEZERS
Both Chest Type and Upright
AL LAUE,
REFRIGERATION & APPL.
2350 State St. Ph. 3-5443

WE GIVE
S&H GREEN STAMPS
McDowell's Market
1190 S. 12th Since 1920

Miller's FRIGID FUR STORAGE

• CLEANING
• REPAIRING
• RESTYLING

Miller's

FATHER'S DAY
SUNDAY JUNE 21

Remember DAD

...WITH A Fashion Craft TIE

...featuring new white background and pastel designs in wovens and foulards... at all leading men's furnishings and department stores.

$150 to $250

SCHOENFELD NECKWEAR CO. SEATTLE NEW YORK

VACATION DAYS Now Thru July 3rd.

Tonight's Prize
To be Awarded at 9:15 P. M.

GARDEN UMBRELLA and TABLE
PLUS $50.00 Cash Award
If Winner is Present at Drawing

GRAND PRIZE
A Vacation For Two
ALL EXPENSES PAID TO ANY ONE OF SIX GLAMOROUS SPOTS
Alaska! Hawaii! Great Lakes! Canadian Rockies! New York! Mexico!

Deposit Tickets Daily for Chance at Daily Prize and Grand Prize to be Awarded July 3.

CAPITOL SHOPPING CENTER
Free Parking for Customers at All Times
Where You Find the Friendliest Stores in Town

50th Anniversary

Ford Motor Company

LISTEN By RADIO
Stations KGW KOIN

WATCH Over TV
On Portland's KPTV

An Invitation
For Your Viewing and Listening Pleasure . . . from Your Ford, Lincoln and Mercury Dealers*

Two-Hour RADIO and TV SHOW
Tonight 5 to 7 pm
Standard Time

This show is a historic re-enactment of the Growth of America between the years of 1903 - 1953.

Top stars participating include Mary Martin, Marian Anderson, Ethel Merman, Oscar Hammerstein, Edward R. Murrow, and Lowell Thomas. Producer of this gigantic show is Leland Hayward, producer of "South Pacific", "Mr. Roberts", "State of the Union" and many other Broadway stage hits.

We urge you not to miss it!

Valley Motor Co. * Warner Motor Co.
FORD LINCOLN - MERCURY
375 CENTER STREET 430 NORTH COMMERCIAL

UNUSUAL CASE, CHIEF -- FELLA WANTS US TO TRACK DOWN THE FLY-BY-NIGHT SCOUNDREL THAT SOLD HIM SOME MISFIT PLUMBING FIXTURES!!

We Sell! We Install! We Service! We Guarantee!
Always Call This PLUMBING CONTRACTOR

See Our Huge Displays of Modern Plumbing Fixtures.
A Price to Fit Every Need.

Judson's
"SERVING SERVICE" SINCE 1906
1710 N. COMMERCIAL ST. PORTLAND, OREGON

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS