Locals' Third Straight Win

Loy Hurls 3-Hitter Over Visiting Club

A three-hit pitching job by young Jack Loy and a solid 14-hit attack Sunday carried Vince Genna's Salem Legion junior baseball club to their third straight dis-trict 2-A victory, a 12-1 whipping of Oregon City at Waters Park. It was the first district setback for Oregon City, considered previous-ly as the one big threat to another Salem title.

The only scoring the visitors could do against Loy was a single tally in the opening frame that was helped by an error.

The locals opened up with three runs in the first inning on a collection of walks, a passed ball and an error and widened their margin with a pair in the second off singles by Larry-Springer and Mike Campbell, a double steal and a walk.

In the fifth four hits brought Salem three more runs at the expense of Oregon City's Hugh Hendry, the lad who hurled the nohitter against Mill City last week. Campbell Triples

The winners got four more in the seventh, with Twink Pederson, Jerry Gregg contributing singles, Campbell chipping in with a triple and the foe adding three errors:

Oregon City did have the consolation of manufacturing a triple play during the game. That came in the fifth inning when Pitcher Loy popped a bunt to Hendry. O-City hurler threw to first
