The Party Whirl . .

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

Clever green invitations printed in white have been received by a large group of Salem people to a coffee on Thursday, June 25 at the American Legion Club. Hostesses for the affair are Mrs. F. Kenneth Power, Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren, Mrs. Vern W. Miller, Mrs. Stuart M. Lancefield and Mrs. A. Terrence King, who have invited guests to meet a recent bride, Mrs. Winfield H. Needham, the former Pauline Proctor. Calling hours are from 10 to 1 o'clock.

Tea for Visitors

On the agenda for Friday afternoon is the informal tea for which Mrs. Prince W. Byrd and her daughter, Miss Betty Byrd, will be hostesses at their Cheme-keta Street residence. The affair is being arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. Byrd's other daughter, Mrs. Max McMillin (Janet Byrd) and her five daughters, Marcia, Roberta, Sylvia, Andrea and Alicia, who will be here from Grants Pass. The family is arriving on Thursday as Mr. McMillin, who is district attorney for Josephine County, is coming for a special meeting of district attorneys from all over the state.
