St. Mary's Is Setting for Nuptials

MT. ANGEL—Miss Marian Unger, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Unger of Mt. Angel, became the bride of Thomas Alexander McDonald of Ashwood, Saturday morning, June 20. The Rev. Joseph B. Neal of St. Francis Church, Roy, Oregon, and old friend of the family, officiating at the 10:30 o'clock double ring ceremony and nuptial high mass in St. Mary's Catholic church.

Altar boys were Jimmy Unger, brother of the bride, and Ronald, Bob and Terry Orme, cousins. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald of Eshwood, Oregon.

Miss Helen Keber was organist and St. Mary's choir sang. Gerald Nieltling was soloist. The blonde bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, between pews marked with white satin bows. Her bridal gown was of white slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice with a deep U waistline and Victorian neckline enhanced with Irish lace. The court train fell from a gathered skirt and was accented by two deep tucks. Her finger-tip veil cascaded from a cloche of net, banded with satin caught low on either side with clusters of lilies-of-the-valley with tiny pink-hued roses caught in the white satin shower streamers.

She carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and stephanotis. Precede the bride were four attendants in dresses of pale yellow and green preceded the bride. All wore gowns of organza over taffeta, identically styled with fitted bodices and full gathered skirt, bandeaux of matching net and pearls and white nylon gloves.

Miss Norma Jean Unger of Portland, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore yellow, carrying an arm bouquet of orchid gladioluses. The bridesmaids were Miss Donna Agnew, Cottonwood, Idaho, and Mrs. Robert Furrow, Portland, in green and carrying yellow gladioluses. Kay Marston, Ashwood, niece of the groom, was flowergirl.

The mother of the bride was gowned in mauve lace over petal pink taffeta and chose white and pink accessories. The groom's mother wore a blue dress with black and white accessories. Each wore an orchid corsage.

Tom Kasberger of The Dalles stood with the groom as best man and groomsman was Ronald McDonald, brother of the groom.

The ushers were Arnold, Billy and Richard Unger, brothers of the bride.

Luncheon in Garden
The reception followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents. A buffet luncheon was served to some 500 guests at tables arranged about the spacious lawn that surround the large, white colonial house with its glass-covered patio.

Miss Elizabeth Unger, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. A. C. Hoston, Mrs. A. A. Ebner and Mrs. Frank Bentley. The gift table was presided over by Mrs. Margaret Orme and Mrs. H. C. Platt and Miss Joanne Bochsler passed the guest book. Serving were the Misses Pat, Ruth and Mary Wagner, Phyllis Wolf, Elaine Annan and Loretta and Rosalie Thomas. Candy Platt passed the dream cakes.
