Nuptials at St. Mary's Saturday

MT. ANGEL—The wedding of Miss Bertha Ann Hassing, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Hassing of Mt. Angel, and Robert A. Heisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Heisler of Gervais, was solemnized in a setting of calla lilies and white peonies in St. Mary's Catholic Church on Saturday morning, June 20 at 9 o'clock.
The Rev. Father Cyril Lehold, OSB, officiated at the nuptial high mass. Altar boys were Lloyd Hassing, the bride's nephew, Bob Hockett, and Joe and John Schallberger. Before the ceremony Miss Eustelle Bauman sang, Miss Helen Keber was organist and St. Mary's choir sang the mass and also during the reception.
The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Oswald J. Hassing. She wore her sister's wedding gown of white slipper satin, simply fashioned with a plain bodice, long pointed sleeves and a full train. Her veil of illusion, edged with wide lace, cascaded from a cap of matching lace. She carried a lavender orchid on a white prayer book from which fell white satin streamers knotted with Stephanotis. Her only ornament was a gold cross and chain, a gift of the bridegroom.
Miss Angela Zach was maid of honor and Miss Mildred Heisler was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of yellow taffeta with pleated yoke collars and flounced skirts gathered into bows and a slight train in back. Each wore a daisy wreath in her hair and a pale orchid ribbon around the neck, caught close at the throat with a single daisy. They carried nosegays of spring flowers.
Mrs. Hassing chose a navy blue redingote over a flowered silk dress and navy accessories for her daughter's wedding and the bridegroom's mother selected a navy blue dress with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of white and cream Siberian iris with baby roses, the flowers from Mrs. Hassing's garden.
Attend the Groom
Serving as best man was Donald Nusom. Ushers were Donald McNulty, Felix Hassing, brother of the bride, and Donald Jessup.
At the reception in the school dining hall, Mrs. Douglas Hildreth, sister of the groom, cut the three-tiered, cross-shaped cake.
Pouring was Mrs. Felix Hassing, sister-in-law of the bride, and assisting were the Misses Annelia Bauman, Monica Duda, Olive Duda, Patricia Hackett, Elaine Diehl, Dolores Hockett and Eunice Geck. Mrs. Vincent Beyer and Miss Rita Aicher helped with the gifts. The bride's nieces, Arlene and Judy Hassing, passed the guest book.
Mr. and Mrs. Heisler will be at home in Albany, following a wedding trip through western Canada. For traveling the bride chose a lavender-blue suit with a matching poodle-cloth, box jacket and white accessories.
Mrs. Heisler was graduated from Mt. Angel Women's College and taught grammar school in Sublimity and St. Paul. Mr. Heisler served one year with the armed forces in Europe after graduating from Gervais High School and then spent another four years with the occupation forces in Japan before returning to the states to attend Mohler Barber College in Portland. He is presently employed in Albany.

Garden Wedding Of Miss Davis On Sandy River

DALLAS—The wedding of Miss Gloria Mae Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis of Dallas, and Donald Simonsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Simonsen of Portland was solemnized on May 30 in the garden at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hayezon on the Sandy river. Dr. Paul S. Wright officiated.
Music was furnished by Dean Davis of Seattle, brother of the bride and Chuck Taylor.
The bride was gowned in a white organdy and imported lace dress studded with pearls. The fingertip veil fell from a tiny cap of pearls and the bridal bouquet was of red roses.
Attendants were Miss Batty Davis, her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Mildred Simonsen, sister of the groom, Miss Mary Hawks and Miss Eunice Bitney, all in light blue and carrying darker blue delphiniums and white carnations. Susan Boyington was flower girl.
Best man was Dick Nelson, and ushers were Harold Davis, the bride's brother, Lionel Bauer, Eugene Emig and Douglas Watson.
A reception followed the ceremony.
The bride is a graduate of Dallas High School and of a school of modeling in Portland. She attended Los Angeles City College. The groom is a graduate of Multnomah College and is now doing TV work. He served four years in the navy.
The couple will live in Pasadena.
The general meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church for June has been postponed due to the busy schedule during conference week. The next meeting is slated for July 15.
A meeting of the Salem Chapter, Amateur Artists Association of America will be held tonight at the YMCA at 7:30 p.m. All members and prospective members are invited to attend.

Engagement Of Couple Revealed

From Portland comes news of the engagement of Miss Thelma Rogoway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rogoway of Portland, and Sanford C. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Williams of Salem. No date has been set for the wedding.
The announcement was first made known at a dinner party on June 14 at the Multnomah Hotel for which Mr. and Mrs. Rogoway were hosts in compliment to the engaged duo and members of the two families.
Miss Rogoway will enter the University of Washington this fall. Her fiancé, a Salem High School graduate, will be a senior at the University of Washington next year, where he is a pre-medical student. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity. Mr. Williams is currently at Fort Lee, Va., taking his ROTC training. He will return in mid-August.

Golden Wedding At Ed Harringtons

WILLAMINA—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harrington celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 7, with a reception for 50 friends and relatives at the Emmanuel Lutheran church.
