

Seen and Heard..

By JERYME ENGLISH

MOTHER-DAUGHTER . . . tea on Friday afternoon when Mrs. Prince W. Byrd entertained with a delightful party for her daughter, Janet, (Mrs. Max McMillin) of Grants Pass and daughters, Marcia, Sylvia, Andrea and Alicia, the baby . . . the second girl, Roberta, became ill just before the family left for Salem so remained in Grants Pass . . . The affair held at the lovely home of Mrs. Byrd on Chemeketa Street with her other daughter, Betty, as co-hostess . . .

Oh, and she . . . all afternoon for the adorable little girls who accompanied their mothers . . . all dressed in their party frocks . . . cottons, prints, organdies, full skirted with bows and little white gloves . . . The children's punch table on the front porch and chairs all around for the little ones . . . Guests congregating on the porch to admire the youngsters . . . at one time the party was outdoors as well as inside . . . and for many of the children it was their first tea party and enjoying every minute of it . . . especially the cookies, sandwiches and sweets . . .

Noteworthy . . . Mrs. Peter the generations . . . Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. Richard Cooley, Christine and Pamela . . . Mrs. Karl G. Becke, Mrs. William R. Shinn and Julie . . . the latter two wearing adorable blue print mother-daughter dresses . . . Mrs. Grover C. Belinger, Mrs. A. Terrence King, Carolyn and year-old Della . . . Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Peter Geiser and Katie, who wore a white organdy pinafore over a red plaid dress and a tiny white hat . . .

More of same . . . Mother-daughter duos . . . Mrs. Carlton McLeod and Franca, who has a grand tan from a month at the beach . . . Mrs. Robert E. Joseph, Sally and Patricia . . . Mrs. George Scales and Jeanne . . . Mrs. William C. Dyer Jr. and Marilyn . . . Mrs. Claybourne Dyer and Shannon . . . Mrs. Stewart Johnson and Katrina, who "watched over" some of the younger children . . . Mrs. Vern Miller with three of her five daughters, Joan Marie, Nancy and Marilyn . . .

Georgous bouquets . . . of summer garden flowers about the rooms and all arranged by Mrs. O. K. DeWitt . . . The tea table in the lavender and pink tones . . . A cut glass bowl on a footed mirror filled with Canterbury bells, stocks, snapdragons and roses . . . flanked by twin vases of lavender violas with a paper frill and white tapers in crystal candelabras . . . Presiding at the tea urns . . . Mrs. Roy Byrd and Mrs. L. H. McMahan, aunts of the bride, and . . . and pouring the last hour a mother-daughter duo . . . Mrs. Jack Stump and Margaret from Monmouth . . .

Outstanding . . . the arrangement of calla lilies and delphinium in a tall vase on an antique table by the bay window . . . Another of yellow roses and lupin . . . Lilies, red roses and peonies on a smaller table . . . Pink roses, sweetpeas and lupin in a crystal vase . . . and twin hand shaped vases filled with Cecile Brunners and geranium blossoms . . .

From out-of-town . . . came Mrs. Donald Byrd of Hillsboro, who is spending the weekend with the Clarence Byrds . . . Mr. Byrd joining his wife here Saturday . . . Mrs. R. E. Keinsorge, Mrs. Clarence Keene and Mrs. Carl Steelhammer over from Silverton . . . Mrs. T. W. Creech, who has been at Nesko-win for the past month, home for a week . . . reporting delightful weather at the beach . . . A party long to be remembered by the little ones as well as their mothers and grandmothers . . .

WEDDING ECHOES . . . Unusual and beautiful the reason for the lovely June nuptials a week ago when Jo-Anne Gilmore became John Lattin's bride . . . The First Presbyterian Church the setting . . . Yellow and white with a touch of violet the color scheme . . . The altar of the stately, colonial edifice decorated with two large gold columns topped with huge brass bowls filled with yellow and white daisies, stock and delphinium . . . white tapers burning in the center of each bouquet . . . On either side large, single cathedral tapers in tall, brass candlesticks . . .

Here they come! . . . the ushers in their white dinner jackets . . . The bridesmaids in pretty yellow organdy ballerina frocks and carrying the small bouquets of violet stock . . . The happy and radiant bride walking up the aisle with her handsome, brunette bridegroom . . . Jo-Anne carrying a sweet old fashioned cluster of stephanotis with her lace and net gown . . . The bride's good-looking, blonde brother, Jim, escorting his mother to and from the church . . . Adorable . . . John and Christy Brocker, who sat with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Lattin, who came west from Chicago for their son's marriage . . . Mrs. A. W. Brocker, mother of the youngsters, one of the bridesmaids . . . she and the children traveled by train from their home in Wheaton, Ill. . . John taking Christy's arm as they followed their grandparents out of the church . . .

The Manbrin Gardens . . . home of the Gordon Gilmores the locale for the reception . . . A yellow embossed cloth on the bride's table . . . the corners caught up with violet satin ribbon and pearl pins . . . Violet bows on the candelabras and white figurines filled with daisies . . . The punch bowl set out in the garden under an arbor adorned with yellow snapdragons . . . love birds perched on a flowered ring in the center . . . The round punch table covered with a violet floor length cloth and a shorter overcloth of white . . .

A gala reunion . . . at the wedding and reception . . . The six Gaiser brothers and two sisters getting together for the first time in 27 years . . . all having their pictures taken . . . much reminiscing all weekend . . . some remaining over until Monday and enjoying trips about the Willamette Valley . . . making their headquarters at the Gilmore and Silas Gaiser homes . . . The two sisters, Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. Hershel Atherton of Seattle . . . the six brothers, Silas Gaiser, Dr. Paul Gaiser of Vancouver, Wash., Louis Gaiser of Chewelah, Wash., Dr. J. H. Gaiser of LaGrande, Dr. David Gaiser and Dan Gaiser of Spokane . . . Noteworthy . . . the eight are all graduates of Whitman College and are now engaged either in the educational or professional fields . . .

A DELIGHTFUL . . . coffee party on Tuesday morning when Mrs. George Terry Hill and Mrs. Max Denton entertained a group of their friends . . . the hostesses arranging a similar affair in the afternoon . . . The Hill residence atop Fairmount Hill the setting . . . Coffee served in the dining room . . . here a pink organdy cloth over white with a white milk glass stemmed dish filled with pastel daisies and sweetpeas accented with a few in a deep egg plant shade . . .

Punch . . . served from a large crystal bowl on a glass table on the enclosed patio . . . So attractive and charming the Hills' newly built terraced patio with mist blue wrought iron railing . . . even the ice cream parlor chairs and table painted the same shade of blue . . . white furniture and coffee tables . . . the invitations to the party also in shades of blue . . . Just the right touch of color . . . the red climber roses growing over the top of the patio wall . . .

The sun . . . coming out during the party . . . guests lingering over their coffee or punch cups while enjoying the much desired sunshine . . . Amazing how warm it can get in such a short time . . . some donning their sun glasses, others removing the jackets to their sun dresses . . .

Blue and pink . . . the choice of summer outfits for several of the guests . . . Mrs. Ed Lewis, who poured one hour, just matched the table decor with her pink striped cotton with pink halter bodice . . . Attractive Mrs. Sam Haley in a sky blue linen . . . her white stole adorned with small balls of yarn . . . Mrs. Robert DeArmond's most becoming dress

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Blanton, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a reception this afternoon at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scharf. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Miss Spillman Is Bride of Mr. Hoven

Bouquets of pink and white gladioluses, white stock and baby breath provided the setting at the First Baptist Church Friday night for the marriage of Miss Sylvia Spillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene K. Spillman, and Lorin Hoven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hoven of Jefferson.

Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson officiated at the 8 o'clock rites. Mrs. Gordon Turnidge of Jefferson was the soloist and Mrs. John Schmidt Jr. the organist. Danny Wells and Dwight Lambert of Jefferson lighted the candles.

The bride's gown was of imported French lace with deep scalloped neckline enhanced with beading and a nylon tulle pleated skirt fashioned slightly en-train. Her tulle veil was caught to a pearl beaded Juliet cap. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and stephanotis combined with natural rose leaves.

Miss Joyce Spillman was her sister's honor maid and wore a gown of American Beauty. The bridesmaids, Miss Frances Hoven of Jefferson, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Robert Funk, wore gowns of shocking pink and petal pink respectively. They carried white lace fans adorned with gardenias. Kathy and John Turnidge were flower girl and ring bearer.

Attend the Groom . . . Eldon Turnidge of Jefferson was best man and groomsmen were Frank Gilmore and Glen Edwards. Seating the guests were Gordon and Don Turnidge, Elton Higbee and Don Behrends.

Mrs. Spillman wore a rose beige nylon lace gown over taffeta with corsage of Carioca roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hoven's gown was a navy

Son is Born to Riessbecks

From Vancouver, Wash., comes news of the birth of a son to Lt. and Mrs. John Riessbeck on June 21. This is the couple's first child. Lt. Riessbeck is currently serving on the front lines in Korea. Mrs. Riessbeck is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Boyd, former Salem residents, in Vancouver while her husband is away. Lt. Riessbeck is the son of Mrs. Lilley Shelton and a grandson of Henry Shaffer of Salem.

Mrs. Shelton's other son, GMI/c Everett Riessbeck recently arrived in San Francisco aboard the USS Manchester after eight months of duty in Korean waters. He will spend his leave with his mother and sister, Mrs. Ned Burris. Captain Burris has just returned from an air mission in Korea.

Circle 9 of the First Presbyterian Church Women's Association will meet for a covered dish picnic dinner on Wednesday, July 1 at the home of Mrs. James Lytle, 1890 S. Commercial St. at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. S. H. Jones will be the assisting hostess.

CLUB CALENDAR

SUNDAY . . . Nebraska Club picnic dinner, Silver Falls Park, 1:30 p. m.

blue print and her flowers were pink rapture roses.

A reception followed in the fireside room with Mrs. C. Arthur Miller and Mrs. Otto Engdahl pouring. Mrs. Hulda Smith cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Loris Lewis, Pat Wolverson, Julie Ann Riehm, Marcia Miller, Bonnie Bishop, Mildred Coe and Starr Hancock. Miss Joyce Spillman sang during the reception.

The bride's traveling outfit was navy blue faille with white milan straw hat and purse and white fingertip topper. The newlyweds will be at home on Route 1, Box 122 A after a wedding trip to the Oregon and California beaches.

Kay Lovell and Robert Perlich Wed at Afternoon Nuptials

Exchanging their vows at a 3 o'clock ceremony at the First Church of the Nazarene on Saturday afternoon were Miss Kay Louise Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lovell, and Robert Paul Perlich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Perlich.

The Rev. Henry Vix officiated at the nuptials before a setting of pink, yellow and white gladioluses and blue delphinium. Soloists were Jack Billeter and Marce Lee Bryant. Mrs. Edith McClure was the organist.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Valna Clemens and Miss Darlene Beebe, who wore blue organdy ballerina dresses over taffeta with matching stoles and shoes. They wore white bandeaux and wristlets of orchids.

Of white chantilly lace over satin and net was the bridal gown, fashioned with a waltz length skirt with a deep border of pleated net. The bodice was of lace with a rounded neckline and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil was caught to a crown style cap edged in tiny seed pearls. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid.

Orchids From Hawaii . . . Two attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Miss Darlene Summer was the maid of honor and wore pink organdy over taffeta with ballerina skirt, matching stole and shoes. Miss Lorna Perkins was the bridesmaid and wore yellow organdy gown with stole. They carried cascades of butterfly orchids. All the orchids for the wedding were flown over from Hawaii as gifts of the bride's uncle and aunt, the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Allport, formerly of Salem.

Valerie Hicks was the flower girl and wore pink organdy with an orchid nestled in the center of the basket she carried.

Leonard Perlich stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Russell Hicks, Tom Lovell, William Hourup and William Craycroft. Wesley Delapp was the groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lovell chose a mulberry lace gown over taffeta with

Garden Club at Douglas Home

SALEM HEIGHTS—Mrs. John Douglas entertained the Little Garden Club of Salem Heights on Thursday at a covered dish dinner at her home on W. Salem Heights Ave. Officers installed were president, Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker, vice-president, Mrs. Francis Colgan, and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hunt Clark. Mrs. William Neimeyer was the installing officer.

The group decided to trim the shrubs and cut the grass at the Community hall, and Mrs. Lyle Bayne reported on the state convention for the Federated Garden clubs held recently in McMinnville. Mrs. Lewis Judson will entertain the group in July.

Mrs. L. W. Orton was hostess for a morning coffee-hour at her new home on Vaughn Ave. Tuesday.

PFAFF
AT MYRON'S
153 S. Liberty Ph. 3-5773

Swegle Community Builders Club will hold their annual family picnic Sunday, June 28 at Bush's Pasture.

DON'T
Throw Your Watch Away—
We Fix Them When Others Can't
"Expert Diamond Setting and Manufacturing"
The Jewel Box
443 STATE ST. SALEM, ORE.

FUR STORAGE
FUR CLEANING
GLAZING
CRYSTALLING
Better Care Means Longer Wear
LACHELLE'S
1248 Ferry St. Ph. 3-6814

ARE YOU
Thinking about a permanent? If so, investigate our special type of permanent waves before you decide. Come in and talk to us soon or call 2-0192 for further details. You'll be glad you did.
Haley's
BEAUTY CENTER
"Where pretty women walk in—beautiful women walk out"
1114 Union St. Phone 2-6992

Another Exclusive at . . .

The Schlesinger Co.

Life Savers* Suits

gentleman-tailored by
Kirkland Hall

- hand made button holes!
- beautifully bound seams!
- self-covered shoulder pads!
- buttons secured by stay buttons!
- superb hand finishing!
- spot and crease resistant!

16 Delicious Flavors

REDUCED 14<sup>85</sup>
REG. 19.95

Three Terrific Burlington Rayons

- Smooth Candy Cream
- Crisp Candy Checks
- Textured Candy Nub

SIZES
10-20, 9-15, 12½-24½

All Sales Final

Three ways to buy . . .
Reg. Charge Budget Plan Layaway
* Life Savers Corporation for Candies

Open
Fridays
'til 9 P. M.

The Schlesinger Co.
409 Court

The Schlesinger Co.
FANCY PANTS

They Go With Anything for Summertime Playwear

Several pairs for your vacation wardrobe means more comfort—more fun and lovely sun-tanned legs!

2.98

Open Fridays 'til 9 P. M.

Your Choice

- DENIMS
- SAIL CLOTH
- TERRY CLOTH
- GABARDINES
- STRIPES
- Checks
- PASTELS

The Schlesinger Co.
409 Court Street

TV Troubles?
No matter what makes your radio or TV Set, you have Heider's Saturday. Heider's repair it better. Call 4-5732.

Call 4-2271
HEIDER'S
423 Court—1128 Center