

Here's Oregon Anglers' Outlook for Weekend:

PORTLAND (AP)—The State Game Commission reported these fishing conditions Thursday:

Northwest—The Sandy River is turbid from glacial water. Remainder of streams are clear and lower. Angling is fair in small streams in the Rhododendron area. Tillamook area upstream trout angling is poor to fair but locally good. Trout angling is best in tidewater. Fly fishing has improved. Cutthroat fishing in tidewater has improved. Lake Lytle is good for rainbow, cutthroat and bass. Blue Lake on the North Fork of Willamette River contains many 12-15" rainbows. Offshore salmon angling is improving slightly. Evening fly fishing continues fair to good on the McKenzie River and Middle Fork Willamette River and their tributaries. South Santiam is good for small trout above Arcadia. Clear Lake has been slow on troll and fair to good on flies. Hidden Lake is fair. Dorena Reservoir is fair to poor. Tributaries of Row River are fair for cutthroat trout. Spiny-ray fishing is good at Cottage Grove Reservoir and in the Fern Ridge area. Fishing is good to excellent in all Lincoln County streams. A few rainbow are being caught in tide-water in the Alsea River. Best bait is worms with spinner. Streams along the north coast are low and clear and angling is fair.

Southwest—Winchester Bay salmon fishing is not good as fog has hampered small craft from getting out. Some good catches of ocean perch have been made from the jetties. Spiny-ray and perch angling is good in Siltcoos, Tahkenitch and Ten Mile Lakes. Trout fishing is poor in the central coastal region. Trout fishing is good to excellent in all headwater tributaries and the upper Rogue is fair. In the middle and lower Rogue River, the Applegate and upper Illinois Rivers, the best catches are made on single eggs and on grey and black hackle flies. Salmon angling is good in the Bybee Bridge to McCloud area and fair to poor in the Grants Pass to Galice area. Trout angling is generally fair throughout the upper Umpqua area with the better catches being made on the North Umpqua. Water is in excellent condition although a little high. Summer steelhead angling is very slow.

Central—Gold Lake is producing some nice catches. Odell Lake is providing good catches of Mackinaw. Crescent Lake has been only fair. Crescent Creek salmon fly hatches are out and fishing has been good. East and Paulina Lakes are still providing many limit catches. Crane Prairie Reservoir has been providing good catches. Davis Lake fishing is only fair. Ochoco Reservoir is good Crooked River has been providing only fair angling. Blue Lake fishing was good over the past week end and is expected to continue good. Todd Lake is still covered with ice. Little Cultus Lake has been providing good catches. Road into Sparks Lake is still closed. Road is closed approximately two miles east of Irish, Taylor and Waldo Lakes.

Bishops, Bergs Snatch Ball Wins

Electric Club Sharing Lead

Bishop Electric out-cannonaded Orchard Heights, 13-9 and the Bergs Market tipped Four Corners Merchants 9-8 in Salem Junior Baseball Class B action Thursday evening.

The Bishop victory, second in a row for that club, left the team on top of the Class B standings with the Salem Laundry outfit. Orchard Heights tumbled to a 1-1 mark.

The Bergs now have a 2-1 record for second place behind the Bishop's and Salem Laundry entries, while Orchard Heights shares the next rung with Warner Motors and Truxax Oil, who have 1-1 marks also. Four Corners Merchants have yet to win in three tries.

The Bishop's, led by the solid hitting of Third-baseman Jim Young and Outfielder Larry Bevens, got off to a 9-0 lead at the end of the first two innings. Pitcher Serine yielded 15 hits to the O-Heights crew, but managed to stay ahead throughout the mix.

Young had a triple, double and single in four trips, while Bevens had two hits. Hurler Bredahl of the losers was plagued by 15 bases on balls issued, along with 11 hits. Johnny Garner, shortstop for the losers, had a perfect 4-for-4 batting performance, all singles. Ron Baker, first baseman, had three hits and so did Jim Gill, third baseman, one of which was a bases-loaded triple in the third inning.

Four Corners Merchants could get only three hits off Vince Mat of Berg's, two by losing hurler Gerald Bayse and the other by Gary Pierpoint.

Matt had two hits himself and fanned 10 batters. Larry Johnson had two singles, driving in three runs, and Larry Berk catcher, also had two hits off Bayse.

Berg's won the game in the final inning when Morris Baker walked, got to third base and then scored the winner on a wild pitch. Bishop Elec. 450 202-13 11 3 O-Heights 063 213-9 15 1 Serine and Schreckengost; Bredahl and Smith.

REGATTA ABOUT TO START AND THE WIND IS NINETY WOW!!

By Jimmy Hatlo

THEN THE STARTING GUN GOES OFF... AND SURE AS SHOOTIN' THE GUN KILLS THE WIND!

Over 25 Buzz-Buggies...

The roaring hot rods return to Salem's Hollywood Bowl Saturday night, the first auto racing program in three weeks for the North Portland Road speedway. And Valley Sports officials in charge of the meet have lined up over 25 of the roadsters for the show.

Nineteen cars will come from Portland and other Oregon points. Another eight or nine will be hauled down from the Seattle-Tacoma sector.

Leading the pack will be Len (Li'l Abner) Sutton and his No. 1 swift. The veteran Portlander is the 1952 roadster racing champion of the Northwest, and is therefore automatically the man to beat in any "rod" program this year. He's not doing so well this season, however.

Sutton wasn't No. 1 at the end of the first and only roadster meet held here this season, however. On June 13 Dick Brower of Seattle copped the local mainer before 2,000 fans, climbing one of the wildest hot rod racing cards ever seen here. Only six of the 12 main event cars could finish—the other six were in various smashups along the way.

Salem's Frankie McGowan was one of the ill-fortuned. He led for the first 27 laps only to be waved out because of car trouble.

Ray Long of Seattle won the 20-lap main event that night also. Time trials for Saturday's program will start at 7:30 o'clock, races at 8:30. Trophy dash, heat romps and Class B and A mainers will follow, in that order.

Association as their annual help-the-Senators pitch. Seven candidates, all selected from the various departments in the Association, are to be in a queen contest on Monday evening at Willson Park, following a downtown parade.

Members of the Senators team will be the judges in the contest and will crown the queen.

The queen and her court will govern the Tuesday night game between the Senators and Calgary, and other entertainment, arranged by Bob Ashby and his SE chieftains, will also be rendered during the big night.

The association has pledged to put 6,000 fans into the Waters Field seats for the Tuesday game, and have borrowed 2,000 bleachers from the School Board so that everyone will have a seat.

Tickets for the occasion have been going at a fast clip and fans are urged to secure theirs as early as possible.

The Calgary club will get only a $200 guarantee as its part of the proceeds that night.

Recalled by San Diego Wednesday, Mill Smith left for the Padres yesterday. Connie Perez will open at third base tonight, with Dick Sabatini in left field. Padres President Starr promised a replacement for Smith, but name of same hasn't yet been disclosed.

Armory Lists 'El Gorgeous'

"Gorgeous George," wrestling's famous "Human Orchid," will highlight next Thursday night's program at the Armory, Matchmaker Elton Owen announced Thursday.

Opponent for "El Gorgeous" is to be named today by Owen.

The renowned matador, whose gaudy cloaks and hair-dos are known all over the world, is making his annual visit to the area in which he got his start in the mat game. Once upon a time plain and simple George Wagner, the colorful grappler was naught but a prelim boy in the Oregon rings, including the one at the Armory.

Now he's "top draw" everywhere he appears and has been for the past few years.

Owen will announce the supporting card for Tuesday later also.

Yacht 'Goodwill' Falling Behind

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 161-foot schooner Goodwill late Thursday reported she was "absolutely becalmed" and apparently had surrendered the lead in the 2225-mile yacht race from Los Angeles to Skipper Ralph Larrabee by radio telephone called his wife at Newport Beach Calif. and gave her the said news. He said Richard Rheem's Morning Star two-time winner of the race presumably had found good wind to the south of the Goodwill's position and doubtless taken the lead.

The last official report from the Coast Guard cutter Yonconda placed the Goodwill 1315 miles from Honolulu and the ketch Morning Star just behind 1358 miles from Hawaii. This was several hours prior to Larrabee's Call Home.

Checked just behind the two leaders were the L'Apache 1373 miles from Honolulu; Chubasco, 1,390; Queen Mab 1410; Chiriqui 1420 and the Nam Sang 1422.
