Tanselli's Homer Beats Braves; Lead Regained

Roenspie Has 5-4 Victory

Wallop Comes in 7th; Nick On Hill Tonight

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Assuming the strong-arm role of the departed Milt Smith, Shortstop Gene Tanselli last night walloped a mighty 3-run homer in the seventh inning to provide the town Senators with a 5-4 verdict over the Tri-City Braves at Waters Field.

The clout, one of the hardest the former Oregon Stater has ever hit, cleared the Marilyn Shoe Ad in right-center, adjacent to the most distant point in the arena. It came with Gene Roenspie and Manager Hugh Luby on the sacks and it was hustling Gino's sixth round-tripper of the season.

Series Evened

The victory was No. 2 for the Salems over Edo Vanni's Braves in their seven-game sortie this week, evening the series count. It was a mighty sweet one in other respects also, for it elevated the Solons to undisputed league leadership again, inasmuch as Spokane lost to Wenatchee.

Game No. 5 is booked for tonight at 8:15 o'clock, and it will be Joe Nicholas, (12-3) against either Lefty Jim Hedgecock or Buck Tanner of the Braves. Tonight is also "Group Night," with a $75 cash prize from Dana's Bootery going to the largest group present. The group can be lodge, club, church unit, family, etc.

Close Shave

Roenspie came within a bad break for Catcher Bob Nelson of not being around to collect his eighth victory of the campaign. The Salems were trailing the T-City troupe 4-1 in the sixth when they suddenly began to Spectacled Don Robertson, hard-throwing Braves righthander who up until that time looked as good as money in the bank.

The Senators banged him for four hits in the sixth, but could get but one run out of it. Nelson shot a scorcher right at Robertson during his time at bat, and Don was fortunate enough to knock the ball down and throw Bob out at first base, ending the uprising.

Had the ball gone through for a base hit, a pinch-hitter was ready for Roenspie, next up. As it turned out, he led off the riotous Salem seventh, the one that tucked away the game.

Starts Rally

The slender hurler would be lying if he were to call himself a hitter, but nonetheless shot a sharp single to left to start the winning rally. Dick Sabatini flew out, but Luby smashed a double to left, putting runners on second and third. It was then that Tanselli took over with his 375-foot poke, one of the longest of the season here.

Salem had picked up a first inning run, unearned, on a pair of walks and a throwing error by Shortstop Terry Carroll which allowed leadoff batter Sabatini to score.

A single by Len Tran, followed by a double by Jack Warren netted a first-inning run for the Braves. Tran doubled and Warren singled in the fifth for another. In the fourth it was a walk to Dez Charouhas, Ernie Hockaday's single, a bunt-hit by Carroll, scoring Charouhas, and Nelson's throwing error in trying to nab Hockaday off third base, that brought across the two other T-City tallies.

Cannonading Starts

Salem had but two hits off Robertson after five heats, but elaborated considerably with four in the sixth and five more in the seventh. Robertson was biffed for singles by Jim Deyo and Jerry Ballard after Tanselli's homer, these finishing him. Veteran Jess Dobernic was called to stomp the fire, and did by getting slumping Les Witherspoon on a weak foul pop-up to Warren at third base.

The Salems loaded the bases off Dobernic in the eighth, but Perez's bid to add to his RBI total was denied as his smoking grounder was scooped up by First-sacker Vic Buccola for the third out.

Every Senator player joined the 12-hit batting attack that was long getting under way.

Tanselli's bat wasn't the only sharp item in the lineup. He came up with some dandy fielding plays also and had himself quite an evening all told . . . Attendance was 1,504 . . .

Elliott Stops Acorns As Portland Wins 5-0

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Portland southpaw Glenn Elliot scattered four hits in shutting out the Oakland Acorns 5-0 Friday night in the opener of a Pacific Coast League series.

The Beavers tagged Young Ernie Broglio, for 10 hits. The 17-year-old righthander walked six and struck out four in his professional debut.

Hollywood jumped into the lead in the Coast race with a 16-2 win over the erstwhile pace-setting Seattles. The Twinks now hold the top by half a game. San Francisco topped San Diego 8-2 and Sacramenta nosed Los Angeles 2-1.

The Beavers tagged Young Ernie Broglio, for 10 hits. The 17-year-old righthander walked six and struck out four in his professional debut.

Broglio got off to a shaky start when he walked the first Portland batter, Frank Austin. The second batter, Hank Arft, slammed a circuit clout into the right field seats.

The Beavers added a run in the third when Don Kolloway doubled and scored on Aaron Robinson's single. Another came in the fifth when Austin walked, advanced on Arft's single and Kolloway's sacrifice, and scored as Fletcher Robbe grounded out.

The fifth tally, an unearned one, was in the seventh. Robbe walked, went to third on an error by Sam Chapman, and raced home on Broglio's wild pitch.

Over 25 Cars Due for Race

Auto racing resumes at Hollywood Bowl tonight when the roaring roadsters take over for a full program, with the time trials starting at 7:30 o'clock. Actual races commence at 8:30, and will consist of a Trophy dash for the three fastest cars, four heat races of six laps each, a 20-lap Class B main event and a 35-lap Class A mainer.

Almost 30 cars, about 10 of which will be hauled in from the Seattle-Tacoma area, have been registered for the meet, the first one for the bowl after two weekends of idleness.

Brower Back Again

Leading the out-of-state contingent will be Dick Brower in his No. W-3 car, the combination that won the Class A mainer during the first and only hot rod meet here this season.

Salem will be well represented in the races also, what with both Frankie McGowan and Don Porter among those entered. Both have capable buzz buggies to herd also, and either could come in for the top share of the marbles.

Koch Leading in Points

Roadster Racing Association point leaders to date are Ernie Koch with 135, Palmer Crowell with 130 and Bobb Gregg with 96. Last year's champion, Len Sutton, is far down with 45. He has been having trouble getting his No. 1 swifty to functioning correctly this season, but could at any time burst loose to beat everything on the track.

Oregon drivers include those mentioned, along with Wild Bill Hyde, Walt Pflughaupt, Dick Braniff, Bob McGrotty, Ed Kane, Jack Timmings, Harold Spurb, Dick Gaboury, Benny Eyerly, Ray Miller, Jim Kirkpatrick and Darmond Moore. Washington pilots include Bill Legg, Bob Donker, Brower, Ike Hanks, Bob Burgess, Phil Foubert, Gordy Sutherland, Gene Wolfin, Jerry Dundin, Ray Davidson, Ray Laing, Joe Smith, Roger Covert, Phil McCauley and Bill Henshal.

WI Gate Tops 1952 Figures

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Total attendance at Western International League baseball games during the first half of the schedule increased by more than 24,000 this year over 1952, WIL President Bob Brown announced Friday.

Attendance from April 23 to July 2, 1953, was 329,386, compared with 304,990 from April 22 to July 1, 1952.

Although part of the increase might be attributed to the addition of two teams to the league, bringing the total to 10, it is particularly significant in view of the poor weather this season, Brown said.

Leading all teams in attendance during June was Edmonton, with 28,000. Lewiston was a second with 20,000.

No Crosby Deal For Seals—Yet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Bing Crosby notified the Pacific Coast League Friday that he has shelved, at least for the present, any idea of buying the San Francisco club.

Talking by phone from his Elko, Nev., ranch, Crosby told PCL President Clarence Rowland that "conditions as they are" make it impossible for him to consider such a deal.

The future "will have to speak for itself," Rowland quoted Crosby as saying.

The singer owns some stock in the Pittsburgh baseball club.

Queen Race Set Monday

Feature of the numerous feats arranged by the State Employees' Association for its big "night" Waters Field next Tuesday will be the selection of a queen for the occassion. This is to be done on Monday at Wilson Park, following a 6:30 p.m. parade through downtown Salem in which Gov. Patterson himself will participate.

Alda Hock

The Salem Senators players will select the queen from seven candidates, all members of the SE Association. Six of the girls were pictured in Friday's Statesman. The seventh appears today. She is Alda Hock, 23-year-old dark haired and blue eyed representative of the Accounting Division of the Highway Commission. Alda is 5-5½ in height and weighs 110 pounds.

The Association aims to put 6,000 fans in the park for the Tuesday game between Senators and Calgary's Stampeders.

Indians Bow To Wenatchee

The Spokane Indians fell out of first place in the second-half Western International League race Friday night as they dropped a 9-5 game to Righthander Charley Oubre and the Wenatchee Chiefs.

Calgary and Vancouver split a pair to remain knotted in the third-place slot along with Yakima. Calgary took the opener 3-0 on Joe Orell's hurling but dropped the second 4-2. Yakima moved up with an 8-7 verdict at the expense of Lewiston. The big fireworks of the night came as Victoria slammed 17 hits to crush Edmonton by a 19-6 count.

Oubre set the Spokanes down with seven hits, while his Wenatchee mates were clicking 13 off Ralph Romero and Bob Nemes.

Record Round Made by Ben

Amazing Texan Hits 68 for 4-Stroke Win

By STERLING SLAPPEY

CARNOUSTIE, Scotland (AP) — Ben Hogan won the British Oper Golf Championship Friday with a 282 to take his place forever beside Bobby Jones at the summit of all golf.

The little Texan — grim and greyish-blue from near exhaustion and influenza which struck him Friday morning — accomplished his feat on Carnoustie, justifably one of the most feared courses in the world.

On the last of his journeys around Carnoustie's 7,200 yards of tournament torture, Hogan broke the competitive course record with a 68.

That gave Hogan a 282 — an advantage of four strokes over amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio; Dai Rees, the tiny Welshman; Australia's Peter Thomson and Argentina's Antonio Cerda.

It was Rees and Scotsman Eric Brown, who led the field as the golfers went to the first tee Friday with Hogan two strokes back, 142 to 144.

But the Texan, admittedly deathly tired, moved into a share of the lead with Roberto de Vincenzo after a spectacular 70 in the morning round.

This was Hogan's first British Open attempt and his success ends abruptly the taunts and jeers that have followed the little man that "you can't play that other kind of golf" — the Scottish kind in the wild-sea winds, sleet and rain.

Hogan's victory gave him golf-dom's "triple crown" — the Augusta Masters, the U. S. Open and the British Open. That is as close as a professional can get to the "impossible quadruple" that Bobby Jones won in 1930 — the U. S. Open and Amateur and the British Open and Amateur. The Masters was not in existence then.

Giants Take 7th in Row . . .

Braves Gain on Brooks Indians, Chisox Split

NEW YORK (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves shaved a full game off the Brooklyn Dodger's National League lead Friday night by whipping St. Louis, 5-2, while the Dodgers were bowing to the New York Giants, 6-1.

This cut the Brooklyn edge to two games and left a gap of only 6½ between the top and the fifth place Giants, who won their seventh in a row.

In the American League Cleveland and Chicago split the first two games of their vital five game weekend series for second place, leaving the White Sox in the runner up spot, 5½ games behind the New York Yankees.

The Indians won the opening game in 10 innings, 3-0, on Bobby Feller's five hit pitching. But the White Sox came back strong to win the nightcap, 16-5, scoring 10 runs

Yanks Top Nats

The Yankees coasted past Washington, 6-1, in the majors' only day action.

Rookie Marion Fricano Walked Jim Piersall with the bases loaded and two out in the 12th inning to give Boston a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia. Piersall robbed Fricano of victory in the last of the ninth by hitting a home run to tie the score.

The St. Louis Browns unveiled a potent home run punch to defeat Detroit, 8-4. Clint Courtney, Jim Dyck, Don Lenhardt and Roy Seivers all homered for the Browns as Ted Gray lost for the first time in his last five starts.

The Philadelphia Phillies committed six errors against Pittsburgh but they made up for it at bat, collecting 13 hits as Curt Simmons won his first game since returning to action 13-3. The young lefthander was sidelined a month after running a power mower over his feet.

Cincinnati and Chicago divided a pair, Ken Raffensberger pitched his 31st shutout of his major league career in the first game which the Redlegs won, 6-0. The Cubs took the nightcap, 4-3, with Ralph Kiner hitting a three-run homer in the fifth inning.

Brooklyn managed only six hits off the offerings of Sal Maglie. One of the blows was a home run by Roy Campanella that kept alive the Dodgers' streak of homers in 24 games, one short of the major league record. The Giants scored four runs in the first three innings against rookie Bob Milliken.

Warren Spahn stopped the Cardinals on six hits in winning his 11th game against three defeats. Eddie Mathews of the Braves hit his 26th home run of the season in the fifth with one on.

Cubs' Owner 'Might Sell'

CHICAGO (AP) — Owner P. K. Wrigley said Friday he might sell his Chicago Cubs in the wake of an announced offer to purchase the club by a group of Chicago businessmen reportedly having five-million dollar backing.

Wrigley said a Chicago American story Friday was the first he knew of the offer made by a Chicago attorney, Bailey Stanton, who Thursday told Cub business manager James T. Gallagher he represented a half-dozen interested Chicagoans.

Gallagher said he had not regarded the offer specific enough to immediately report to Wrigley.

In answer to a direct question, Wrigley said:

Yes, I might sell the Cubs if the conditions were right. It's a rather thankless job owning the club. There's no money in it. All you get is publicity and I don't want that."
