Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, July 13, 1953

Hawaii bound today are Sylvia and Sue Rawlinson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Rawlinson. They are flying to the Islands as the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. A. J. Davis of Portland. Accompanying the girls are two other cousins, Carolyn Davis and Nancy Davis of Portland. They will sojourn in Honolulu for a month, returning to the States on the Lurline.

Interesting visitors in Salem are Mrs. Elton Von Eschen and daughters, Dianne and Joanne, who flew west with Mr. Von Eschen from their home at Nanhasset, Long Island, N. Y. They are guests at the home of Mr. Von Eschen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen.

Charming newcomers being welcomed in the capital are Mrs. Donald M. Gleckler and children, Susan and Stephen, at the right, who recently arrived in Oregon with Prof. Gleckler from Topeka, Kansas. Mr. Gleckler is a new member of the Willamette University Music School faculty.

Recent newcomers in the capital from Portland are Mrs. Murry Schofield and small son, Jeffrey. Dr. Schofield has opened his dental offices in the Park Medical Building. The family has taken a house on Laurel Avenue.

Soon to leave Salem for Washington, D. C. to make their home will be the Oliver T. Mansfield family. Pictured with Mrs. Mansfield left to right are Margaret, Donnie, Emily Ann and the family cocker, Blondie. Mrs. Mansfield was honored at a farewell party this last week when Mrs. William Johnson and Mrs. Otis Berry entertained. Mr. Mansfield has been transferred to FBI headquarters in Washington.

On the directorate for the garden benefit tea to be given by members of Bethel U.D., Job's Daughters this afternoon at the William J. Braun home are left to right; Barbara Anderson, the honored queen, Lottie Lou Osterman, Shirleen Bacewich, Phoebe Lou Braun and Mary Clare Mooney, the general chairman. All interested friends or members of Masonic affiliations are invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.
