By JOHN HAMMERSTAD

JAMBOREE CAMPSITE, Calif.—Everyone was up and starting to cook breakfast over the charcoal stoves at 6:30 a.m. (Thursday). In Terry Copley's patrol Doug Thompson from Troop 6 is head cook, Robert Daunhauer, also from Troop 6, is assistant cook.

Head kitchen cleaner-upper is Charles Faulkner from Troop 20, Bob Trelstad is water boy. The fireboy is Jerry Pavelek from Troop 6, and Chuck Hammerstad from Post 2 is camp cleaner-upper.

The trading posts, where most of the activity is during the day, are huge places. All kinds of food are sold there. Camp supplies, everything listed in the scout catalog and other miscellaneous items are also sold.

At 12 o'clock we went to the Pike amusement park in Long Beach. The Pike is southern California's Coney Island.

Roller Coaster
The first thing a group of us did was to ride on the roller coaster. Don Nash, our quarter-master, who went on it for the first time, complained that he had left his stomach at the top of the first dip.

Then everyone split up in pairs to try their luck at winning prizes in the booths. We left that afternoon after everyone had filled up on all the junk they could eat. After seeing the California girls at the Pike all the boys in our troop are for the idea of having the Salem girls wear bathing suits everywhere like the California girls.

Good for Swimming
The weather here is bright and sunny, just perfect for swimming. Saturday we'll have a chance to test the California surf.

Swapping took place again this afternoon with everything changing hands three or four times inside of an hour.

Tonight we are having a talent show in our section. Boys from every part of this section will display their talents before 1,500 boys. There will be singing, dancing, skits and all kinds of other entertainment. Lanny Ross will be here to entertain us tonight with his singing. Ross used to be a boy scout from Seattle.

Tomorrow at 9 o'clock a gun shot will mark the official opening of this stupendous National Jamboree. Tomorrow the real fun will begin.

British Trade With China Said Climbing

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—The Board of Trade released figures Monday showing Britain's business in non-strategic goods with Red China is climbing — despite American congressional complaints.

At the same time, the Foreign Office reaffirmed it is Britain's policy to continue and develop such non-strategic trade with the Peiping government and any other Communist nations.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for a private British group which negotiated in Peiping with Communist authorities said in London that a team of British businessmen will come out of Peiping in a few days with contracts worth $3,600,000.

Total Trebles
The Board of Trade disclosed Britain and Red China did $15,680,000 worth of business with each other in the first five months of this year. This almost trebled a total of $5,900,000 in the same period of 1952.

British exports to China, a spokesman stressed, were entirely non-strategic. He listed the main items involved as woolen goods, chemicals and fertilizers, machinery mainly for textiles and semi-finished iron, steel and non-ferrous goods.

Exports Listed
China's main exports to this country were raw hair, bristles, fats and oils and some animal and food products.

Britain bought about $8,400,000 worth of Chinese goods up to the end of May this year and sold $7,280,000 worth of British goods. Comparable figures for the same period last year were five million dollars and $900,000.

1952 Contracts
A Board of Trade spokesman said the increase probably was accounted for by shipments made in respect of contracts signed in the early spring of 1952 at the Moscow economic conference which was attended by some British businessmen.

The restatement of British policy on the overall question of trading with Red China came as a Foreign Office comment on the report of the U.S. Senate permanent investigations subcommittee which has been measuring this sort of thing.

The subcommittee complained that after three years of Korean fighting, Allied trade with Red China not only is flourishing but increasing.

Its report asserted that in the first quarter of 1953, twelve times more business was done between America's Western Allies and Red China than in the same period last year.

State Development Group Sets Meet

The Oregon Development Commission, created by the 1953 Legislature, will hold its first meeting Friday in the capitol.

Purpose of the commission is to attract new industries, expand the operations of current industries, and distribute the unemployment load during periods of emergency.

The commission was expected to elect a chairman at Friday's meeting and possibly employ a full-time secretary.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Train Death Gets 'Probable Suicide' Rating

The death of Mrs. Violet Cathrine Barnes, 27, killed by a train near Fairview Home July 3, was listed as a "probable suicide" Monday by Marion County Coroner Leston Howell.

Howell, who received the final autopsy report yesterday from the Crime Detection Laboratory, Portland, said the "circumstances leading up to the death indicate suicide."

The Southern Pacific freight train which struck Mrs. Barnes, wife of Oregon Penitentiary Deputy Warden Lewis P. Barnes, caused her death, said the coroner.

An analysis of stomach contents yielded nothing unusual, Howell reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and their three young children had been

U.N. May Hold Red Trade Fate

SINGAPORE (AP)—Rubber traders hoping for a resumption of rubber shipments to Communist China following an armistice in Korea have been warned the decision may lie with the United Nations.

Faced by sagging prices, the trade hopes a revival of business with Red China will bolster prices.

Rubber sales to China averaged 5,000 tons a month before the Singapore government, implementing a decision by the United Nations to ban strategic goods from China, clamped down on the trade in April, 1951.

living at a cottage at Fairview Home until a home could be found for them at the prison. Barnes was appointed deputy warden shortly after Warden Clarence T. Gladden took office April 1.

Surcharge Talks: Resume in August

Hearing of the surcharge case, involving three Oregon electric power companies, will be resumed probably on Aug. 24, Public Utilities Commissioner Charles H. Heitzel said Monday.

First part of the hearing, completed several weeks ago, involved largely the testimony of the plaintiffs. Complaint attacking the recent 20 per cent surcharge was filed by State Rep. Monroe Sweetland, Milwaukie, and officials of the Linn County Farmers Union.

Defendants are Portland General Electric, Mountain States Power Company and Pacific Light and Power Company. The 20 per cent surcharge was imposed by permission of the utilities commissioner to reimburse the power companies for additional expense incurred in operating steam generators during the low water period last fall and early winter.
