'Nick' Suffers, 7 to 2 Defeat

Salem Lead Now One Game Over Spokane

PARKER FIELD, Yakima (Special)—The fast-rising Yakima Bears slammed the Salem Senators 7-2 in the opening game of their Western League series here Tuesday night, handing Joe Nicholas his fourth defeat of the season and stopping a win streak for the sidearm at 10 in a row. Nicholas now has a 16-4 record. Mexican Danny Rios twirled the victory, holding Salem to seven hits and nailing his 13th triumph.

A four-run seventh inning knocked Nicholas from the box and Bob Collins took over. He managed to strike out all four batters he faced thereafter.

Yakima had 11 hits off Nicholas with Bill Steinberg leading the way with three, including a triple. Andy Anderson had two doubles and three runs batted in.

Salem finally scored in the seventh on a walk to Les Witherspoon, Chuck Essegian's double, another walk to Nicholas, and a run-producing hit by pitched-ball for Dick Sebastiani.

Salem located the sacks in the ninth with no one out on hits by Witherspoon and Essegian, and a walk. Witherspoon scored when Pitcher-hitter Don Masterson hit into a double play.

In the seventh for Yakima McNamara walked, Steinberg tripled, White and Wellman singled. After two force plays by Noren and Lewis, Anderson doubled and that was all for Nicholas.

The loss was costly for the Salem, for their league lead is now but one game over Spokane, which licked Vancouver Tuesday night.

Yakima and Salem go again Wednesday night, and it will be Jack Hemphill on the mound for the Senators. Attendance for the Tuesday game was 1,762. The Yaks have been going good lately.

Anxious to Get Back in Lineup...

Ted Williams Released, Heads for Fenway Park

The annual Oregon American Legion Junior Baseball tournament, a four-team pitch which will see the Salem entry trying for a second straight championship, opens its double-elimination run Thursday night at Waters Field.

Two games will get the playoffs under way. Milwaukee goes against Hermiston at 6:30 o'clock Thursday, after which the Salem Capital Posters take on the Albany entry. The two Thursday losers will meet Friday night at 6:30, and the two Thursday winners will play the second game Friday night. A single game is slated for Saturday night, with the championship to be decided Sunday.

Coach Vince Genna's Salem lads, loaded with hustle and determination, are rated as having a good chance to repeat for the title and ensuing playoffs.

The Salems of a year ago advanced to Hastings, Neb., where they played in the national quarter-finals before being eliminated.

Both Albany and Milwaukee are expected to field strong teams this week during the tournament. Albany beat out Eugene in their eliminations, and Eugene was known to have a powerful outfit.

Tickets for the tournament, sponsored by Capital Post No. 5, are now available at Wicklund's Sporting Goods Store, 372 State Street. Tournament officials are hoping for solid attendance for the games, for it is their aim to land regional playoffs here in the future.

Salem will go into the tournament with an undefeated status, having won 17 straight games this season.

set out for Boston to resume his twice-interrupted career.

"I'm anxious to get back in the lineup," Williams told a crowded news conference. "I can already hear those guys with the bazoos in left field—and that's all right with me."

No matter how loud the Fenway Park jockeys blow in their bazoos, it will be a far sweeter sound to Williams than the bazookas he listened to over in Korea, where he flew 38 combat missions before returning to the United States.

Cudd Leading Golf Tourney

VANCOUVER, Wash. (S)—Bruce Cudd of Portland, Oregon amateur champion, carded a four-under-par 69 Tuesday to lead in the Northwest Open golf tournament. His Tuesday score, combined with the 69 he shot Monday, gave him a 36-hole total of 137.

Al Williams, Medford pro who carded 66 Monday, had putting trouble Tuesday and wound up with a 74 for a 140 total.

Three professionals were tied at 141: Johnny Langford, Portland, 70-71; Cliff White, La Grande, 69-72; and Tom Boucher, Walla Walla, with 70-71.

Harold West, Washington Open champion from Pendleton, shot 69 Tuesday for a two-day total of 142.

Tied with him were Joe Greer, Yakima pro, 71-71; Dick Lundahl, Baker pro, 70-72; and George Beecher, Ontario amateur, 72-70.

Leo Gaulchoir, Olympia pro who shot 68 Monday, had 75 Tuesday for a 143 total. Knotted at par 144 were Cliff White, Eugene, 69-75; 71-73, and Harold Salvador, Portland amateur, 71-73.

Spokane Cuts Lead to One

The Spokane Indians cut the Salem Senators' Western League lead to one game last night by again downing the Vancouver Caps, this time 8-7 at Spokane, while Salem was losing 7-2 to Yakima.

Manager Harry Storey of the Caps hit a grand-slam homer, but to no avail.

The Lewiston Bronces downed Tri-City 6-4 to climb into fifth place, and Edmond again downed sinking Calgary, 4-1, on John Conant's 17th victory of the season, a seven-hitter.

Victoria nosed out Wenatchee 7-6, Bob Drilling outlasting Chuck Oubre. Bob Moniz of the Vics and Ross McCormack of the Chiefs had home runs.

BEER POPULAR

NEW YORK (INS)—Beer's increasing popularity as a home beverage was given a "double-barreled" boost in 1962 by a gain of over a million barrels in total consumption and a new record achieved in packaged sales. The 1953 edition of the Brewers Almanac, published by the United States Brewers Foundation, says total beer consumption was recorded at 84,443,084 barrels (of 31 gallons) in 1952—the second highest mark on record, being exceeded only by the first post-war year of 1947.

Demchuk, O'Riley Win Matches

John Demchuk and Irish Jack O'Riley came through with the wins last night in a riotous evening at the Armory, one in which (1) Referee Tony Ross was hospitalized with a gashed lip, needing nine stitches and (2) a fan, trying to take a swing at O'Riley as he was heading for the dressing rooms, got belted on the snoot instead.

The rugged Demchuk won over The Masked Marvel via disqualification in the final scrap. It was in this one that Ross was injured. He was attempting to break up a hold when Demchuk conked him on the mouth with an elbow. Matchmaker Owen had to finish up the refereeing chore.

The Marvel won the first fall with a backbreaker slam and Demchuk came back with his deadly rolling toe hold to tie it. Ross returned in time to finish up the refereeing job, and to disqualify the Marvel for illegal tactics.

John Henning showed a lot of class in his brawl with O'Riley, but faded before the toughness and experience of the tattooed Aussie. It was after the second fall, which O'Riley won with his steeper toe hold, that fans tried to block his exit to the dressing quarters. One attempted a swing on O'Riley, but got hit instead. A near riot resulted, but was quickly broken up by American Legionnaires.

O'Riley came back to win the next fall with another toe hold.

In the prelim George Drake and Greg Jacques went to a 30-minute, no-fall draw. Vittorio O'Shea was unable to appear for his match—he's in a Portland hospital with a leg injury.

All matches were wild and woolly last night. Demchuk and O'Riley have now qualified to meet one another for the right to the latter's Coast junior heavy title belt.

Hollywood Drops 5-4 Verdict to Seraphs

Pitcher Royce Lint cracked out a single in the 11th inning, last night to provide himself with a 4-3 victory over the Seattle Rainiers in the opening game of their 9-game Coast League baseball series at Portland. The blow came off losing Pitcher Al Evans, ace of the Rainiers staff.

In other league games the San Diego Padres pushed the Sacramento Solons back into the basement with a 6-3 win, helped along by a five-run first inning highlighted by Earl Rapp's 13th homer; Los Angeles beat Hollywood in 12 innings, 5-4, on Manager Bobby Bragan's error after fielding Bob Usher's squeeze bunt and Oakland and San Francisco split a pair. The Oaks' Jess Flores blanked Ted Shander 1-0 in the opener, but the Seals bounced back with a 20-hit attack to win the second game 12-1.

Silverton Girls Top Mt. Angel 9

MT. ANGEL (Special)—The Silverton entry in the Silver Falls Girls Softball League Tuesday night nosed out Mt. Angel here by a 9-8 score. Both teams are far down in the league standings. Silverton had 11 hits while Mt. Angel team could get but two off Hurler Jones.

ROBIN ROBERTS Aiming for ERA title

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees dealt a severe blow to the faint Cleveland pennant hopes Tuesday night by whipping the Indians 4-2 and widening their lead over the fourth place club to nine games.

Strong relief pitching by Allie Reynolds plus home runs by Joe Collins and Gil McDougald gave the Yanks their first victory in seven games over the Indians.

While the Yanks were taking care of Cleveland the second place Chicago White Sox cooled off the Boston Red Sox 4-2, breaking the seven game winning streak of Hector (Skinny) Brown. The White Sox slayed 5% games behind New York but the third place Red Sox slipped 8 1/2 back.

Three of the Chicago runs off Brown, who was traded to the Red Sox by the White Sox last winter, came on home runs. Sam Mele hit one with a runner aboard

Phillies' Roberts Leads National Hurling Parade

NEW YORK (AP)—Rugged Robin Roberts is trying on the National League earned run crown for size and if he likes the fit he can become the first Philadelphia Phillies' pitcher to win the title in 36 years.

Statistics compiled by The Associated Press show the 26-year-old righthander has allowed 56 earned runs in 221 innings for a 2.28 ERA, lowest in the league. Figures include games through Sunday.

No Phillie hurler has captured earned run honors since the immortal Grover Cleveland Alexander accomplished the feat three seasons in a row from 1915 to 1917.

Roberts tops the league in just about every pitching department. He has the most victories, 17; the most innings pitched, 221; the most complete games, 24; the most strikeouts, 116, and the most shutouts, five.

Hoyt Wilhelm, last season's earned run leader, is runnerup to Roberts with a 2.34 mark. The New York Giants' relief specialist has given up 25 earned runs in 96 innings.

Virgil Trucks, who was traded from the St. Louis Browns to the Chicago White Sox in mid-June, is the American League earned run leader with a 2.50 average. The 34-year-old fireballer, in his 12th season in the majors, has given up 45 earned runs in 162 innings.

Red Sox Down Molalla, 7-6

SILVERTON (Special)—The Silverton Red Sox defeated Molalla 7-6 in a baseball game here Tuesday night, with Lefty Chuck Sauvain and Gene Peterson limiting the visitors to two hits.

The Sox were given a quick 4-0 lead in the second when Max Marshall, right fielder, slammed out a home run with the bases loaded. Ted Kerr, Sauvain and Rod Oster were aboard.

Molalla tied it in the fourth, but Silverton went ahead again by two in the sixth. Peterson relieved Sauvain in the eighth when Molalla scored twice.

The Sox finish their home season here Friday night when they play the barnstorming Cubana Monarchs at McGinnis Field.

Yankees, White Sox Win, Keep Pace; Brooks Club Cubs; Braves 'O' Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees dealt a severe blow to the faint Cleveland pennant hopes Tuesday night by whipping the Indians 4-2 and widening their lead over the fourth place club to nine games.

Strong relief pitching by Allie Reynolds plus home runs by Joe Collins and Gil McDougald gave the Yanks their first victory in seven games over the Indians.

in the fourth and Minnie Minoso contributed a bases-empty blast in the fifth.

Detroit spurted into an 8-0 lead at Washington and held on to whip the fading Senators 8-5. At Philadelphia Ray Murray homered with one on in the eighth to give the Athletics a 9-7 verdict over the cellar-dwelling St. Louis Browns.

Brooklyn's fast moving Dodgers swamped the Chicago Cubs 13-2 with the help of seven unearned runs but didn't gain anything on the runner-up Milwaukee Braves who turned back the New York Giants 2-0 although they got only three hits.

The third place Philadelphia Phillies fell nine games off the pace by dropping a 5-4 decision to Cincinnati. The St. Louis Cardinals crept into a fourth place tie with the Giants as they defeated Pittsburgh 6-4.

Chicago managed only four hits—three by Randy Jackson—off young Johnny Podres who won his seventh straight game for Brooklyn. Two glaring errors, one a wild throw by Roy Smalley that allowed three runs to score, decided the game in the second inning.

Milwaukee scored its two runs against the Giants without using any of its precious hits. Pitcher Bob Buhl led off the third with a walk. Bill Bruton sacrificed and both runners were safe when the throw to second was too late to catch Buhl. Another sacrifice moved the runners along and after Eddie Mathews was purposely passed, Sid Gordon also drew a walk to force home one run. The other scored after a long fly by Andy Pafko. Al Worthington, who worked the first seven innings, gave up all the hits. Hoyt Wilhelm pitched the hitless eighth inning, the first time this season he's been able to get anybody out in Milwaukee.

Ray Jablonski drove in three runs for St. Louis with a pair of singles. Three of the Pittsburgh runs came on a two-on homer by Frank Thomas.

Cincinnati pounded five Philadelphia pitchers for 12 hits and Harry Perkowski weathered a four run eighth inning to post his ninth victory and his fourth in a row.
