Social life in the early 1900s was mighty active. Here is a group of members of a dancing club and whether or not you recognize the faces, you'll probably know many of the names. Front row from left to right are: Ben W. Olcott, George Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Charles McNary, George Brown. Second row: Mrs. Oswald West, Mrs. Ed L. Baker, Mrs. Olcott, Dr. Steiner, Mrs. George Rose, Mrs. Baumgartner, Mrs. Frank Durbin, Joseph Baumgartner. Standing, Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Frank Griffith, Mrs. McNary, Mrs. Jack Dancy, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. Harry Olinger, Miss Linnie Stutesman (later Mrs. Frank Lovell), Mrs. Brown. Back row: Jim Wilson, Dr. Olinger, Jack Dancy, Frank Durbin, Mrs. Frank Meredith (almost hidden), Mr. Meredith, Oswald West, Frank Griffith and Ed L. Baker. Other members of the club not at this meeting were the Milton L. Meyers, the Max O. Burens, Dr. Carlton Smith, George Rose, F. K. Lovell and Mrs. Jim Wilson.

Miss Ellis, George Error
Wed In California Ceremony

A California wedding of interest to Salem friends of the couple was an event Saturday, August 8, when George A. Error claimed Miss Normita Ellis as his bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Legrand Ellis of Three Rivers, Calif., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas G. Error of Salem.

The ceremony was performed at the Three Rivers Community Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Edwin P. Rogers officiating. Mrs. William Stroh was the organist and Mrs. Pat Gorman sang Greig's "Ich Liebe Dich."

A bouffant skirt of five tiers of white embroidered organdy formed the bride's gown and her lace cap edged with pearls held in place the finger-tip illusion veil. She carried two white orchids surrounded by stephanotis and ivy.

Preceding the bride to the altar were candlelighters, Mrs. Leo Swanson and Miss Patricia Bills; the matron of honor, Mrs. Andy Bronzan, a sister of the bride, and bridesmaids, Miss Agnes Stockle and Mrs. Bill Franklin. All three of the latter carried white baskets filled with blue and white flowers, and wore white and blue organdy dresses.

Nicholas Error, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Warren Gee, Andy Bronzan and Lloyd Ellis.

The mothers of both bride and groom wore waltz-length lace dresses, Mrs. Ellis' in rose, and Mrs. Error in aqua. Both wore white orchids.

At a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Craig Thorn Jr., Mrs. Vernon Dixon, Mrs. H. A. Petersen and Mrs. Homer Hardin assisted the hostess. For their wedding trip to a mountain resort in Southern Oregon, the bride changed to a grey linen suit with yellow accessories. Later the couple will be at home in Portland where Mr. Error will be employed as food inspector for the government until he reports for active duty with the U.S. Army. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in ROTC at Oregon State College from which he graduated this year as a food technology major. The bride also is a graduate of Oregon State College where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority and Mortar Board. The groom is a member of Kappa Sigma.

LABISH CENTER—Guests at the homes of Mrs. Lena Weinman and Mrs. Clyde Leedy are Miss Florence Schaufele and Mrs. Elsa Martin of Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Graham, their son Fred and his daughter Leanne, are leaving Salem Monday for California where the son will teach school. He has been teaching at Molalla.

Mrs. Earl Rowland was hostess for the August meeting of the Swegle Community Builders club Monday night at her Tierra Drive home. Mrs. Everett Morris is a new member.

Housing Shortage Noted at Peiping

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The capital of Communist China apparently has a housing shortage just like Washington. A Peiping radio broadcast heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco, said recently that 30 hotels, 100 apartment houses and four new theaters were being built this year.

Among the projects was said to be the new Peking (Peiping) hotel, nine stories high and the tallest building in the ancient walled city.

PLANES MOVE RAILS

MUROC LAKE, Calif. (AP)—A railroad is being moved so that planes of tomorrow may be tested today on the sunbaked bed of Muroc Dry Lake. Relocation of 26 miles of the main line of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company's track around the lake will give the Air Force a 20-mile-long natural runway. The job is scheduled for completion by October.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a son, Steven John, to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stein (Helene Peters Davis) on July 23. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters, Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stein, Gladstone.

CENTRAL HOWELL—Guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner were his cousin Oliver Steiner and Henry Short, both of Ft. Wayne, Indiana. The men were en route to a Youth for Christ rally in Japan, where Steiner will act as song leader.

The Salem Firemen's Auxiliary met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bud Stettler Jr., 335 S. 19th, with Mrs. Gerald Hall and Mrs. Robert Norton as co-hostesses. About 16 members attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bannister are welcoming a daughter, Cheryl Kay, born August 4 and weighing eight pounds, 2½ ounces. The Bannisters also have a six-year-old son, William James.

Veto of Indian
Bill Requested
Of President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Friday was urged to veto a bill that would give five states criminal and civil jurisdiction over their Indian reservations.

Protests against the measure were sent to the White House by the Association of American Indian Affairs, the Institute of Ethnic Affairs and the American Civil Liberties Union.

The five states that would get authority to deal with Indian crimes are California, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oregon and Wisconsin. Excepted from the authority would be the Red Lake (Minn.), Warm Springs (Ore.) and Menominee (Wis.) reservations.

Survey Shows
Health-Riches Relationship

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Is your family small and headed by a college-educated white collar worker of young or middle age? If so, you probably won't have to worry about its health.

A survey made by the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health show a definite relationship between a family's health and its social and economic position. These conditions also affect its social welfare.

But don't worry if your family isn't like this model—and hypothetical—one. You won't necessarily have trouble.

The report, which covered 2,370 Pittsburgh families, simply says the closer your family is to the "ideal" the better its chance of escaping health and social woes.

Three doctors—Antonio Cocco, Paul M. Densen and Daniel G. Harvitz—reported the survey. In it, they reached these conclusions:

1. Large families consult social agencies more often and have great number of health problems.
2. Families headed by widowed, divorced or separated persons contact social agencies.
3. Those headed by young persons had fewer contacts with social agencies; those headed by middle aged persons had fewer health problems.
4. Social agencies were needed by almost twice as many non-white families as white, but there was little difference between the two groups in health.
5. White collar families consulted social agencies less than other families and had fewer health problems.
6. Social agencies were contacted by more than 50 per cent of families whose head did not complete elementary school, but by only 20 per cent of those whose head attended college. Health problems also were fewer among college-educated.

ka, Oregon and Wisconsin. Excepted from the authority would be the Red Lake (Minn.), Warm Springs (Ore.) and Menominee (Wis.) reservations.

Owner Receives
Long-Lost Ring
Via Potato Patch

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP)—J. D. Taylor, retired Claremore grocer, has a Masonic ring he lost 26 years ago because Bill Reynolds dug up an old potato on his farm near Wagoner last week.

Reynolds found the ring in a clod of dirt around the potato. A story of the discovery was printed in the Tulsa World and read by Taylor. He got in touch with Reynolds and identified the ring as the one he lost.

TAX RULING EYED

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced Friday it is investigating the circumstances surrounding a $65,000 payment made to Welburn Mayock, a lawyer, for getting a favorable tax ruling for a New York business executive.
