

City News Briefs

BLIMP HERE MONDAY
A U. S. Navy blimp, the same one which stopped here July 29, will revisit Salem Monday for an overnight stop at McNary Field. The craft, en route to its home base at Santa Ana, Calif., from Seattle, Wash., is slated to reach Salem about 9 a. m. The air ship will be moored near the Naval Air Facility, reached via Turner Road. The public may visit it, officer said.

PRE-FAIR SALE
Some of the new Mexican hand-craft articles for Don Drury's booth at the Oregon State Fair have arrived early. They are on view and on sale at his home, "Hals-A-Hill", Rt. 3 Box 774, Ph. 2-1138 for appointment.

MACLAREN REPORTS ESCAPES
Two 16-year-old inmates of MacLaren School for Boys, Woodburn, were reported missing about 10 a. m. Saturday, police said. The boys reportedly left a working party at a Hubbard berry patch. They were identified as David Wesley Mills and Inez Guerrero.

Eileen Clark now associated with Jade Room for Beauty, 1872 State St. Phone 3-3836.

HAS BIKE ACCIDENT
Herb Honey, 12, Salem Route 2, Box 344-E, sustained a two-inch cut under his chin Saturday afternoon when his bicycle struck a mail box near his home. The boy was taken to first aidmen at central station where the cut was dressed. He was advised to see a doctor for stitches.

Fresh killed young turkeys. To bake or fry, 30c lb. Orwigs Market, 3975 Silverton Rd. Phone 4-5742.

KIWANIS SEEKS MEET
Plans for bringing the district Kiwanis convention to Salem in 1954 will be discussed at the regular noon luncheon meeting of the Salem Kiwanis Club at the Senator Hotel. This year's convention will be held at Yakima, Wash., later in August.

Many are claiming relief from Arthritis, Sinus, Asthma at the Enterprise Uranium mine at Boulder, Montana. Information, Frank Haskell, 761 S. W. Vista Ave., Portland.

BOY'S HEAD CUT
Terry Lee Reed, 2, of 274 Senate St., received a cut on his forehead about 6:30 Saturday night when he fell from a car bumper at his home. First aidmen dressed the wound.

Public Records

PROBATE COURT
Marcia May Hill estate: Final account presented and hearing set for Sept. 11.

MARRIAGE LICENSES
Robert L. Wells, 26, plumber, Woodburn, and Arlene Pedersen, 20, dental assistant, Silverton.
Bob Ray Dean Plumlee, 26, laborer, and Barbara Lee Ammon, 16, at home, both of Lebanon.
Ervin York, 38, contractor, 684 S. Commercial St., and Elaine Phillips, 27, cashier, 861 Piedmont Ave.

DISTRICT COURT
Gordon E. Wheeler, Independence, charged with drawing bank check with insufficient funds, held in lieu of $2,000 bail and case continued until Monday.

CIRCUIT COURT
Insurance Company of North America vs Fred Bales: Complaint charging defendant with negligence while moving a building Jan. 29, 1952, during which alleged damage was sustained, seeks $1,166 judgment.
Tom C. Morgan vs Southern Pacific Company: Satisfaction of judgment of $6,965 paid plaintiff for injuries allegedly sustained in train and truck accident May 29, 1952.

See what you're doing

even at arm's length

Anytime you can't see clearly at any distance, see about your eyes. For people who have trouble with arm's length seeing tasks we often prescribe Continuous Vision lenses. If CV's are prescribed for you, you'll know what it's like to see Young again. Available in the latest "Personality" frames.

"Convenient Budget Terms Available"

Dr. Henry E. Morris
Dr. Kenneth Morris
Morris Optical Co.

Optometrists
444 State Street

CHURCH DINNER TODAY
A fellowship dinner will be held Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church following morning services. Those attending are to bring table service, a hot dish and salad. Coffee, dessert and rolls will be furnished.

Dr. Will J. Thompson, Optometrist. Examinations by appointment. Phone 4-4057.

Burglars broke into the Willard Art Tile Co., in the 3000 block of Portland Road, sometime early Saturday morning, but no goods were found missing, city police said. An iron bar was used to pry open a door to the storage warehouse.

For rent, vacation trailers. Lana Lane Trailer Plaza, 1940 Lana Ave.

GRASS FIRE ON MASON ST.
Burning rubbish set off a grass fire at 2335 Mason St. about 6:30 Saturday night and burned an area about 350 feet square, fireman reported. The blaze was quickly extinguished.

Landscaping and designing. No job too large or too small. F. A. Doerfler and Sons Nursery, 250 Lancaster Dr. at 4 Corners. Ph. 2-2549.

The end of your need comes when you place a Classified ad in The Oregon Statesman. Dial 2-2441 for a friendly ad-writer.

TOWNSEND CLUB MEETS
Central Townsend Club 6 will meet Monday at 2 p. m. at 2559 Court St. Club officers reported Saturday.

For all foot disorders consult a foot specialist, the chiropodist.

J. M. Sleighter, Elemin distributor, wholesale, retail, moving place of business from Ferry St. to Rm. 23 - 248 N. Com'l. Phone 4-3712 or 4-1996.

Furs stored and cleaned at Miller's are cold, dry, safe!

Paint with glamorizing Treasure Tones. See our outstanding wallpaper selection. Chuck Clark Co., 255 N. Liberty.

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst Jr., Salem Route 4, Box 96, a daughter, Saturday, Aug. 8, at Salem General Hospital.

LINDAY—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Linday, 2713 Hulsey Ave., a son, Saturday, Aug. 8, at Salem General Hospital.

HOLLIN—To Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hollin, Silverton Route 3, Box 108, a daughter, Saturday, Aug. 8, at Salem Memorial Hospital.

Salem Woman Given New Car as Prize

Sheila Ryan Laue, 251 S. 17th St., was presented with a new 1953 Packard in special ceremonies at Elmer Motor Company Saturday by H. J. Elmer, Packard dealer.

Others participating in the presentation included J. H. McCord, zone manager for Packard; N. A. Kenney, sales manager for Elmer Motors, and D. W. Embree, zone business manager for Packard.

Mrs. Laue was judged a winner from 125,000 entries in the national competition in which visitors to dealer showrooms inspected features of the luxury Packard cars and medium priced Packard Clippers—then described in writing the features most appealing.

Willamette U. Fund, Gains

The Salem campaign in Willamette University's million dollar challenge fund has gained $12,600 in the past two weeks, it was reported Saturday by Pres. G. Herbert Smith.

Salem subscriptions toward the university building program now tally $122,730. Goal for the local campaign is $200,000.

Willamette's financial drive for $1,000,000 will provide for the construction of a new fine arts building and auditorium and a women's dormitory.

Former Salem Man Dies in East

Lawrence McElhaney, former resident of Salem, died recently of a heart attack at his home in Pittsburgh, Pa., relatives said in Salem Saturday.

McElhaney was born in Salem and left here as a young man about 30 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a granddaughter, all in the East, and by three sisters, Mrs. F. A. Riedsel and Lois and Edna McElhaney and a brother, Byron McElhaney, all of Salem.

Ex-WU Professor Guest at Church

The Rev. C. Murray Keefe of Ansonia, Conn., will be the officiating minister at 11 a. m. services today at Salem's First Congregational Church.

The Rev. Mr. Keefe and Mrs. Keefe are visiting with relatives in Salem. He is a former professor of Kimball School of Theology, formerly located on the Willamette University campus.

Tells Slaying

CHICAGO — Detective Leon Sweitzer said Mrs. Sally Vaughn (above), 43-year-old mother of 11 children, admitted she paid a soldier $50 for the hammer slaying of her divorced husband, Charles Vaughn, 54. Vaughn was found fatally beaten, his skull smashed by a heavy hammer. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)

Gail Blush To Arrive in Salem Today

Miss Gail Blush, Salem high school student and Oregon delegate to Girls Nation in Washington, D. C., last week, will arrive home today at 9 a. m.

A group of local women, members of American Legion Auxiliary, Salem Unit 136, plan to be on hand at the Southern Pacific station to greet Miss Blush when she arrives on the Shasta Daylight.

In the welcoming group will be Mrs. Carroll Robinson, auxiliary president; Mrs. Ted Ullakko, public relation chairman and Gail's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blush. Gail was selected as a Girls Nation representative at the annual session in Salem several weeks ago of Girls State. She was sponsored by the Salem auxiliary unit. She will give a report on Girls Nation at an auxiliary meeting next month.

KOREA CASUALTIES LISTED

WASHINGTON — The Defense Department Saturday identified 273 additional casualties in the Korean fighting that ended July 24. A new list (No. 872) included 27 killed, 180 wounded, 54 missing in action and 12 injured in combat zone accidents.

Services for Olive M. Dahl Set Monday

Funeral services for Miss Olive M. Dahl, 65, former Dean of Women at Willamette University who died Tuesday evening, will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. in Howell-Edwards Chapel with the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

Miss Dahl was found dead Friday morning at her home, 925 N. 5th St. She apparently suffered a heart attack Tuesday, but the body was not discovered until a friend tried to reach Miss Dahl by telephone.

From 1927 to 1948 she served as Dean of Women at Willamette and was professor of German at the college from 1946 to 1952 when she retired. Since then she had worked in the alumni office.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Roy Chisholm Fort Worth, Tex., and three brothers, John Dahl, Hot Springs, S. D., Siegard Dahl, Montbridge, S. D., and Allert Dahl, Malta, Mont.

Train-Truck Crash Victim Wins Damages

A judgment of $6,965 was awarded Tom C. Morgan, 22, of Milwaukie, for injuries allegedly sustained when the truck he was driving was hit by a Southern Pacific southbound train at 12th and Marion Streets May 29, 1952.

Satisfaction of judgment was revealed in Marion County Circuit Court Saturday.

In the original complaint, Morgan had alleged he received multiple lacerations and bruises of the body and a permanent injury to his right arm and hand. He said he was driving west on Marion Street when he and the southbound train collided, throwing him from the truck. He had sought $3,367 special damages and $75,000 general damages.

Dearborn Wins WU Scholarship

O. Daniel Dearborn, Jr., Willamette University sophomore from Ontario, has been named recipient of the fourth Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation of New York scholarship to be granted at Willamette it was disclosed Saturday by Pres. G. Herbert Smith.

Effective in September, the scholarship will cover the complete cost of tuition for the remainder of Dearborn's undergraduate years at Willamette. It will also provide reasonable allowances for necessary books and required fees.

Ward's Employee Wins Recognition For Long Service

Miss Regina Kerber, 490 S. 14th St., received a diamond-studded watch Saturday in recognition of her 25 years of service with Montgomery Ward.

The watch was presented at a store-wide meeting by V. M. Bunt, district manager for Ward's. Bunt and C. L. Newson, Salem store manager, gave brief congratulatory talks.

Miss Kerber has served her entire 25 years with Ward's in the Salem store. She is employed at the catalog order desk. Congratulatory message also came Saturday from high store officials in national and regional offices.

B & B Towing Service Sued For Damages

A judgment of $1,166 is sought by the Insurance Company of North America from Fred Bales, of Bales and Brady Towing Service, for alleged damage to a house that was moved Jan. 29, 1952.

The complaint, filed with the Marion County Circuit Court Saturday, asserts that the insurance company had paid for damages allegedly sustained to a house belonging to Henry Bacon, Inc., while the house was being moved about nine miles north of Adair Village by Bales. The complaint charges Bales with negligence which resulted in damage to the house.

Salem C of C to Find Rooms for Fairgoers

Salem chamber of commerce has announced that its staff would endeavor to make hotel or motel reservations in Salem for visitors to the state fair Sept. 5 through 12. Each request for reservations should be addressed to the Salem Chamber of Commerce, Salem. It should give complete details on the type of accommodations desired and should be accompanied by a substantial deposit to hold the reservations, it was stated.

David Bell to Vie Today in Soap Box Race

The annual All American Soap Box Derby races will take place today at Akron, Ohio, and Salem's colors will be carried by David Bell.

The 14-year-old Salem lad is slated to race against the Bedford, Ind., and Norwich, Conn., representatives, in initial heats.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Bell, 1075 Pali Dr., was winner of the mid-Willamette Valley derby race held in Salem last month. He arrived in Akron Thursday morning and for the past few days has been participating in the colorful pre-Derby activities, tours and shows.

The race finals are to be broadcast by NBC at 12:30 p. m. PST. At weigh-in activities Friday Dave's sleek, home-built "bug" was declared three-pounds overweight. So Dave had to trim off the excess poundage.

U. S. dairymen have an income of about 4 1/2 billion dollars a year.

Final Services For Mrs. West Planned Monday

Final rites for Mrs. Clara Belle West, who died Thursday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frank Cole, 1585 Barnes Ave., will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Hollingsworth-Smith Chapel in Newberg. Vault interment will be at Tualatin Cemetery.

Mrs. West resided all her life in Sherwood until five months ago. Survivors in addition to the daughter include two sons, Joe West of Portland and Fred West of Los Angeles.

DON'T WORRY—
HAVE DEPENDABLE INSURANCE PROTECTION

Guy Jonas, Ins.
2035 Fairgrounds Rd.
Phone 3-9431

SWISS BELL RINGERS

Nationally known novelty musicians, will present a concert series of sacred music at the First Christian Church of Salem this afternoon, Sunday, at 3 p. m., and the First Methodist Church of Salem tonight at 8 p. m.

The Mason Swiss Bell Ringers who have presented concerts in every state during the past 20 years are nationally famous for their interpretation of sacred music on many novel instruments.

Their program will consist of familiar hymns and gospel songs played on instruments rarely heard on any entertainment platform. Some of the instruments

GET $10 FOR YOUR OLD WATCH

TOWARD ONE OF THESE MODERN WATERPROOF CROTONS with expansion bracelet

Here's your chance to own a modern watch! You get $10 on your old watch... no matter how battered and worn it is... toward your choice of these 17 jewel, shock-resistant anti-magnetic CROTON watches with expansion bracelet. They're certified waterproof... tightly sealed against moisture and dust... stay handsome, stay accurate. Do yourself a favor... bring in that old watch... and walk out with a handsome new CROTON... the watch of sealed in accuracy.

SPORTSMAN... steel back, radium dial, with expansion bracelet... $39.95

VINDICATOR... all-steel case... radium dial, with flex-let expansion bracelet... $49.50

MARITIMER... steel back, 10 kt. yellow-gold filled top, with J. B. expansion bracelet... $59.50

Buy Croton the watch of today and tomorrow. Why buy an old fashioned watch of yesterday. Your account is invited.

HARTMAN BROS.
Liberty at State
Jewelers of Salem

"Lose Your Blues—with Music & News" Get Your KGAE Gift Certificate Book

It's Sensational!

Of Value For $3.50

Presented by the following KGAE Sponsors

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Hamilton Furniture Co. | Phagaus School of Beauty | Master Serv. Stations Inc. |
| North & South Drive-in Theatres | New Village Inn | Shrock Motor Co. |
| Prall's Television | Peerless Bakery | Wills Music Store |
| Peacock Cleaners | Ladd's Market | Kennell-Ellis Studio |
| Alexander's Jewelry | Allen Hardware | Paul Armstrong School of Dancing |
| | Salem Auto Paris | Portraits by Norbert |

To create a lot of interest and goodwill the above KGAE sponsors are "advertising by giving away" fun, food, merchandise and service in the KGAE GIFT CERTIFICATE BOOK—valid until Nov. 15, 1953.

METHOD OF DISTRIBUTION

Each day a group of names are taken from the phone directory and those numbers called by the courteous KGAE operators. If your home is called simply give the operator your name and address and one will be sent by special messenger to your home.

"Your Blues Chasin' Music & News Station" KGAE --- 1430 on Your Dial!