

Clubs Divide In WI Action

Spokes Rained; Caps, Ekimos Still Tied

The Western International League race tightened up Saturday night, with the Spokane seeing its top place margin reduced to 1 1/2 games as Salem took a pair from Wenatchee. The Spokane club was rained out of a twinbill at Calgary.

Vancouver and Edmonton remained locked in a tie for third place. The Caps split a pair with Victoria, winning the first game 4-3 but dropping the second 7-0 as the Vics' Bob Drilling hurled six-hit ball. Edmonton took the opener from Lewiston 5-2 but the Broncs came back to square things with a 5-1 verdict in an abbreviated nightcap.

Yakima and Tri-City also split. Yakima took the opener from the Braves 6-3 but Tri-City came back with a 9-0 verdict in the finale as Bloom pitched four-hit ball.

Manager Harry Storey of Vancouver socked his third homer in three games in helping his club take the opener from Victoria.

This Would Make Anyone Grin

Statesman Outdoor Editor Don Harger, recognized as one of the top angling authorities in the nation, makes with a grin of satisfaction as he displays result of an angling jaunt off the Oregon Coast. The salmon are now running full blast, according to reports, and many anglers are consequently having a real picnic for themselves. This one weighed over 20 pounds.

Portland Defeats Angels

Beavers Win 5-3 on Homers

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Portland scored five runs on three homers to defeat Los Angeles 5-3 in Saturday night's Pacific Coast League baseball game here.

Two of the Angels' runs came on homers—one by starting pitcher Cal McLish in the fifth and the other by Dick Smith in the ninth.

Portland tied the score at 1-1 in the fourth on Jim Russell's circuit blow, his fifth this season.

In the sixth inning Bob Marquis homered behind Eddie Basinski, who was safe on Bud Hardin's error, for two Portland runs. Then Jim Gladd singled and was scored by Hank Art's 19th homer of the season.

Hollywood retained its six-game margin at the top of the PCL with a 5-2 win over San Diego. Runnerup Seattle topped San Francisco 9-4 and Sacramento beat Oakland for the third straight time, 4-3. Jim Walsh hurled his eighth straight victory for Hollywood.

2,581 See Senators Win Pair, Gain Ground; Yankees Take Two; Kuzava Nears No-No Go

Final Double Bill Tonight

Nicholas, Roenspie To Face Wenatchee

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

Shrine Night and a big crowd was apparently all the town Senators needed to get back on the win beam against the pesky Wenatchee Chiefs.

The annual Salem Shrine Club-sponsored night drew 2,581 customers last night at Waters Field, and the resident crew responded with a twin win over the Chiefs, 4-3 in the 7-inning opener and an easy 8-1 nod in the nightcap.

Coupled with the fact that the league-leading Spokane Indians were rained out of their Saturday pair at Calgary, Hugh Luby's lads picked up a full game on the front-runners and now trail them by 1 1/2 tilts.

More ground can be made up tonight in the series-ending doubleheader at 6:30 o'clock, for the Spokes are scheduled idle today. Two more Salem wins to night would cut the Tribe's leading margin to half a game.

Luby will take his best shots at the Chiefs in an attempt to nab tonight's pair, for Joe Nicholas (18-4) and Gene Roenspie (12-3) are to hurl for the Salems. Charley Beamon and Keith Bowman will be the opposing flingers.

Lefty Bob Collins, with some outstanding relief help from Nicholas, grabbed the first-game win last night, his long-awaited ninth victory of the campaign.

Nicholas saved the faltering southpaw in a two-run Wenatchee sixth inning, getting the last two batters out while the tying and go-ahead runs were perched on the bases.

Then Sidesamer Nick, the best break the Salems got this season when he was secured from Lewiston, got the side out in the final heat.

The Senators used one big inning to win this one at the expense of Rick Botelho, young lefty with the Chiefs.

It was the fourth, during which four hits and a couple of errors, plus two walks and a sacrifice, gained all four Senator runs. Two were bunted in beautifully, by Collins and Dick Sabatini. Chuck Esagian drove another in with a scorching single to left, and the other got in on a throwing error by Catcher Harry Bartolomei.

Dave Dahle, who lost a real toughie to the Chiefs at Wenatchee last week, gained revenge in the nightcap, coasting to the 8-1 nod. Only tally off his slants was a right-field homer in the fourth by Tommy Munoz, first sacker.

Dave was in bits of trouble elsewhere along the way, but got out rather easily. He gave eight hits, fanned four and walked three. He also got his fifth win of the semester.

The Senators got to Righthander Jack Klein early and lustily. A walk, Jim Deyno's double, Les Witherspoon's ground-out and Bob Nelson's single made 2-0 in the second. In the third, Klein's control went askew and four walks, a hit batter, a wild pitch and two hits were worth five runs and his exodus.

One of the hits was Connie Perez' 10th homer of the season, over the right field wall with yards to spare, with Gene Tansell's walk tie him with Tansell for the club round-tripper leadership.
