

Fall Fashions To Be Modeled...

Women's Section SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

By JERYME ENGLISH
Statesman Society Editor

HIGHLIGHT of the coming week will be the Salem Zonta Club's fall fashion benefit to be held Friday night at the American Legion Club at 8 p. m. The new fall styles will be shown from Esther Foster's. All proceeds from the affair will go to the YWCA building fund, the club's philanthropic project this year.

Two of the models for the fashion show pictured at the far left are Mrs. George Terry Hill and Mrs. Bruce Williams.

Below at the left are three from the teen-age contingent, who will show sports outfits, high school and campus clothes and what the teenager wears after five. Left to right are Beverly Mott, Justine Lewis and Judy Loucks.

At the immediate left are three members of the directorate for the fashion benefit pictured in front of the Legion Club. Left to right are Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, president of the Zonta Club, Miss Echo Yeater, general chairman of the show, and Mrs. Mary Thomas, who is heading the decorating committee.

All Photos by Kennell-Ellis Studio.)

FRIENDS are saying farewell to the Earl Bogardus family, who will be leaving the end of the month for Eugene to make their home, where Mr. Bogardus will be with the Sterling Furniture Co. Pictured with Mrs. Bogardus are their sons, Randy, Derry and Doug. (Kennell-Ellis Studio.)

INTERESTING visitors in the capital the past fortnight have been the four Huston sisters and their children, who have been guests at the North River Road home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Huston. Left to right are Mrs. Eugene Zarnes and son, Erik, of Beaverton; Mrs. Richard Laird and son, Robert, of Longview, Wash.; Mrs. Maurice Fitzsimons and daughter, Anne, and son, Patrick, on the ground at the left, who reside in Coos Bay; and Mrs. Allan Thomas Gilliland Jr. holding son, Allan Thomas III, and daughter, Susan, seated on the grass in front, who have been here from San Jose, Calif. (McEwan Studio.)

SUMMERTIME visitors in the capital this month are Mrs. Daniel L. Duggan and children, Joan, Dennis and Richard, who are here with Mr. Duggan from Los Angeles. They are visiting with their longtime friends, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone. Presently the two families are on a trip to British Columbia. (Kennell-Ellis Studio.)