

Joyce Crouch Tells Plans For Rites

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Joyce Crouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crouch, and John C. Anicker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Anicker of Tigard, which will be an event of August 23.

The couple will exchange their vows at a three o'clock ceremony at the First Congregational Church with a reception following at the Chi Omega house. Miss Betty Breakey and Mrs. Wallace Snyder of Sherwood will light the candles. Mrs. Karl Schmidt will be the soloist.

Miss Nancy Adams of Brooks will be the maid of honor and Miss Patricia Fitzsimons and Miss Joyce Anicker of Tigard, sister of the bridegroom-elect, will be the bridesmaids.

Wallace Snyder of Sherwood will serve as best man and ushers include Stephen Crouch of Salem, the bride-elect's brother, William Ross of Portland, William Campbell of Tigard and Richard Ruff of Portland.

To Fete Miss Crouch
In compliment to Miss Crouch, Mrs. Delph Reeves of Lebanon and her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Fisher, are entertaining with a one o'clock salad luncheon and crystal shower Monday afternoon at the Fisher home on Electric Avenue. Twenty-five friends of the bride-to-be have been invited to the pre-nuptial party.

On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crouch will be hosts for a dinner party at their home for the pleasure of their daughter and her fiancé preceding the Phillips, and the hosts.

Marquam—A bridal shower was given at the Marquam Hall Tuesday evening honoring Miss Marian Paquin. Hostesses were Mrs. Arlene Stetson and Mrs. Maeri Bye, who served refreshments to 40 guests.

Don't Look Now...

but... nobody needs a calendar, a thermometer or even an acute sense of heat to know that summer is here. Those modest, droll and retiring Maies, content with inconspicuous suits and modest shirts in winter are doing it again. Out with the beauteous plummage, on with the "sports"-shirts and the hotter the day the more torrid the design. They may ridicule our crazy hats, at least we are consistently screwball the year 'round.

Familiar sounds... as one who was born and raised within hearing of the old Court House clock, we are finding the striking of the hours on the Methodist chimes very pleasant. Born one block west of the New Statesman building, and raised one block east, we have returned after all these years to very familiar ground.

Children's Corner... just in case you adults don't understand what it is all about —the teatowels or other cloth tied around the necks of those little boys in your neighborhood indicates they are Superman... The little girls carrying bottles and looking at nothing in the air, are collecting butterflies and other fascinating insects. This latter is a summertime mclady which has attacked girls and boys each year since the beginning of time. It is of short duration, though often producing surprising symptoms like having caterpillars in pockets.

Dust and smoke... we are off to the great northwoods, amid a cloud of dust and smoke—well supplied with new mosquito repellent, rough clothes, fishing gear and food enough for a week away from civilization. Let Canadian trout beware we are coming!... Maxine Buren

P.S. We are taking a can of tuna... we are determined to have fish to eat.

Four Corners — Captain and Mrs. Joseph Fiester and daughter, Marcia, of College Park, Ga., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Fiester, and his sister's family, the Homer Bales.

From here they will go to Oakland, Calif., to await his orders for overseas duty. Mrs. Fiester and Marcia will return to their home in College Park.

The general meeting of the First Methodist WSCS for August has been cancelled. Regular meetings will be resumed in September.

A Neighborhood Party

SILVERTON — Mrs. LaVerne Bergerson was honored Thursday at the home of Mrs. Larry Carpenter, where her neighbors on Adams Street were bidden to a neighborhood farewell party. The Bergersons are moving into a new home on Eureka Avenue.

Bidden were Mrs. Bergerson, Mrs. I. Lundal, Mrs. T. Reed, Mrs. Kermit Bothum, Mrs. Orin Smedstad, Mrs. John Denison, Mrs. M. S. Hoblitt, Mrs. Theodore Grace and Mrs. E. A. Huddleston.

For their vacation trip this year the Melvin La Due family took in the sights in the San Francisco bay area, driving south by way of Odell Lake and Crater Lake and home the coast route through the Redwoods, with an overnight visit with relatives at Coos Bay.

The Salem Central WCTU will hold its annual picnic on the Eugene Prescott lawn, 1064 Oak St., Tuesday afternoon. Members are invited to bring their picnic basket for the 12 o'clock party. Coffee will be served.
