He was sworn in by his veteran soldier predecessor, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, at a Pentagon ceremony attended by high civilian and military leaders.

The unusual procedure of having a new chief sworn in by his predecessor was approved by both men and by Defense Secretary Wilson to underline the orderly turnover of the military high command. In another Pentagon ceremony General Matthew B. Ridgway took over from General J. Lawton Collins as Army chief of staff.

'Try My Best' Adm. Radford accepted his commission and congratulations with a brief: "I will try my best." Ridgway delivered a four-minute speech in which he pledged "unquestioning loyalty" to civilian authority and dedicated himself to gaining full respect from all civilians for the men and women in uniform.
