Trash Fires Extinguished

Two trash fires and a smouldering wood pile were extinguished Wednesday by Salem firemen before any damage was sustained.

The first was a pile of trash which caught fire behind the Calvary Baptist Church, 1230 S. Liberty St., Wednesday morning. Firemen presumed that children playing near the area could have set the fire or possibly a cigarette thrown nearby, they said.

The other morning fire occurred at the Keith Brown yard in the 1400 block of Tile Road. Firemen said that rubbish stacked there smouldered a bit, but there was no damage.

A cigarette thrown into a woodpile behind the old High School at High and Marion Streets was blamed for a fire there Wednesday near 4:30 p.m. The burn was put out before it reached dangerous proportions.

Sherrill Hochspeier, Delene Gururich and Joan Bennett, Jefferson; Karen Tuers, Sigrid Wolfe, Linda Christensen, Linda Benson, David Richardson, and Martha Richardson, Hayesville; Judy Fuller, Marie DuRette, Carolyn DuRette, Butteville; ReVerta Isham, Brooks; and Sandra Zwicker, Aumsville.

Forest Fire Suits Mount

ROSEBURG — Eight suits were added here Wednesday to 15 filed Monday against Martin Bros. Box Co. of Oakland, Ore., and Forrest Solomon, contract logger, over a forest fire.

The eight suits, totaling $29,600, were filed by insurance firms. They contend the defendants were negligent in allowing spread of the fire.

The fire, in August, 1951, was in the Hubbard Creek area 15 miles southeast of here.

Crowds Kill Informant of Iranian Plot

TEHRAN (AP)—Infuriated mobs who swept old Premier Mohammed Mossadegh out of power Wednesday, tore to pieces Col. Ezatollah Montaz who betrayed last Sunday's abortive royalist uprising.

Jail doors were opened and Mossadegh's political prisoners—about 30—were turned loose.

Foreign Minister Hossein Fattemi, Mossadegh's No. 1 henchman, who only Tuesday night threatened to hang the Shah, also was reported torn to pieces by mobs. Fattemi was violently anti-British, disliked Americans and was considered the unyielding strong man behind Mossadegh.

Maj. Gen. Fazollah Zehedi rode into his job as Iran's new prime minister on a wave of pro-Shah sentiment whipped up since Wednesday morning when mobs began massing.

Police Turn on Premier The mobs, instead of meeting resistance from Mossadegh's police, found the gendarmes shouting pro-Shah slogans. People leaned out their windows and echoed them.

Soldiers, formerly sent out to guard Mossadegh, shouted "death to Mossadegh" instead.

Tanks and truck-equipped troops joined the mobs. One after another the key points of the city fell to the Shah-shooters. Among the first to go was Fattemi's newspaper from which he had thundered bloodthirsty threats against the Shah.

Zehedi reportedly had taken refuge among wild, pro-Shah tribesmen in remote Azerbaijan after Sunday's fiasco. He emerged to take over the country Wednesday. Shah Summoned

The new regime called on the Shah to return from Rome and take over the country. In Rome, the Shah said he planned to fly back as soon as news of the coup was confirmed.

The Shah said he wanted to do the best for his people.

As furious battles raged in the streets of Tehran, the radio be-

Some 300 managers from credit bureaus in the 11 western states and British Columbia will register today for the annual 3-day Pacific Coast Credit Conference in the Senator Hotel.

Gov. Paul Patterson and Mayor Al Loucks will address the group Friday.

Purpose of the meeting is to exchange ideas on national credit problems and to discuss ways of helping business men with credit difficulties. Panel discussions and talks by well-known credit officials will be given. State Real Estate Commissioner A. J. Crose will speak to the group on the licensing act and on other laws affecting credit officials.

Local arrangements are being made by Chris Seely, Loring Grier, Charles Dean, Alice Mathey, Francis Smith, Roy Wassam and Gail Christensen.

came the only means of communication. Cable and telephone service overseas was cut off.

This correspondent was granted the use of Tehran Radio facilities, owned by the government, to broadcast direct dispatches to the Associated Press monitoring facilities in London.

By evening, however, all appeared calm here. Zehedi decreed an indefinite shut down of all shops except those of grocers, butchers and bakers. The city was firmly in control of his army and police.
