Modern Etiquette
 By ROBERT A. LEE

Q. What is the proper way to eat spaghetti or macaroni when it is served Italian style?
 A. It is probably better to avoid embarrassment or mishap by breaking it with the fork, unless you are dexterous and thoroughly experienced in the Italian manner of eating it.
 Q. If a girl who is going to be married does not have a father or a brother to give her away, whom can she choose to perform this rite?
 A. If she has no other close male relative, then she may choose a male friend of the family.

Q. What should a girl do or say when she has completed a dance with a young man and he thanks her?
 A. A nod, accompanied by a smile, is sufficient.

Mr. and Mrs. Janies Hyer (Mildred Danielson) who were married on August 7 at the First Methodist Church manse by Dr. Brooks Moore. The bride is the daughter of Peter Danielson of Webster, Wisconsin and the groom is the son of Mrs. F. M. Bryant of Sweet Home. (Artz Studio).

Miss Shryock Married to Army Man
 Wed at an impressive ceremony on Wednesday, August 5 at the Foursquare Gospel Church at 8 o'clock were Miss Dorothy Shryock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shryock, and Private Donald William Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Scott. The Rev. Roy Worthington performed the nuptials. Thurman Krater was the soloist and Miss Patricia Fagg the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a white linen suit with matching hat. She carried a white Bible marked with a lavender orchid.
 Miss Myrna Boyce was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pastel blue suit with blue accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Roy Bloom stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Private William Verburg, Darrell Currier of Estacada, a cousin of the bride, and Robert Shryock, the bride's brother.

Mrs. Shryock attended her daughter's wedding in a pink nylon gown with blue accessories and a corsage of pink gladioluses. Mrs. Scott, the groom's mother, wore a navy blue lace gown with white accessories. Her flowers were white gladioluses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Ernest Currier of Estacada, cousin of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. William Bottorff of Portland, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. E. T. Rose of Hubbard.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon along the Oregon coast and Washington. Mr. Scott has left for Camp Stoneman, Calif. to await further army orders and his bride will remain in Salem at the home of her parents.
