Woodburn Family Takes Prize for Size

CHAMPOEG—It pays to have a large family and bring them with you, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gorman of Woodburn, said Sunday when they received one of the prizes offered to the parents having the most children with them at the Oregon State Farmers Union picnic here. With the Gormans are children Thomas, Dennis, Becky, Timmy and Kathy. Man at left was not identified. (Statesman Farm Photo).

VISIT AT TURNER

TURNER—Mrs. L. W. Myers, who has been visiting the Robert Hendershott, has returned to her home in the Midwest. Mrs. Clarence Miller and children of Arcata, Calif., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Petersen.

RETURN TO IDAHO

HOPEWELL—The Rev. Carl Pershall of Hamer, Idaho was in Hopewell this week for a visit. With Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty, Mrs. Pershall and four sons will return with him to Idaho after having spent the summer with the Lafferty's.

FIND MIDWEST HOT

HOPEWELL—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crannell, Colleen and Dickie arrived home Thursday from a visit with Mr. Crannell's mother in Beatrice, Neb. They reported very hot weather in Nebraska with electrical storms.

Rock Society To Exhibit at Regional Show

Statesman News Service
SWEET HOME — The Sweet Home Rock and Mineral Society is making plans for the Northwest Federated convention to be held in Portland, Sept. 6-7.

The Sweet Home Club is to exhibit two cases containing 40 pieces of petrified wood. Each club member is to furnish two pieces for the exhibit and on Aug. 28 is to bring them to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Derby where the specimens will be catalogued and arranged.

Jess Emmeret will display 49 of his polished spheres, and Harold Derby his collection of soapstone carvings at the convention in the competition exhibits. Derby has been asked by the convention chairman to be one of the judges for the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bale, Eugene, announce that the Eugene Club will have its Rock show on October 10-11.

The Sweet Home Club will visit Mrs. Dale Harnisch at Albany Friday night to view her large collection of crystals and other hobbies. The Harnisch home is on the Albany-Salem highway.

VISITS DAUGHTERS

NORTH HOWELL — Louis Mayte Sr. is visiting his two younger daughters in Southern California.

Valley News Briefs

Amity — Richard Ice of Centralia, Wash., will speak at morning services at the First Baptist Church here on Aug. 30. A former pastor here, he will be en route to Berkeley, Calif., for his second year at divinity school.

Turner — The Three Link Club will meet Friday at the IOOF hall. A no-host dinner will be served at noon.

Williams — Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stout and Audrey were in an automobile accident in Eugene this week and were taken to Sacred Heart Hospital there. Mrs. Stout was most seriously injured, sustaining numerous broken ribs.

Amity — Field fires at the R. L. Walker farm west of Amity and the Frank Mahood farm near Perrydale summoned the Amity Fire Department Tuesday.

Mt. Angel — St. Ann's Altar Society will hold a food sale Sunday morning in the entrance hall of St. Mary's School. Members are asked to bring chickens, eggs, fresh vegetables and baked goods.

East Salem — Mrs. Dale Boyd will conduct a kindergarten this fall in conjunction with the day nursery of her mother, Mrs. Jeanne Sallard, at 1535 Park Ave. Mrs. Boyd will use material from the State Board of Education.

Idanha Ambulance Service Stopped

DETROIT — Service of the Industrial Hospital Insurance ambulance, which has been stationed at the Idanha Fire Department for the past five years, has been discontinued.

Improved travel conditions between the Detroit-Idanha area and Mill City, insufficient use of the vehicle, and cost and inconvenience of maintenance were the reasons given for its removal. Residents of the area are asked to call Mill City or Stayton for emergency service.

PARATROOPER RETURNS

UNONVALE — Ray Hibbs has returned to his Army post in the East after spending the weekend with his father here.
