Kings Together Fifty Years

MONMOUTH — Celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Aug. 16, were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. King, 1004 Monmouth Street, Independence. A reception honoring the couple was held at the Monmouth Christian church on Sunday afternoon. Assisting were oldtime friends and members of the congregation. A program was planned by the group assisted by the Rev. Lynnton Elwell.

Eva E. Yount was born August 21 at Willow Hill, Illinois and Robert Everett King was born at Newton, Illinois, February 22, 1885. They were married at Willow Hill, Aug. 16, 1903, and lived in that community until coming to Oregon in 1912. For 16 years they lived at Lebanon and for the next 16 years lived at Carlton. They bought a home in Independence and have made this area their home in recent years.

Mr. King has followed farming and logging most of his lifetime and at present is actively engaged as a logging contractor operating at Glide in Southern Oregon. Mrs. King formerly was an obstetrical nurse and doctor's assistant. She says her hobby has been her own family of eight children, 18 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. All of the children were present for the golden wedding anniversary: Ralph and Bob King, Independence; Roland King, Mrs. Cecil Hauxwell, Mrs. Bluford Osburn and Mrs. Verna Stitt, all of Lebanon; Mrs. Clifford Skeels, Springfield; and Mrs. Verl Skeels, Winchester.

Mrs. Clara Sowards, Springfield, is a lifetime friend and schoolmate of Mrs. King and was here to assist with the anniversary; also Mrs. Martin Hinz and Mrs. Earl Shackmann, both of Lebanon, longtime neighbors and friends.

Couple Wed in Washington

BUTTEVILLE—Miss Lois Marie Weinert, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weinert, was married to Archie E. McLeod, twin son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLeod, Wednesday, August 5, at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. C. A. Sprague performed the ceremony in the First Methodist church at Kelso, Washington, in the presence of the immediate family. The Frank Weinerts were married in the same city 25 years ago.

The young couple left for a honeymoon trip along the Oregon coast. They expect to live in Portland where they will work and attend school. Both attended North Marion Union High School.

Active members of Gamma Phi Beta from the University of Oregon and Oregon State College were entertained at an informal gathering Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. William H. Hammond. Plans were made for the fall season by the twelve active attending the meeting.

Many Activities At YWCA Camp

Among the many activities at YWCA Camp Silver Creek for Junior high girls this week were two organized trips on Wednesday. A trip to Taylor's Grove and a four mile hike around Silver Creek Falls was led by Denis Lavender. Mr. Lavender will also conduct a star gazing program at evening campfire.

A birthday skit entitled "Sweet Sixteen" will be presented by the girls of Bear Creek unit in honor of one of the junior counselors, Miss Shirley Blush. Those participating are Janet Davenport, Sally Osko, Margot Wing, Janet Bosell, Kay Nickels, Louise Powell and Barbara Morris.

Among the more popular activities taught by the counselors are crafts by Lois Van Allen, horseback riding under the direction of Barbara Bostrack, trampoline instructed by Ann Butler, and swimming supervised by Marie Corner.

Benefit Party at Cameron Home

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cameron, 1160 North 24th Street, will be the scene of an informal at home on Sunday, August 23. The affair is being arranged at a benefit party for the Knight Memorial Church Men's Club.

All Knight Memorial Church members and friends are invited to call between 3 and 7 o'clock. Presiding at the punch bowls will be Mrs. Robert Ashby and Mrs. Erwin E. Batterman. Assisting will be Mrs. Roman Steffen and Mrs. Bernard Shanks.

Golf Winners Named

A blind partner play was the feature on the Oak Knoll Women Golfers on Wednesday. Mrs. E. J. Studebaker and Mrs. Paul Silke tied for first place with Mrs. Elmo Bennett and Mrs. Clifford Ellis with a combined low net of 84. Mrs. Clayton Patterson was welcomed as a new member. A group of Oak Knoll golfers drove to McMinnville Thursday to be guests of the Riverwood Club.

An Au Revoir Coffee

Mrs. H. E. Smedley was honor guest at a Tuesday morning coffee given by Mrs. Louise Muller, Mrs. Richard Davis and Mrs. Frank R. Brown at the latter's home. Fifty guests called between 10 and 12 o'clock to bid Mrs. Smedley bon voyage as she soon leaves for California. Guests presented Mrs. Smedley with a handkerchief shower.
