Weekend Double Bills End Local Baseball Season Rain Thwarts Friday Clash

With Caps '9' Twin Bills Tonight,

Sunday at Ball Park By AL LIGHTNER

Statesman Sports Editor If the cussable weather will let up a bit, the Salem Senators will close out their regular home base ball schedule at Waters Field this weekend, with Saturday and Sunday night doubleheaders with the Vancouver Caps.

Last night's scheduled opener with Manager Harv Storey's Capilanos was, needless to say, rained out. It cannot possibly be made up either, for the Salems are booked solid for the balance of the fast-fading season.

In tonight's pair, starting at seven o'clock, Larry Borst and either Dave Dahle or Bob Col-lins will face the Vancouvers' Lonnie Meyers and Clarence (Cuddles) Marshall, a pair of hard-throwing righthanders. Marshall is the veteran who tossed the nine-inning no-hitter at the Senators during their recent road trip into Canada. Final Pair Sunday play at 7 p.m. Saturday, with the winner of that game facing Grants Pass immediately afterward. The winner of the second game will then be qualified to play Mill City's Kelly Lumbermen at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The undefeated Lumbermen can win the championship with a victory in the 2 p.m. game Sunday. Even if they lose that one, another loss will be necessary to eliminate Mill City. Should a second Sunday game be necessary to decide the title, it will be played right after the 2 p.m. clash.

All season tickets to the local tournament will be honored at Bend, officials have announced. It is likely that a number of local fans will travel to the highland city to root for the Lumbermen as they go after their first softball championship.

Eight teams started out in the tournament here, with four being eliminated before the rains set in to spoil additional play. Had the rains subsided, meet would have been completed earlier this week.

Spokane Owner to Sell Park Foldup Seen For Indians

the Spokane Indians of the Western International League announced Friday he was in an "advanced stage" of negotiations for the sale of the team's home park, Ferris Field.

"I would much prefer to have baseball stay in Spokane and to help keep it there," said owner Roy Hotchkiss. "But since there bas been no indication that any single 'party, or combination of parties, is interested in buying the ball club as such, I am negotiating for sale of the property the ball park is on. If the deal goes through, the property will not be used for baseball."

Hotchkiss, a dairy farmer who bought the Indians in 1949, announced recently he planned to give up the "costly" baseball operation unless the team drew 4,000 fans for its remaining home contests. Attendance had improved, but did not approach the required
