Lenola Wilson Is Married to Mr. Grissom

The Evangelistic Temple was the scene of an 8 o'clock wedding on Wednesday night when Miss Lenola Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wilson, became the bride of Albert Grissom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Grissom of Hamilton, Montana. The nuptials were performed by the Rev. Mr. Larson.

Soleists were Delores Lyons and Ollie Schiendle with Richard Louthan playing the wedding music. The altar was decorated with a large gold lace heart flanked by baskets of yellow and white gladioluses and white tapers. Miss Ruth Hart and Miss Shirley Knight lighted the candles and wore pine green ballerina dresses.

Of white nylon net was the bridal gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and Chantilly lace insertion. The full skirt was bordered with a deep flounce of the net and lace, which extended around the cathedral train. A tiara of net embellished with seed pearls held in place her illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums centered with green and white cymbidium orchids with variegated greens and white ivy leaves.

Bridal Attendants
Mrs. Edward Chrisman was her sister's honor matron and she wore a leaf green taffeta ballerina gown with scalloped neckline and sleeves. She carried a gold lace heart centered with yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Bilyeu, Miss Thelma Sutterfield and Miss Betty Sorenson, who wore similar ballerina frocks of taffeta shading from light to dark green. Their bouquets were of gold lace hearts centered with golden bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. The attendants all wore gold shoes.

Carol Sorenson was the flower girl and Gary Chrisman, the bride's nephew, was the ring bearer. Ray Weber, the groom's brother-in-law, served as best man and ushers were the bride's twin brother, Lenora Wilson, Edward Chrisman and Edward Pfau.

Mrs. Wilson chose a gown of beige lace with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a raspberry red gown with corsage of pink and white roses.

For a Rainy Day

Peach Canning Soon to Be in Full Swing; Preserve, Pickle

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman, Woman's Editor

Every day now we have new canning activities. The peaches, prunes, tomatoes, cucumbers, watermelons, apples and all other produce is clamoring to be saved for that other rainy day and it must be noticed.

First let's look at peaches. Personally, we would not give up any canned peaches for all the fresh or frozen ones on the market. Our favorite winter fruit, if it weren't for prunes, apples, pears, cherries and apricots, peaches must be canned as well as frozen and eaten fresh in our household.

Same old techniques hold true this year as in the past for peaches. Scald to peel, unless easily hand-skinned, halve and pack in jars, process in hot water bath for 20 minutes.

Peach chutney is an old-time meat relish, spicy and well seasoned.

PEACH CHUTNEY
4 quarts cubed peaches
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1/2 pound seeded raisins
2 ounces fine cut ginger
1 cup vinegar
1 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons mustard seed
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika

Heat fruit and vinegar until steaming, add other ingredients and cook slowly until thick.

To pickle peaches do this:
PICKLED PEACHES
1 quart vinegar
6 pounds sugar
12 pounds (6 quarts) fruit
1 tablespoons ground cloves
1 Piece of ginger root
1 Stick cinnamon

Make syrup with sugar and vinegar, adding a spice bag of the cloves and ginger, and adding 4 or 5 sticks cinnamon to the syrup. Add fruit, a few at a time, and cook until done. Pack into jars. Add more fruit to syrup. When all fruit has been cooked, pour the boiling syrup over them and close the jars. Process in water bath for 20 minutes.

A reader phones that she makes excellent peach jelly this way—utilizing the skins peeled from the fruit. (Scald-peeling would not yield enough "good" to be profitable.)

PEACH SKIN JELLY
Put skins and seeds of peaches in pan as they are taken from the fruit, barely cover with water and cook 8 to 10 minutes. Drain off juice and use with commercial pectin according to the recipe on the bottle or package. Sometimes she replaces the pectin with green apple juice.
