Mt. Angel Swimming Program Success; Woodburn Credited

Statesman News Service
MT. ANGEL—A good share of credit and appreciation for the success of the Mt. Angel "Learn-to-Swim" program was attributed to Woodburn's cooperation in providing pool facilities, when the final report of Instructor Norene Wells of Woodburn was read to the Mt. Angel City Council by Carl Mucken.

This was the first year Mt. Angel children received the benefit of the swim instructions, sponsored by the American Red Cross in conjunction with the Youth Recreation Committee.

Two classes were held each week for over two months. The highest number at one instruction period was 69 with an average of 54 children attending each time and a total attendance of 806 children over the entire swim program.

The following 24 children passed the beginner's test: Don Wavra, Arlene Fessler, Charles Wavra, James Schaefer, Arlene Schmitz, Harriet Purdey, Anthony Dummer, Jeanette Wachter, Tim Butsch, Louis Jonsoro, Clifford Schmidt, Bub Mucken, Bob Blenn, Joe Schmitt, Jim Unger, Steve Rider, Joe Schallberger, John Schallberger, Billie Worley, Alice Terhaar, Joan Fenner, Mary Bockelman, Mike Penner, and Lois Schmitt.

Eight passed the Intermediate test: They include Ralph Schmitt, Jim Fenner, Mary Jean Schmitt, Karen Simon, Ronald Wachter, Donny Schmidt, Patricia Schmitt and Dennis Bean.

The program was financed by a recreation fund established by the citizens of Mt. Angel and transportation was furnished by the parents of the youngsters.

Statesman News Service
AUMSVILLE—Helena Littau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Littau, Aumsville route 1, attended the 1953 Lutheran Student Association Conference near Interlochen, Mich., which ended Saturday.

Miss Littau will be at the University of California this year as graduate assistant with the division of student service, National Lutheran Council.

Cascade High School Slates Registration

Statesman News Service
AUMSVILLE—Cascade Union High School will be open for registration next week on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday; also from 7-9 p. m. Wednesday and Thursday. All students are asked to pay fees and check registration on these dates.

Classes will start at 9 a. m. Monday, Sept. 21, with an enrollment similar to last year's 367 expected.

Cascade will have three new faculty members: They are Miss Monte Middlebush, graduate of Oregon State College who will teach girls' physical education and one freshman class in English; Lyle King, who coached all sports at Harrisburg High School last year, will be head coach of basketball and will teach social economics and boys' physical education; David Evans of Portland will teach junior and senior English and one class in journalism.

Seven of the 12 are volunteers this month. They are Delbert Allen Course, Laurence John Smith Jr., Richard Leroy Lang and Edgar Gottfried Brandt, all of Dallas; Frank Arthur Rosenstock Jr., Monmouth; Bruce Randall Sparks Jr., Independence; Alson Bryan Coles, Dorris, Calif.

Also drafted are James Judson Hall Jr., Salem; Raymond Clifford Harden Jr. and James Norman Scott, both of Independence; Glea Clifton Humphreys and Hayes Eldridge Terry, both of Monmouth.

The draft office said no call for physical examinations had been received in Polk County this month.

Howard Gilbert. New members are Dixon Vose, Marion; and Jack Speer, Aumsville. The new members replace Fred Comstock who moved to Albany and Karl Wipper who moved into the Turner district from the Cloverdale district.

Jefferson People To Attend College

Statesman News Service
JEFFERSON—Several more members of last spring's graduating class have reported intentions of attending college this fall. Jimmy Adams will start at Willamette University next week, taking a pre-engineering course planning on an electrical engineering degree.

John Perry will attend Oregon State; John Caughell, the University of Oregon; Lee Cameron, Jimmy Blackwell and Dale Wattenberg, Oregon College of Education at Monmouth; Deloris Meyers, Cascade, at Portland.

Statesman News Service
DALLAS—Twelve Polk County men will leave here Sept. 16 for Army induction in Portland the next day, the Polk County Selective Service office reported Wednesday.

Howard Gilbert. New members are Dixon Vose, Marion; and Jack Speer, Aumsville. The new members replace Fred Comstock who moved to Albany and Karl Wipper who moved into the Turner district from the Cloverdale district.

FALSE TEETH
 That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
 Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Eisenhower Gives Medals

WASHINGTON—Vice President Nixon presented Congressional Medals of Honor Wednesday to relatives of five Marines who earned them by heroic deaths in Korea.

"They gave up their lives that freedom might continue to live on in a perilous world," Nixon said during the spine-tingling ceremony on the tree-shaded parade ground of the Marine barracks.

Posthumously awarded the nation's highest military decoration were: Second Lt. Sherrod Emerson Skinner Jr., East Lansing, Mich.; Staff Sgt. William E. Shuck Jr., Waukegan, Ill.; Staff Sgt. Lewis G. Watkins, Seneca, S. C.; Pfc. John D. Kelly, Homestead, Pa., and Pvt. Jack William Kelso, Fresno, Calif.

"Because they served we are more secure," Nixon said. "Because of their sacrifices the lamp of liberty burns more brightly in the world. Because they died others will live."
