Escapee From State Hospital Apprehended

The freedom of Bret Brault, about 25, was short-lived Thursday when he escaped from the Oregon State Hospital but he was blamed by residents of northeast Salem for several incidents which took place during that time.

State and city police joined with authorities of the hospital and quickly apprehended him in an orchard northwest of Hoover School at 3 p.m., about 30 minutes after his escape.

In the interim police were told that a man took mail from a box in front of 1235 Icel St., tore it in small pieces and discarded it. Postal employees picked up the mail and returned it to the owner.

Later, police received the report that a rock had been thrown through a window at 2645 Englewood Ave. A window of a car belonging to Mrs. W. W. Stiffler, 2870 Bolton Blvd., was broken while she was visiting Mrs. Albert Hilke, 3183 Moody Ave.

Mrs. Hilke explained that "a man came down the road carrying a club and hit the window." He then ran into a nearby orchard, she said.

Death Takes Mrs. Pratt At Age of 82

Mrs. Parke C. Pratt, resident of Salem for 38 years, died at a Salem hospital Thursday afternoon at the age of 82 years.

She was born March 19, 1871, at Hamilton, N. Y., and was the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Dorward. Rev. Dorward held Baptist pastorates in the Middle West and later in California and Oregon.

Mrs. Pratt taught school in Iowa before her marriage to Parke C. Pratt March 19, 1895. Mr. Pratt preceded her in death in 1949.

The couple moved to California from Minnesota in 1903 and later moved to Oregon in 1915. Mrs. Pratt was a loyal worker in the Baptist church and was especially active in Children's work. She was a charter member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Salem where she served as deaconess. Sunday School teacher and cradle roll director.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Willma Wright, librarian at Parrish Junior High School, and Mrs. Clyde Beard, The Dalles; two grandchildren, Mrs. Philip Comfort, Stockton, Calif., and Donald Beard, The Dalles. A son, Dorward C. Pratt, a veteran of World War I, died in 1925.

Funeral services will be held Rev. Omar Barth officiating. In front of the Clough-Barrick Chapel Saturday at 10:30 a.m. with the interment will be in City View cemetery.

Ex-Jet Flyer Added to Staff Of Statesman

Van C. Eisenhut, 550 N. Summer St., is the latest addition to The Statesman news staff.

A midwesterner, he worked for a newspaper in Fremont, Neb., until 1951 when he was recalled to active duty with the U. S. Air Force. Assigned to a fighter interceptor wing in Korea, he flew 125 missions there in an F-86 Sabre jet. On returning to the U. S., he was discharged in June of this year.

Eisenhut, a graduate of Midland College, Fremont, Neb., also was in the Air Force five years during World War II.

Mrs. Eisenhut, a native of Spokane, Wash., will teach in the second grade at Highland School.

Boy Scouts Slate Bush's Pasture Fair

Salem Boy Scouts and leaders are preparing for a Scouting Action Fair Oct. 9-11 at Bush's Pasture, officials said Thursday as the fall program of Cascade Area Scout Council began to shape up.

The "fair" will feature public demonstrations of merit badge skills and pioneering work during the weekend camp to be staged by the council's Cherry City district and the Salem Exchange club.

Plans for the event will be outlined by Dr. Dominic Callierate, camping and activities chairman, at the new year's first meeting of the Cherry City District officers' roundtable Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in First Methodist Church.

Wesley Goodrich is the new district chairman. Other committee chairmen are Dr. Douglas Thompson, health and safety; Otto Younker, leadership and training; Don Crenshaw, advancement; Dave Holtzman, finance; Floyd Witteman, organization and extension. Don Nash is district commissioner.
