TAKEN BY MILITARY
James Elmo Sheldon, Seattle, Wash., was picked up by military authorities Wednesday from the Marion County jail and his sentence of 10 days for unlawful display of license plates automatically suspended. He was arrested by state police when it was discovered he had switched his car's original Washington plates for those from Oregon. Police records indicate he was absent without leave from McChord Air Force Base at Tacoma.

Salem Area Servicemen in Military News

Men in the military news this week included several from the Salem area.

Cpl. Marvin Bibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bibler, 2165 Terrace St., is taking aviation ordnance training in the Mojave Desert in California with the 214th Marine All-Weather Fighter Squadron. He is an aircraft maintenance and repairman.

Robert L. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Davidson, St. Paul, was recently commissioned a second Lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. He was graduated from Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind., in 1952.

Pvt. Darrell Makes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Makes, Dayton Route 1, is a member of a clearing team with the 73rd Combat Engineers' Battalion which is removing mines and napalm from the de-militarized zone in Korea. He entered the Army in January.

Enroute home from Korea is Cpl. Dale R. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Larson, Silverton. Entering the Army in January 1952, he was assigned to the 2nd Division the following October.

Pvt. Arthur B. Kemplin, Yamhill, recently arrived in Korea and has been assigned to the 7th Division. His wife, Mrs. Ann Kemplin, and parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Chest Forming Final Organization Plans

Salem Community Chest is getting down to the business of final preparation for the fund campaign Oct. 6-15, with two more organization functions slated for today.

All division leaders and team captains will meet at 11 a.m. in chest headquarters downtown. Tonight the professional division leaders and solicitors, all volunteers, will meet at 7:30 at the home of Dr. Robert F. Anderson. This is one in a series of "home meetings" now in progress.

Drive Chairman Otto J. Wilson plans to call for a series of noon-time reports of money-raising progress daily during the campaign from 11:30 to 12:30 noon at chest headquarters. This year's slogan is: "Everyone Give, For Goodness Sake."

Residential Solicitation
A women's volunteer division for general residential solicitation will be formed again this year. Chairman Wilson said emphasis will still be on giving at one's place of employment, but house-to-house solicitation will be conducted for any supplementary gifts. Last year's discontinuance of such soliciting cost about $4,000, the chest leader said.

Associate chairmen with Wilson for this fall's chest campaign are Reynolds Allen, Dr. Robert F. Anderson, Carl W. Hogg, Alfred W.

William H. Kemplin, live at Yamhill Route 1.

Pvt. Robert Noteboom, son of Kenneth Noteboom, Salem, is taking basic training at the Ordnance Replacement Training Center near Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

Canada Horse Show Slates Oregon Riders

The Oregon Mounted Posse, Salem's flashy riding group, will be featured entertainment attraction at this year's International Horse Show Exposition at Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 22-26.

With State Police and Mounted Police escort along the way, the drill team's 23 riders, with their wives, will drive to Vancouver Tuesday in a caravan of cars and horse trailers. At the exposition they will present five drills in the final climax spot of horse show performances.

It's a repeat performance at the exposition and the third Vancouver appearance of the posse in recent years. In other public doings this year the Salem- and Oregon-promoting group has appeared in shows at Tillamook, Canby, St. Paul, Molalla and other cities.

Making the Vancouver trip will be Capt. Ralph Stangeby, drillmaster, Lts. Jack Lindeman, O. D. Youngquist, Glen Conklin and J. A. Inglis, Floyd Seamster, Chris Neilding, Gene Teague, William Kergil, Ivan Sutton, Cecil Moller, Claude Copeland, Sherman Eostack, Olin Cox, Marion Towery, Arthur Martin, Glen Struckmeier, Jack Scott, Lee Eyerly, Walter Zosel, Walter Leth, A. M. Minden, Lawrence Stropheker.

Mrs. Wilhelm Attends Funeral Rites for Mother

Mrs. Edna L. Wilhelm, chief clerk of the Marion County draft board, returned to Salem Wednesday after attending the funeral services of her mother, Mrs. S. W. Paget of Everett, Wash.

Mrs. Paget and her husband, who preceded her in death in 1942, lived in Salem from 1940 to 1941. She was born at Marcellus, Mich., July 17, 1874 and was married to S. W. Paget in 1891. The couple moved to Everett in 1918.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Wilhelm, Salem, Mrs. Marie Null, Mrs. Mildred Jacobsen and Mrs. Doris Linden, all of Everett; and two sons, John Paget, Seattle, and Donald Paget, Bell, Calif. Services were held Saturday

Bligh Billiards Loses License

The license of the Bligh Billiards, 241 N. Commercial St., was cancelled Tuesday by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission, following an earlier hearing on charges that Raymond Dillon, the licensee, allowed visibly intoxicated persons to enter and remain on the premises; an employe sold beer to an intoxicated person, permitted loud, noisy, and disorderly conduct and use of profane language.

Service permit of Orville Chastain, employe similarly charged, was ordered suspended for 60 days beginning Wednesday.

from the Purdy and Walters Funeral Home in Everett with interment at Marysville Cemetery.
