Betty McDonnell Dr. Niemeyer Wed Thursday

Exchanging their vows at a simple but impressive ceremony in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Thursday night were Miss Betty McDonnell of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Brewer of Forest Grove, and Dr. Robert H. Niemeyer Jr., son of Robert H. Niemeyer of Salem.

The Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the 7:30 o'clock rites before members of the two families. A small reception followed at the Niemeyer home.

The bride wore a two-piece pink faille costume for her wedding with pink hat and accessories.

Mrs. Edward Lynn of Portland was the bride's only attendant and Thomas A. Roberts Jr. served as best man for Mr. Niemeyer.

After a honeymoon trip along the coast the couple will leave in mid-October for Alaska, where Lt. Niemeyer will be stationed with the U. S. Air Force as a dental surgeon.

Lt. Niemeyer graduated in June from the University of Oregon Dental School. He is a graduate of Salem Schools and Willamette University. His fraternity is Phi Delta Theta.

A fourth son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George F. Douglas on Sept. 16 at the Salem General Hospital. The lad has been named Stephen Ross. His grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Evans of Otter Rock, Oregon and Mrs. Fannie Douglas of Salem. Also welcoming the baby is a sister, Georgia Gene, and three brothers, Johnny, Jimmy, and Scott.

Dr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Utter who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at a large reception on Sept. 13 at their Oak Street home. (McEwan Studio).

Brides-Elect Tell Plans For Rites

October brides-elect are announcing plans for their weddings with several large church ceremonies scheduled for the early fall.

Exchanging their vows at an o'clock ceremony on October 2 at the Calvary Baptist Church will be Miss Sharon Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Bates, and Donald L. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Jones Sr. The Rev. Omar Barth will officiate at the nuptials and Ray Walker, the bride-elect's cousin, will sing.

Lighting the candles will be Miss Sally and Miss Carolyn Hamilton, cousins of the bride-to-be. Miss Virginia Graham will be the honor maid and Miss Sharon Larson, Miss Carol Kummman of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Beverlie Roy, the bridesmaids. Flower girls will be Linda Jones, a cousin of the bride-elect and a niece of the groom-elect, and Jackie Hamilton, cousin of Miss Bates.

Wade Carter will serve as best man for Mr. Jones. The ushers include J. Courtney Jones Jr. and Daryl Jones, brothers of the bride-elect, Ronald Bates, brother of the bride-to-be, and Delwyn Klsen.

The wedding reception will be held in the church parlors.

Sauvain-Christy Rites
Miss Arlene Christy and Charles Sauvain of Woodburn will be married at a morning ceremony on Saturday, October 3 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christy and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Sauvain of Woodburn.

Father J. M. Harris will officiate at the 10:30 o'clock nuptial mass. Wayne Meusey and Ardith Miller will sing and Mr. Meusey will play the organ accompaniment.

Mrs. Edward Murphy of Woodburn will be the matron of honor and bridesmaids include Mrs. D. E. Merrill, sister of the bride-to-be, Miss Janet Bolt and Miss Dixie Bond. Edward Murphy will serve as best man for Mr. Sauvain.

A reception will be held at the American Legion Club following the rites.

Fall Fashion Show Slated For October

Plans are being announced for the Salem Junior Woman's Club annual fall benefit show. The affair will be an event of Tuesday, Oct. 27 at the Salem Woman's Clubhouse at 7:30 p.m.

Fall and winter daytime fashions will be shown by the Fashionette and formal and millinery will be from the Town Shop. Mrs. James T. Brand will be the commentator.

A dessert supper will be served and bridge will be in play following the show.

Mrs. George W. Dewey Jr. is heading the directorate for the affair and Mrs. William Clabaugh, is the co-chairman. Assisting are Mrs. Clarence Rickard, Miss Betty Jean Bergner, Mrs. R. Eugene Morrison and Miss Marilyn Nelson.

Miss Nordyke Tells of Troth to Mr. Robinson

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nordyke are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Klane Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Robinson of Pueblo, Colorado. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Nordyke enrolled this last week for her sophomore year at George Fox College, Newberg. She is majoring in music and is well known in music circles in Salem.

Mr. Robinson graduated from George Fox College last spring and is now taking graduate work in music and religious education at Lewis and Clark College.

The Sigmas will be entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. Karl G. Becke on North Summer Street at 8 o'clock. This will be the first meeting of the group this fall and wives of Sigma Chi alumni are invited to attend. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Robert Sprague and Mrs. John William Stortz.

Cosmis Dance to Be Saturday

The Cosmis Dance Club will resume its dances on Saturday night, Sept. 26. The semi-formal affair will be held at the Labor Temple with dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock to the music of Charles Claggett's orchestra.

The committee for the evening includes Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rainwater and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson.

Luncheon Will Open League's Activities

Fall activities for the Salem League of Women Voters will get underway with a membership luncheon on Wednesday noon at the Marion Hotel. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Albert Logan of Corvallis, state league president. All league members and interested women are invited to attend the luncheon and reservations may be made with Mrs. George Swartley or Mrs. L. E. deWeese.

Mrs. K. E. Montgomery of Eugene, second vice-president and chairman of the organization committee on the state board, will also be present for the occasion. She will act as the state board advisor for the local league. Mrs. Montgomery will participate at the monthly board meeting to be held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Max Bauer. Miss Eloise Ebert is president of the Salem League.

Following the Wednesday luncheon Mrs. William Van Meter of Salem, state nominating chairman, will join Mrs. Logan and Mrs. Montgomery in visiting the Medford and Klamath Falls leagues.

Henry Marrs to Be Feted at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marr will celebrate their 51st wedding anniversary at a reception this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sim, 3410 Abrams Avenue. Friends of the couple are being invited through the press to call between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Arranging the party are the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Marr, assisted by their wives and husbands. They include Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Marr.

Cutting the wedding cake will be Mrs. Ted Bergquist and Mrs. Alvin Marr. Presiding at the coffee urns will be Mrs. J. L. Sim and Mrs. Edward Burgess. Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Charles Farrell, Mrs. Walter Karsten, Mrs. Leonard Van Kleeck, Mrs. George Kendall and Mrs. John Wheeler.

The occasion will also celebrate the 81st birthday of Mr. Marr. The couple's marriage took place in Smith Center, Kansas, Sept. 24, 1902. They have lived in Salem for 42 years. The Marrs have five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.
