

Loggers Defeat Cats in Opener

CPS Crew Notches 14-0 Victory

The College of Puget Sound Loggers scored touchdowns in the second and fourth periods last night at McCulloch Stadium in take a 14 to 0 victory over the Willamette Beavers, the first football clash of the season for both sides. About 2,100 fans watched the mix.

The light and green Bearcats launched three definite scoring threats—to the 11 and 27 yard lines in the first half, and to the CPS 2 in the fourth period—but couldn't produce a touchdown.

Both John Heinrich's Loggers and Ted Ogdahl's Bearcats played on even terms in the first period, with the latter uncoiling a 54-yard drive before being stopped.

Early in the second period John Kent tried a dangerous pass to the right from his own 22-yard line and it proved disastrous. Rich Dodds, CPS defender picked it off near the sideline and romped 23 yards to the first touchdown.

Sandy DeCarteret booted the extra point to make it 7-0.

The T-formationed Bearcats tossed in another drive of 43 yards in this quarter, but got to the CPS 23 and lost the oval on downs. The longest run of the game was included in this spurt, a 21-yard sprint around his left end by George Bardsley, freshman fullback from Benson Tech of Portland.

Bobby Zoelch tossed in a fine block to spring Bardsley into the open.

In the third period the Loggers, spicing their T-formation with some single wing that had the Bearcat defenders somewhat baffled, drove to the Willamette 12, where the Cats stiffened to hold. Shortly thereafter the Bearcats recovered a fumble on their own 32-Dorrance Noteboom grabbing the loose ball—and the best WU drive of the game followed.

Yard-eating runs by Zoelch and a pair of passes from John Kent to Bruce Harding and Dean Benson, the latter good for 31 yards, put the Bearcats on the CPS 8 with a first down. Zoelch then fumbled, but recovered on the 2.

On the next play the entire left side of the WU line was off-side as Zoelch tried for a TD. The penalty tossed the Cats back to the 7, where a loss on a running play and two incomplete passes killed the WU chances.

The rest of the game was mostly CPS offensive threats as the Bearcats bogged completely. With less than one minute to play Walt Espelin zipped through the middle of the Bearcat wall on a single wing power play to score. DeCarteret again booted the point.

Statistics for the clash were fairly even, with a slight edge for the Bearcats.

Dale Meschke, visiting fullback, was the bulwark of the CPS offense, carrying the ball 13 times for 58 yards. For WU, Zoelch carried 20 times for 85 yards.

Willamette next plays Western Washington at Bellingham Saturday night.

Bears, Stanford, Huskies, Wake Forest Upset in Opening Engagements

NEW YORK (AP)— Old man upset, who usually makes his rounds of college football somewhat later in the season, got in his licks early this year with Wake Forest, Nebraska, California, Stanford and Washington bowing on the first big day of 1953 campaign.

Perhaps the downfall Friday night of fifth ranked Alabama by little Mississippi Southern was an omen of things to come.

For Saturday William and Mary, with only a 24-man squad, downed Wake Forest 18-14; Oregon whipped Nebraska 20-12; Baylor rode over proed California 25-0; College of the Pacific turned back Stanford 25-20 and Colorado beat Washington 21-20.

There was no immediate indication whether the new rules prohibiting the use of two platoons had anything to do with the upsets. Substitutes were used freely, where available, but only in cases like Georgia Tech was an entire team replaced by another unit. Georgia Tech ran over Davidson 53-0.

Little L. Quinby Hines was William and Mary's big offensive weapon. He's strictly a kicking specialist and he used his toe to a good advantage, kicking one extra point and booting a 10-yard field goal from a difficult angle.

Quarterback Cotton Davidson showed he can go both ways as he played 59½ minutes in engineering Taylor's rout of California's Bears. In addition to calling plays that sent L. G. Dupre and Jerry Coody over for touchdowns, Davidson sneaked over twice from one yard out for six pointers.

Sophomore Homer Jenkins was the thorn in Washington's side. He ran, passed and quick-kicked the favored Huskies dizzy as Colorado spoiled the coaching debut of Johnny Cherberg.

Two of Colorado's touchdowns were by end Gary Knafelic on passes from Jenkins and Frank Bernardi, junior halfback.

College of Pacific ripped through Stanford's line consistently and Ross Ottoson's passes clicked with regularity in its upset triumph over a Stanford team regarded as a potential Pacific Coast Conference "sleeper."

Other major games ran more to form as Maryland, ranked ninth in The Associated Press pre-season poll downed Missouri 20-6; the Oklahoma Aggies shut out Hardin-Simmons 20-0 and Southern California beat Washington State 29-13 in a Pacific Coast Conference affair.

Chet Hamulak sped 61 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter and his Maryland mates came up with two more tallies in the final period to spoil Missouri's opener.

The Oklahoma Aggies, paced by Bill Bredder, clicked with mid-season smoothness in blanking Hardin Simmons.

Aramis Dandoy ran 91 yards for one touchdown and engineered two others in Southern California's free scoring triumph over Washington State.

The win by third ranked Georgia Tech was one of the most lopsided of the day.

But Mississippi also owned Chattanooga 39-4. Tulane whipped undermanned Citadel 54-6. Washington and Lee defeated Shepherd 47-0. Mississippi State beat Memphis State 34-6 and Iowa State blanked South Dakota 35-0 in other routes.

6,500 Watch Myrtle Bowl Mix . . . Wolves Crush Raiders 40-14 in Grid Starter

COOS BAY (Special)—A hard-charging gang of OCE Wolves made an auspicious start in the 1953 gridiron wars here Saturday night as they tallied twice in the first four minutes of the ball game and went on to a smashing 40-14 victory over SOCE's Red Raiders in the annual Myrtle Bowl Shrine Benefit game, played before 6,500 fans.

Bill McArthur's Monmouth men, led by Charley Pinion, Kaye Booth and Bill Arnold, tallied again early in the third period and piled over three touchdowns in a sizzling fourth quarter performance. Both the Raider TDs came in the third stanza as well as on a 19-yard run.

Pinion registered three of the OCE six-pointers. He went eight yards for the first one early in the opening chapter and soon after Kaye Booth romped 15 yards for another. Pinion booted both points and that was the extent of the scoring in the first half.

Booth went two yards for a TD early in the third quarter but SOCE made it 20-14 when Heston tallied twice. Then the big final period for the Wolves. Pinion went 12 yards for one and took a 14-yard aerial from Darrell Davis for another. The final OCE touchdown came on Arnold's 25-yard gallop.

Pinion had four conversion kicks in five tries for the evening. In the Wolves' forward wall, Guard Paul Riley and End Dennis Garland, Salem products, turned in outstanding games. OCE had 16 first downs for the night to nine for the losers.

Ducks Accuse Rival Beavers Of Violation

PORTLAND (AP)—The University of Oregon Saturday accused Oregon State College of violating the Pacific Coast Conference recruiting code and said it would ask an investigation.

The Portland newspaper, the Oregonian, said that Bill Bowerman, Oregon's assistant athletic director, reported the alleged code violation occurred this way:

Bob Clark, a star quarterback from Portland's Benson High School last year, arrived at the University campus Sunday and on Monday began registering to attend the university. Last Wednesday four Oregon State students called at the University and picked up Clark. Three of them returned the next day and picked up Clark's luggage. "We hope to produce evidence that these boys were representatives of the Oregon State coaching staff. It is so, this would be in direct violation of the conference recruiting code," Bowerman said.

Yankees Lose Fourth to Mel

Braves Nearing Gate Mark; Roberts Bows

NEW YORK (AP)—Mel Parnell joined the select group of pitchers who have defeated the New York Yankees four times this season as the Boston Red Sox shut out the five-time American League champions 3-0.

In pitching his first complete game since July 9, when he beat the Yanks for the third time, Parnell checked the champs with five hits for his 20th victory.

Only Chicago's Billy Pierce and Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Early Wynn had beaten the Yanks four times until Parnell accomplished the feat.

Ted Williams connected with a single off Vic Raschi and a double off Johnny Sain, who took over when Raschi was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth.

Warren Spahn hit a bases-loaded single and set Cincinnati down with seven hits for his 21st victory as Milwaukee beat the Redlegs 5-2.

A near capacity crowd of 32,482 virtually assured the Braves of a National League attendance record. The turnout boosted the home attendance to 1,790,386.

Spahn lost his shutout when Andy Seminick belted his 18th homer in the seventh with Jim Greengraves on base.

In other major league action, the Philadelphia Athletics downed Washington 6-5 for their first victory of the year over the Senators at Connie Mack Stadium; the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates split a doubleheader with the Giants taking the opener 4-1 and the Pirates the nightcap 6-5, and the Brooklyn Dodgers downed the Philadelphia Phillies and Robin Roberts 5-4.

Jackie Robinson's hot smash through the middle of the diamond in the fifth inning gave Brooklyn the two runs it needed to hand Roberts his 15th setback. He has won 22. Duke Snider hit two homers for the Dodgers.

Trabert, 'Mo' Upset Victims

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Wimbledon champion Vic Seixas of the United States and youthful Ken Rosewall of Australia won their way into finals of men's singles in the Pacific Southwest Tennis Tournament Saturday, but tennis queen Maureen Connolly was upset in the women's play.

Eighteen year old Rosewall rallied to score a major upset when he defeated United States champion Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, 1-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Seixas knocked off another young Australian star, Lewis Hoad, in straight sets, 8-6, 6-4, 11-9. All four players are mainstays of the Davis Cup teams for their respective countries.

Miss Connolly, of San Diego, the United States and Wimbledon women's singles champion, was handed her second major defeat of 1953 when Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, beat her 6-2, 7-5.

Beavers Lose Tackle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tackle Ralph Day, 250-pound transfer from Los Angeles, is lost to the Oregon State football squad for the rest of the season.

Day injured his right knee in practice this week. Coach Rip Taylor said the injury would keep Day out at least five weeks, and that Day has decided to stay out of school this fall to save his football eligibility.

Diviny Roars to Win in 100-Lap Race

By CHARLES IRELAND
Statesman Sports Writer
Pat Diviny, Auburn, Wash., driver who has been in the thick of all recent Stock Car races here, headed the 1953 Olds Holiday coupe to first place in the 100-lap feature Saturday night at Hollywood Bowl.

Ray Elliott was the unofficial winner of second place. Royce Haggerty also thought he had earned second money, but this writer and the official scorer tentatively agreed that the number-two spot went to Elliott, who appeared to be ¼ of a lap behind Diviny at the finish.

While Diviny won, Max Humm was the real hero of the race. Humm, a Salem-area driver who hasn't raced here much this year, literally drove circles around everybody else until he spun out on the west turn at the half-way

By RANDALL W. BLAKE
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Two bad passes from center sent Nebraska reeling to a 20-12 defeat before underdog Oregon here Saturday in the nation's first nationally televised game of the season.

Nebraska had hoped to win this game by controlling the ball.

But the Nebraska club went down for the reason that center

Tom Oliver was having an awfully hard time doing that very thing. Oregon scored five plays after Johnny Bordogna couldn't handle Oliver's first bad pass. Guard Jack Patera gobbled up the errant ball on the Nebraska 16. Fullback Cece Hodges hammered over from the one-foot line and Oregon had a 6-0 lead.

Just a few moments later the first period, Oliver cut loose a fourth down pass that sailed over Bordogna's head back to the 2 where Bordogna finally caught up with the ball and tried to kick.

The ball went only nine yards and on the next play, from the 11, Oregon's Dick James circled his own left end for the touchdown. When George Shaw converted Oregon had enough to win.

Nebraska had its moments after that and made its first score on a 63-yard march sparked by sophomore tailback Rex Fischer who scored from the four. But Dennis Korinek, who was to score Nebraska's second touchdown on a 69-yard pass play with Fischer throwing, missed the conversion.

AGGIES WIN
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Crossed signals on a crucial try for the extra point cost Kentucky Saturday night as Texas A & M edged the Wildcats 7-6 in an inter-sectional football game.

Herb Tripiett, triple-threat with the Salem Vikings, gets off a practice boot under the watchful eye of Coach Lee Gustafson as the Viks prepare for their Waters Field opener next Friday night with the Albany Bulldogs. Salem has won its first two games this season, 21-0 over Cleveland and 40-0 over Astoria.

Fagan Offers Seals to City

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Paul Fagan offered Saturday to give the San Francisco Seals to the city of San Francisco if he can get them out of the Pacific Coast Baseball League and into the majors.

Fagan, San Francisco and Honolulu financier, made his offer in a lengthy statement which charged that the Pacific Coast League "lacks leadership, management and constructive plan for any possibility of reasonable success."

Fagan's fight with the Coast League has been long and bitter and he has threatened to close Seal Stadium next season rather than put another team in the league.

Soph Huskies' Nemesis

By JACK HEWINS
SEATTLE (AP)—A slippery do-everything sophomore, educated kickers and a sharp, smart line carried underdog Colorado to a 21-20 football victory over Washington Saturday to spoil the debut of Coach Johnny Cherberg.

The sophomore was versatile Homer Jenkins, who ran, passed and quick-kicked the favored Huskies dizzy.

Washington got away in front when Guard Jim Noe plucked a Jenkins' fumble out of the air and lumbered 77 yards to score. Stung by that miscue, Jenkins engineered a score-knotting drive that was climaxed by his 16-yard pass to end Gary Knafelic.

Two touchdowns in the third period, one good for 49 yards on Bernardi's pass to Knafelic and the other a 41-yard dash by still another sophomore, fullback Emerson Wilson, put Colorado in front to stay after it had trailed briefly 13-7.

Regatta Paced By Slo-Mo V

WASHINGTON (AP)—Slo-mo-shun V, the odds-on favorite, raced to victory Saturday in the first heat of the three section President's Cup regatta on the Potomac River, averaging better than 91 miles an hour. The final two heats, to decide the outcome, will be held Sunday.

At that, Slo-mo-shun might have run into trouble if Miss Great Lakes II had not developed motor trouble as the two duelled for the lead on the next to last lap.
