Demonstrators Against Zahedi Regime Arrested

TEHRAN, Iran (U)—Sixteen more demonstrators against the government of Premier Fazlollah Zahedi were arrested Sunday, bringing to 45 the number picked up since Friday.

The demonstrators, under cover of the Muharran, Iran's most solemn Moslem three-day religious holiday, shouted their support for deposed Premier Mohammed Mossadegh. Some of them shouted pro-Mossadegh slogans in Shah Mosque while police caught four others trying to hang a Mossadegh banner from a hotel balcony.

Dr. Korowicz, who left his job with the Polish delegation to the United Nations to seek asylum here, Saturday was reported in hiding but planning to go to Washington soon to talk with U.S. officials.

The report came from Stefan Korobinski, former Polish underground leader to whom Korowicz went when he left the Polish delegation quarters.

Dr. Korowicz, who said he wanted to stay in this country because life in Communist Poland is now "a nightmare," walked out of his Chatham Hotel room and quit the U. N. job for good earlier this week.

He sought out Korobinski, who steered him to Radio Free Europe, a private organization which beams anti-Communist broadcasts to Iron Curtain countries.

Recordings made by Korowicz, a noted Polish author and professor of international law, already are being sent into Poland under Radio Free Europe's "saturation service" which uses 25 transmitters in Munich.

Korobinski said Saturday that Dr. Korowicz was in hiding for rest and "because we think perhaps he is in some danger," but that the professor has no guards around him.

Visits Friends
The Polish delegation to the U. N. has issued a statement saying that Korowicz had been given leave for a few days to visit friends, and adding:

"His statement to the press gives reason for a serious anxiety that he is not acting on his free will and has no freedom of movement."

Korobinski said any suggestion that Korowicz has, in effect, been kidnapped was "ridiculous."

He added that Korowicz had told him that members of the Polish U. N. delegation "are forbidden to meet any one, even relatives."

Korobinski said Korowicz plans to return to New York Monday, "and all the people can see him then."

He will make more broadcasts for Radio Free Europe and the Voice of America, Korobinski said, and in a few days will go to Washington for conferences with top-level officials.

He will be able to give them an up-to-date picture of conditions in Poland, Korobinski said.
