State Hospital Aide Program Starts Monday

Salem's Volunteer Aide program at the Oregon State Hospital is scheduled to begin Monday, said Mrs. Cecil Wickline, state and Salem chairman of the Council of Church Women's rehabilitation committee.

The program is sponsored by the Oregon Council of Churches and the Salem Council of Church Women.

Ten graduates of previous Volunteer Aide programs will begin work at the state institution Monday afternoon but classes for new volunteers won't begin until Oct. 5, Mrs. Wickline said.

Classes, to run for two weeks, will meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday, she explained, and added that evening classes will also be held for both men and women who would like to help during the winter program.

After attending the classes, volunteer aides will work one afternoon a week for six months. The work includes reading aloud to patients, teaching handicraft, sewing, typing, baking, playing games with patients and giving home permanents.

Classes preparing volunteer aides for their work in the state hospital are similar to those given to persons hired as psychiatric aides at the institution, Mrs. Wickline said.

Soybeans Still Move Higher

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybeans continued to attract support on the board of trade Wednesday but other cereals suffered from neglect. Dealings were very slow everywhere, but in beans, and even in that pit trading was nothing to get excited about.

Lacking any aggressive support, wheat slipped down quietly for losses running to around a cent on mild hedging pressure.

Wheat closed ¾-1⅛ lower, corn ⅛ lower to ¾ higher, oats unchanged to ½ lower, rye 1 to 2 cents lower, soybeans 1¼-2¾ higher and lard 55 cents lower to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Youth Arrested In Coach's Car

A 16-year-old Albany youth was being held Wednesday in Baker following his arrest in possession of a car stolen Monday from Woodburn High School coach Marshall H. Barbour.

Marion County sheriff's office said the car was stolen Monday noon while parked in front of Barbour's house.

The boy is being held for Marion County authorities.

Logs Break Free of Raft

About 800 logs secured to the east bank of the Willamette River in a cove across from West Salem broke loose about 7 a. m. Wednesday, but most of them ended up on a sand bar a short distance away.

A spokesman for Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. said apparently waves from a passing boat had caused lines holding the logs to snap. None of the logs got completely away due to low water.

Crews went to work immediately rounding up the stray logs and about half were in place by noon.

It will take two or three days to pick up the rest the spokesman said.

$100 Stolen From Brooks Gas Station

Statesman News Service

BROOKS—The Ramp and Varbel Chevron service station here was burglarized of $100 in change—about $50 of it in dimes—sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday, state police reported.

The money was taken from the cash register after entrance was made by forcing open a rear door and then an office door. Merchandise in sight was not taken.

Owners Sam Ramp and Jess Varpel told police dimes from a soft drink machine had been put in the cash register when the station was closed Tuesday night at 10:30.

Stock Prices Rise, Slide

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market advanced Wednesday, in the wake of Tuesday's strong rise, but it had considerable difficulty in holding to its best gains.

Key areas of the market saw changes of around a point either way, but the plus signs far outweighed losses.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 30 cents at $102.50.

Volume amounted to 1,240,000 shares as compared with 1,300,000 shares traded Tuesday.

Norblad Says AF Budget Cut Fully Justified

Recent cuts in the air force budget by the Eisenhower administration were fully justified, U. S. Rep. Walter Norblad, 1st Oregon district, declared in an address before members of American Legion Post 126 Tuesday night in Salem.

Norblad said in the past it has been the habit of congress to give the military almost anything it asked with the result that there has been too much waste.

"If the cuts in the military appropriations are too great they can be restored in whole or part when congress reconvenes next January," Norblad declared.

Norblad said investigation showed that because of the generous policy of congress the air force now has $29 billion of carry-over and unexpended funds. He added that the air force carry-over for last year is equal to almost half the money required to operate the entire government.
