Elections Top Campus News This Week

By JULIE MELLOR
Statesman Correspondent

Student body and class elections highlighted student discussion this week on the Willamette University campus, as voting terminated yesterday with the final results.

Ruben Menashe of Portland was elected first vice-president of the student body, while AWS selected Margie Knockenhauer of San Mateo, Calif., as secretary; Joan Pangborn of Tillamook, treasurer; and Joyce Ambler of Portland, freshman representative.

Senior class officers are Daline Montag, Portland, president; Bob Hanuska, Salem, vice president; Frances Graham, Sacramento, Calif., secretary; and Laurie Peterson and Vern Zeucke, Salem, sergeants-at-arms.

Ruling the junior class will be Kent Holmes, San Carlos, Calif.; Chuck Ruud, Woodburn, vice-president; Kay Kremer, Corvallis, secretary; Judy Fullager, Portland, treasurer; and John Kent, San Carlos, Calif., sergeant-at-arms.

Sophomore leadership will be under the authority of Tom Carr, Burlingame, Calif.; Dale Patton, McMinnville, vice-president; Jill Gellerman, Burlingame, Calif.; secretary; Marilyn Parker, San Carlos, Calif., treasurer, and Dale Gustafson and John Bone, Salem, sergeant-at-arms.

Salem Man Heads Class

Holding freshman offices are Pat Largent, Salem, president; Neil Causbie, Albany, vice-president; Marilyn Waterman, Bend, secretary; Bill Cesario, San Mateo, Calif., treasurer; and Benny Lee, Salem, sergeant-at-arms.

Finalists for "Little Colonel" of the Military Ball are Joanne Terhark and Joyce Ambler, Portland; and Marilyn Waterman, of Bend. The "Colonel," one of these three, will be announced tonight at the ball at Crystal Gardens ballroom.

Chosen as Associated Women Student's coed of the month for October is Jane Notson, Portland. Jane is a senior, vice-president of Pi Beta Phi, active in Cap and Gown, editor of the yearbook last year, and is senior scholar in art.

The College of Music will sponsor its first student recital this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the music recital hall. Among the featured players are Ted McIlvanna and Amy Girod, Salem.

Faculty recitals will begin Monday evening when Ralph Dobbs, associate professor of music, is presented in concert.

Armstrong Home Scene of Rites

JEFFERSON — Arrangements of chrysanthemums, gladioluses and daisies formed the background for the wedding of Miss Barbara Lou Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Armstrong, and Joseph Neil Johnson, son of Joseph L. Johnson of Albany and Mrs. Harvey Holderman of Bend, at the home of the bride's parents on Saturday afternoon, September 26. The Rev. Lester Jones of Albany Christian Church read the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Gilbert Looney, accompanied by Mrs. Leonard McCaw, sang.

Mrs. Donna Witt of Albany, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dark brick colored taffeta gown with black accessories and yellow and white chrysanthemum corsage. Attending the bridegroom was his stepbrother, Delbert Witt of Albany.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beige faille taffeta gown and brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white chrysanthemums.

A reception followed with Mrs. Ethel Giesey of Monroe, aunt of the bride, cutting the cake. Mrs. Guy Johnston and Miss Lorraine Saul of Salem poured. Assisting were Miss Joan Schroeder of Salem, Mrs. Larry Johnston and Mrs. Aileen Kalmbach of Albany.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Armstrong chose a dusty rose crepe dress and corsage of pink and white chrysanthemums.

Following a wedding trip to the coast Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home at 1610 West Third Street, Bend, where the bridegroom is saw operator for the Brooks Scanlon Company.

MT. ANGEL—Five generations were represented when the above quintet got together recently. Starting with young Jerry Etzel (lower left), and reading clockwise are his mother, Mrs. Etzel; his grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Jaeger, Mt. Angel; his great-grandmother, Mrs. J. Jacoby, Stayton; and (in center) his great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Dora Gleisner, 94, New Ulm, Minn. Mrs. Jacoby and her husband observed their 55th wedding anniversary last April.

Marlene Tickle Honor Guest

Miss Marlene Tickle, bride-elect of Gerald Hunter, was the honor guest at a bridal shower given at the home of Mrs. Bessie Vandermeer on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Vandermeer and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Richards, were co-hostesses for Miss Tickle, whose wedding is to be an event of October 10.

Big Game Will Attract Many To Eugene

By MARCIA WEBB

EUGENE — The Stanford Indians left a feather in the University of Oregon's cap as the Ducks fought hard to lose by only a small margin. In hopes of driving hard again and winning, as in the Nebraska game, Oregon faces U.C.L.A. Saturday, at Hayward field in Eugene. Attending the game, along with the many other Duck rooters, will be Mrs. William Deeney and daughter Pat, and Mrs. Vern Miller with her daughter, Julie. Sally Greig, Oregon freshman, was a finalist in the rally squad tryouts.

The Sigma Chi back yard was the scene of more football activity in which Ron Walters suffered a broken wrist while scrimmaging with his fraternity brothers.

A minor ailment plus a major broken leg is keeping Judie Burdette confined for the time being. The broken limb was not a result of Oregon's annual Bunion Derby, an activity which permits each men's living organization to dance 7 minutes at each of the women's houses for the sum of 5 cents. The Derby saw many Salem students at the dance such as Howard Messmer, who now holds a job as house boy at the Chi Omega sorority.

Aside from their job of studying, 380 men are participating in men's rushing. The drop of enrollment, as compared with that of last year in the University, doesn't seem to have effected the number of rushees for the largest group in four years started this week of fraternity activity. Could it be that the lifting of the restriction on grades for freshmen may reach the Chase home by taking the Macleay Road to Shaw junction and turn right to the fourth house. The program will be "Vacation Memories" and Mrs. Roscoe Tartar will lead the devotions. The committee includes Mrs. E. F. Crail and Mrs. E. W. Cooley.

The Englewood Woman's Club will meet this afternoon for a 1:15 dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Orrin A. Chase, Route 5, Box 319. Members may reach the Chase home by taking the Macleay Road to Shaw junction and turn right to the fourth house. The program will be "Vacation Memories" and Mrs. Roscoe Tartar will lead the devotions. The committee includes Mrs. E. F. Crail and Mrs. E. W. Cooley.

Modern Etiquette
By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When a bride-elect has no family, near relatives or guardian, isn't it all right for her bridegroom to stand that part of the wedding expenses usually assumed by the girl's parents?

A. No. If the girl, herself, cannot afford the expense of an elaborate wedding, then she must not expect her bridegroom to shoulder this. Her wedding should be a very simple one.

Q. When a hostess knows that her week-end guest is very strict about attending church, should she arrange her schedule so that the guest has this opportunity?

A. If she is a thoughtful hostess, she will.

Q. How should gifts received during an illness be acknowledged?

A. If the patient is too ill to acknowledge the gifts immediately, notes of thanks should be written as soon after recovery as possible.
