Diller-Friend Vows Read

HUBBARD—A double ring, candlelight ceremony united Miss Doris Anne Friend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Friend of Hubbard, and Robert Dale Diller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Diller of Aurora, in marriage at the Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canby, Saturday evening, October 3. The Reverend Gordon M. Trygstad performed the ceremony. Miss Alice Clement of Beaverton was the organist. Mrs. Willis Berkeley of Hubbard and Robert Craig of Hubbard sang.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon marquisette styled with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves, and flaring pointed peplum over the full skirt with a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a coronet of lace studded with pearls and sequins.

Miss Robin Berkeley of Hubbard was maid of honor wearing a floorlength gown of gold, velvet and net. She carried large gold and bronze chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Burnham of Broadacres and Mrs. Dale Lorenz of Portland wearing emerald green gowns of velvet and net. They carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Charles Diller was best man for his brother and ushers were Dave Wagner of Aurora and Robert Gauthier of Astoria.

Candlelighters were Miss Shirley Dancer of Broadacres and Miss Virginia Claypool of Albany. Gail Hixson was flower girl and Daryl Miller, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's cake was served by Mrs. Berkeley. Mrs. Robert Stauffer of Hubbard poured the coffee, and Mrs. Dwyne Miller of Salem and Mrs. Bert Tilley of Beaver Creek served the punch. Assisting were Mrs. Steve Ensign, Mrs. Lester Pulley, Mrs. Hugh Wells, Mrs. Claude Moomaw, Miss Carmen Schell, all of Hubbard, Mrs. Vera Cochran of Canby, Misses Karen Mathieu of Oregon City, Charlotte Anderson of Hubbard and Bonnie Hathaway of Butteville.

The couple will go to Sacramento, California on their trip and expect to be at home in McMinnville about October 12. Mrs. Diller is employed in Salem and Mr. Diller is attending Linfield College.

Engagement of Broadacres Girl

BROADACRES—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burnham of Broadacres have announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley to Pvt. William L. McLaren, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McLaren of Aurora.

Pvt. McLaren is stationed at Ft. Ord, California for his basic training.

Both young people are North Marion Union High School graduates. Miss Burnham is working for an insurance company in Portland and commutes daily.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Fashion Show for Woman's Club

The West Salem Woman's Club will launch its fall activities with a fashion show at its first meeting Thursday night at the West Salem City Hall at 8 p.m. Fashion will be shown from Lorman's Dress Shop of West Salem.

The Halloween theme will be used in the decor and refreshments will be served by the officers, who are serving as hostesses for the first meeting. Mrs. Stanley Zelmer is president and will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Cameron, Mrs. Carl Oleen and Mrs. Darrel Bradford.

Mrs. E. Reichert of the Marion County Home Extension project will speak to the group. All members and guests are invited to attend the meeting.

BUTTEVILLE—Miss Bernadine Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harper of Butteville, was married to William Croco, son of Mrs. Earl Chinn of Orocco, and formerly of Butteville, on Saturday, September 26 in Yuma, Ariz.

Mr. Croco is a seaman with the navy and the couple will live in San Diego until he leaves for Japan. His commanding officer accompanied the couple to Yuma. Mrs. Croco was with an insurance company in Portland prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred deVries, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reception on Sept. 27 at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold deVries. The couple's marriage took place in Salem on Sept. 30, 1903 and they have resided at Pratum ever since.

First Meetings For League Thursday

The first monthly unit meetings of the League of Women Voters of Salem will be held on Thursday, October 8. The noon meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Swartsley, 1645 S. Summer St., and the evening group will meet at 8:00 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. L. E. deWeese, 1675 Fir St.

With the approach of United Nations Week later in October, the meetings will devote most of their time to this subject. Mrs. C. M. Collins, chairman of U.N. activities for the league, has arranged a program based on some of the U.N. specialized agencies. Mrs. Collins, Miss Mary Eyre, Mrs. Francis Gaskins, and Mrs. E. M. Corrigan will speak on the general attitude toward the U.N., World Health, U.N.E.S.C.O., and the Food and Agricultural Organization. A film will also be shown.

Following this program, the members will hear a brief report on the league's local project, "police protection for juveniles and investigation for the need of a police woman in Salem," to be given by Mrs. Richard Embick, chairman, and Mrs. Ben Ratcliff.

Church Rites Unite Couple

GERVAIS—Miss Helen Irene Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore of Brooks, became the bride of Harry Nosack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nosack, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church on Sept. 8... with the Rev. George Snideron officiating at the 10 o'clock rites.

Miss Helen Keber of Mt. Angel was the organist and Miss Jean Manning of Gervais the soloist.

The bride wore a ballerina gown of lace over taffeta with a fingertip veil caught to a headdress of seed pearls and lace. She carried a white prayer book marked with white crayons and bouvardia.

Miss Marian Moore, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a ballerina gown of pink taffeta with a white eyelet organza overskirt. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Jim Nosack served as best man for his brother, John Moore, brother of the bride, Harry Erwert and Eugene Nosack, cousins of the groom were ushers.

Mrs. Moore selected a navy blue gown with rust accessories for her daughter's wedding and a corsage of gold chrysanthemums and bouvardia.

The couple will live in Oregon City. For going away the bride wore an oxford grey suit with rust accessories.

Club Notices To Be Mailed

Increase in the number of clubs using The Statesman for meeting notices has made it necessary to request that all such information be sent in by mail, rather than telephoned.

Club presidents should inform their publicity chairmen to send in the notices on post cards, preferably typewritten. Material for the Sunday Statesman must be in the hands of the Women's Department by Wednesday noon.

DAR Luncheon On Saturday

Mrs. George Rossman gave an interesting book review of Thomas B. Costain's "Silver Chalice" at the luncheon meeting of Chemeketa Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution Saturday afternoon at the Marion Hotel.
