West Oregon Teams Dominate AP's Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Western Oregon teams dominated the first weekly Associated Press high school football poll of the season with North Bend emerging as the state's No. 1 team.

In fact, district 5 teams nearly swept the top spots in the poll of 19 sports writers and sportscasters. Only Central Catholic of Portland, defending state champion in class 1-A, managed to break up the district 5 dominance. Central Catholic took the No. 2 position, followed closely by Eugene and Marshfield.

North Bend, Eugene and Marshfield all are in district 5, but only one of them can qualify for the state playoffs later.

Portland teams also finished strong in the first poll, like district 5 entrants, capturing three places among the top 10. Besides Central Catholic, Jefferson was named in fifth place and Benson in No. 7.

That left only four other positions for the rest of the state. Salem nabbed the No. 6 spot and Gresham No. 10. The only two teams from east of the Cascades, Prineville and Klamath Falls, wound up in a tie for No. 8.

Prineville is the defending champion in class A-2, and was the only A-2 team to place in the top 10.

North Bend won first-place votes from 9 of the 19 sports observers. Central Catholic won six. Eugene got one vote for first place, Salem two and Klamath Falls one.

With 10 points awarded for a first-place vote, nine for a second-place vote, etc., North Bend compiled 180 points. Central Catholic 132 and Eugene 134.

The complete balloting with first-place votes and total points:

Rank	Team	Points
1	North Bend (9)	180
2	Central Catholic (6)	132
3	Eugene (1)	134
4	Marshfield	111
5	Jefferson	97
6	Salem (2)	81
7	Benson	44
8	Klamath Falls (1)	39
8	Prineville	39
10	Gresham	32

Others: Ontario 25, Hermiston and Grants Pass 21, Hillsboro 16, Oregon City 13, Corvallis 11, The Dalles 10, Cleveland of Portland and Milwaukie 8, St. Helens 6, Grant of Portland 4, Crater 3, Molalla 2, Lebanon and Roseburg 1 each.

U.S. Golfing Troupe Beats European Aces

PARIS (AP) — The American Ryder Cup team, which narrowly took the measure of Britain last week, invaded the continent Tuesday and gave a golfing lesson to the best of her professionals.

The American pros got off to a lopsided 4-1 lead over a team of ten Europeans from six countries in the first day of a two-day match at the suburban St. Cloud course.

A crowd of 2,000 spectators, including the Duke of Windsor and ex-King Leopold of Belgium, trooped around the fairways and roughs to follow the competition, the first ever to be staged between American stars and non-British Europeans.

Slammin Sam Snead, whose golf against the British was a disappointment, was back in form against the Europeans. He teamed with Walter Burkemo of Detroit to trounce Aldo Casera, the Italian match play champion, and Albert Pellissier, of France, winner of the Monte Carlo Open, by a 6 and 4 margin.

Snead found the 6,663-yard St. Cloud course to his liking. He did not have to use anything more formidable than a five iron after quitting the tees during the entire afternoon. He racked up a 65 for the par 70 course. He and Burkemo had a best ball of 62.

Archers' Hunting Trip Yields Deer, Salmon

Bob Bartges of Aumsville and John Erickson of 1800 State St., Salem, had themselves an interesting, as well as successful weekend. They went hunting with bow and arrow in the Tillamook Burn, and Bartges, a member of the Oregon Bow Hunters, bagged a 110-pound spike deer with his first shot. Erickson went fishing in the Trask River and caught a 22-pound salmon.

There followed seven column inches of blank, white space. The Nebraska Huskers, although favored, lost to Kansas State 27-0 Saturday.

At the start of the 1953 college football season the University of Texas had played 535 football games, winning 375, losing 137 and tying 23.

Three Bettors Dazzled as Daily Double Return Pays $6,626.40

BEL AIR, Md. (AP) — Three bettors hit a $6,626.40 daily double at Bel Air Race Track Tuesday, the seventh largest payoff ever recorded in U.S. racing and Maryland's second largest.

One of the lucky three was a woman, who came to the cashier's window with a man she said was her father and another woman, apparently her sister.

"I don't have to say nothing," she told reporters, refusing to give her name. "I've lost that money at these damned tracks. We always play 10 and 3 in the double and that's all I've got to say."

Cocleco (No. 10) won the first race at $48.60 for $2 and Lano Bar (No. 3), won the second at $73.60 for $2.

Capitol League Action . . . Sacred Hearts Slate Cascade in Waters Go

Sacred Heart Academy's Cardinals, defeated by a 13-7 count in their Capitol League debut last week, with Central Union administering the setback, face the Cascade Cougars Friday night at Waters Field, the feature game of the loop's play this week.

A Friday afternoon will send the Stayton Eagles against the Salem Academy Crusaders on the latter's field at West Salem. Both

Yawama Loop Eyes Tussles

Yawama League football teams go to it in another four games the coming Friday, only one of which could have any bearing on the circuit lead now shared by the Sheridan Spartans and Willamina Bulldogs.

Johny Blaser's Spartans are out in front of the derby with a spotless 4-0 record, and take this week off with a bye. Tom Cowan's Willamina team, with a 3-0 record to date, don't have things so easy. The Bulldogs play the Yamhill club at Willamina Friday night, Yamhill having won two of its first three outings.

In the other three Friday games the Dayton Pirates travel to Nestucca, Sherwood is at North Marion and Amity is at Banks.

Last week's results saw Sheridan win its big one with Amity 26-13, Sherwood top Banks 6-0 and Dayton edge North Marion 13-6.

50-Car Smash Derby on Tap

PORTLAND (Special) — A 50-car destruction derby, largest of the season in Oregon, is to be held next Sunday at Portland Speedway. Time trials for the card will start at 1:30 p. m.

There will be Trophy dash, heat races and Class B and A main events for the numerous jalopies, just the same as there are for regular auto races. Then as a grand finale, all cars still in running condition will engage in an everything-goes smash spree. The last car remaining in running condition will be the winner.

So as to assure more action, and smash-ups, the entire card will be presented on the track's quarter-mile paved strip rather than on the half-mile oval.

Rams, 49ers Invited

SPOKANE (AP) — The Spokane Athletic Round Table Tuesday invited the Los Angeles Rams and the San Francisco 49ers to play a professional football exhibition here next year.

The ART gave $20,000 each to the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Cardinals for a game in Spokane last August. A crowd of some 17,000 attended. The club made about $300 for charity on it.

Central and Philomath play out-of-league opponents Friday, the former slated at Lebanon and the latter at Monroe.

While Leo Grosjacques' Cardinals were absorbing their 13-7 loss to Central last Friday, Bob Funk's undermanned Crusaders were taking a 39-0 beating from Bob Stewart's classy Cascade club. Fred Graham's Staytons entered the win column with a 33-0 conquest of Philomath.

The Cascades have tallied an impressive 91 points in their two victories, while holding the opposition (Salem Academy and Philomath) to but 6.

Friday's Waters Field mix will get underway at 8 p. m.

Bad Attitude Feared by Gus As Viks Toil

An item as costly as snakebite to all football coaches—overconfidence by their charges—has Viking Mentor Lee Gustafson more than a mite worried this week as his Salems tune up for their next outing, at Sweet Home Friday night.

There is nothing that says the undefeated Vikings, shooting for their fifth straight victory, shouldn't wlay the Friday district foe. That is, unless the Salems get to thinking they have nothing to do but run onto the Sweet Home turf by eight o'clock.

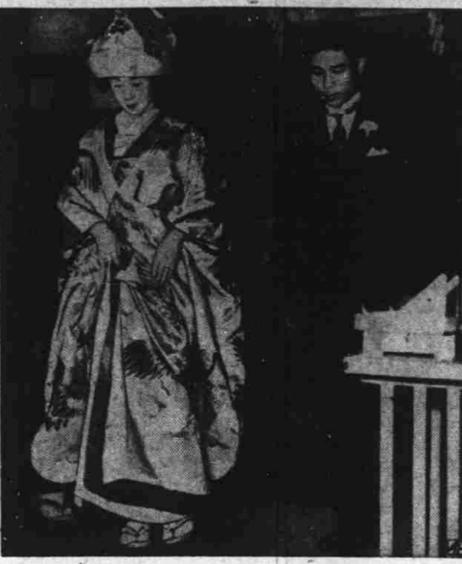

Stressing the fact that the winless Huskies, who would like nothing better than to upset the Salems, will be in a fighting mood Friday is a big part of the coaching routine at the Villa this week.

A year ago the inspired Sweet Homes invaded Waters Field and rolled up 18 points before the Vikings came to the conclusion that they were in a ball game. It then took a stout rally by the Salems to win that one.

Probable starting lineup for the Viks this week will be unchanged. Phil Burkland and Paul Beck will be the ends, Bob Goddard and Jerry Walling the tackles, Vern Coates and Larry Newsome the guards, Tom Pickens the center, Herb Triplet the quarterback, Jim Anderson, Mike Campbell or Ray Taylor the halfbacks and Terry Salisbury the fullback.

Taylor missed all but the placekicking part of last week's Bend mix because of a leg injury. But while in the action, the husky and talented Taylor booted all seven conversion points in the 49-6 victory to run his spectacular string to 19 without a miss in two seasons.

Solon Doubts Wisdom of Defense Cuts

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — U. S. Sen. A. S. (Mike) Monroney (D-Okla.) said Tuesday night that the United States is slaying its armed power "at a time when Premier Stalin's death offers us the greatest chance to close the gap on the Communists in world leadership we have had or are apt to have again for 20 years."

In an address at a Jefferson-Jackson day dinner, the Oklahoma said:

"I think it is penny-wise and pound foolish when the danger is near — when our leadership in armed strength is so important to winning the world peace — for us to risk a trillion dollar war to save 10 billions.

"Cutting fat out of armed services appropriations is to be desired but these cuts leave the fat and sever Uncle Sam's muscles instead."

"SAY! What's goin' on here?"

A crowd formed fast on a street in Providence, R. I. The police arrived—and the fire rescue squad.

"What's going on?" people asked.

A four-year-old girl had caught her head in an iron railing while watching a baseball game.

Nothing serious... she wasn't hurt.

But everybody wanted to know all about it... so they looked for the full story... in the newspaper.

And the folks who actually saw the rescue wanted to read about it even more.

It's exciting to be an eye-witness to an unusual event. But it's like seeing one or two photographs of the action, or seeing a headline about it, or hearing a brief few words about it. They whet your appetite for news, but they can't satisfy your hunger for the whole story.

That goes for advertising, too. The message that hangs in the air... or headlines here or there... may have a momentary interest. But the newspaper ad carries the brass-tacks quality, the urgency of the newspaper itself.

It can be examined and re-examined... read any time... anywhere.

And just as the newspaper speaks the special language of the town it mirrors, the ads themselves have the same important local quality. No other medium can match this quality.

Add to this the fact that the newspaper reaches just about everybody in town, and you know why the newspaper is the nation's most effective advertising medium.

The newspaper is always "first with the most"
