By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor
The leadership of two leagues will be at stake Friday as the numerous valley prep football teams do battle in another full round of games. In the Willamette Valley League the Molalla Indians and Estacada Rangers, currently sharing the race with spotless records, collide in valley's No. 1 game at Molalla Friday night. The winner could conceivably roll on to the title and ensuing playoffs in Class A-2.

Another 8 A-1 clash Friday night is Bend at Albany. This is also a Big Six League game, as is the Eugene-St. Corvallis Friday nighter. Onlookers should get a pretty good idea of just how strong Corvallis is in the Eugene game, for the Axemen have proved to be one of the top prep clubs in the state. Medford is at Springfield Friday night.

All have been defeated at least once. The other two Marion B League skirmishes send Scio against Chemawa and Mill City against Sublimity Friday afternoon, at Chemawa and Sublimity.

The Capitol League plays two games Friday also, both here in Salem. The Sacred Heart Cardinals take on the free-wheeling and title favored Cascade Cougars at Waters Field, 8 p. m. Friday, and the Salem Academy Crusaders face the Stayton Eagles Friday afternoon at West Salem. Central Union plays an out-of-league date at Lebanon Friday night and Philomath is booked with Monroe.

Husky Star, Dandy Rank Next in Yardage

LOS ANGELES—(Special)—Paul Larson, California's made-over T-quarterback, has taken over a 4-way battle for total offense honors in the Pacific Coast Conference, it was disclosed today by statistics from the PCC Commissioner's office.

Larson, a former halfback, amassed 434 yards in his first three games to move ahead of Sandy Lederman, Washington, who has 403 yards; Aramis Dandoy, Southern California, 401, and Paul Cameron, UCLA, 354. Larson gained 68 yards rushing and passed for 366. Cameron leads the parade in touchdowns, being responsible for six. He scored three and pitched three TD passes. Dandoy has four TDs; Larson and Lederman, one each.

Dandoy is the rushing leader with 277 yards in 36 tries and a 7.7 play average. Cameron is second with 253 and Flip Kleffner, Idaho, third, 178. Lederman is the No. 1 passer with 32 completions in 69 throws for 293 yards and 48.5 per cent. One was a touchdown pass and three were intercepted. Larson ranks second with 24 completions for 366 yards and Bob Garrett, Stanford, third, 23 for 305.

Cameron, UCLA's triple-threat halfback, leads the Conference in a talent only recently added to his repertoire, punting. Paul has 46.1 average on eight kicks. Kleffner is next, 41.0. Dandoy has the most yardage on punt returns, 104, followed by Cameron, 95, while Don Marks, California, has 133 yards on five kickoff returns with Ralph Carr, Oregon State, next, 112 yards.

Injuries Strike Huskies' Squad

SEATTLE (AP)—A rough defensive scrimmage Wednesday caused injuries which may sideline three of Coach John Cherberg's University of Washington football squad Saturday when the Huskies meet the University of Southern California.

Those injured included one letterman, fullback Arne Bergh, who split a hip muscle in a pileup. Cherberg had announced Tuesday he planned to use Bergh extensively against USC.

The workout stressed defense against USC plays, particularly passes, and included some time given to protection of Washington passers.

Ducats Available For OSC Games

PARIS (AP)—The American Ryder Cup golf team had little trouble defeating a collection of European all-star professionals Wednesday despite a hole-in-one by Dutchman Gerard De Wit and some surprising good play by his teammates.

The Americans won the two-day match, the first ever to pit the Ryder Cup team against non-British Europeans, by a 12-3 margin. Leading by a 4-1 score Tuesday at the end of best ball play, the Americans picked up eight more points while yielding two in singles competition.

A crowd of some 2,000 fans, including King Leopold of Belgium, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, and bearded, turbaned Indian Ambassador Sardar Malik, toured around the beautiful 18-hole St. Cloud course under menacing skies to watch the play.

Cubs Present New Contract To Cavarretta

CHICAGO (AP)—Phil Cavarretta, who took over as a stop-gap pilot two years ago, Wednesday was handed his third one-year managerial contract by the seventh-place Chicago Cubs.

The 1954 season, however, will find Cavarretta, a hard-hitting Cub first baseman for 19 years, strictly a bench manager.

Since he was named manager to succeed the fired Frankie Frisch July 21, 1951, Cavarretta had remained on the active player list.

However, Cavarretta, 37, appeared only as a pinch-hitter this year, playing six hits in 21 trips for .266, compared with his lifetime average of .292 for 1,953 games.

Cavarretta's rehiring was announced by Wid Matthews, director of Cub player personnel. Ever since the Cubs finished with a 65-89 record, 40 games behind champion Brooklyn, rumors flew that Cavarretta, or Matthews, or both, might not return for 1954.

Wednesday's development was taken as a vote of confidence in both men by Owner P. K. Wrigley. Cavarretta's 1954 salary was not disclosed, but Matthews said it was "satisfactory to all concerned."

Star Hack's name continued to be tossed in the rumor hopper as a successor to Cavarretta, but Hack Wednesday was rehired as manager of the Cubs' Los Angeles club at the same time Cavarretta's job was made secure for 1954.

Yanks, Bums Split Record Series Money

NEW YORK (AP)—Each member of the New York Yankees who received a full World Series share will bank a record check for $8,299.68, it was announced Wednesday by Baseball Commissioner.

The Yankee windfall, shared by 22 players, Manager Casey Stengel, four coaches, and road secretary, easily eclipses the previous record payout of $6,772.08 pocketed by the world champion Cleveland Indians of 1948.

Each of the second place clubs in the two leagues, Cleveland in the American and Milwaukee in the National, will receive $51,850.62 from the whopping World Series receipts to divide among its players.

The Chicago White Sox, third in the American League, receive $34,567.08 for player distribution, the Boston Red Sox, fourth in the American, $17,283.54. As the Philadelphia Phillies and St. Louis Cardinals tied for third place in the National League, they will split.

In announcing the Series cuts, the commissioner only gave the names of individuals sharing in the Yankee and Dodger melon. The individual listings for the other first division clubs were not released.

In addition to awarding 29 full shares, the Yankees cut in 16 other for various sums.

The Dodgers whacked up their Melon into 29 full shares and six part shares.

Indians Report Manogian Ready
PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—More woe for winless Oregon State was forecast Wednesday night when Stanford coach Chuck Taylor reported star Indian guard Norm Manogian will finally be ready for all-out play Saturday at Portland.

Manogian, highly rated in pre-season estimates, has suffered a succession of deep leg muscle bruises which have kept him on the bench and in play only for short periods at limited effectiveness.
