U.S.-British Trieste Policy

(Story also on page one) MOSCOW (M)-Russia Monday accused the United States and Great Britain of violating the Italian peace treaty in their announced policy of withdrawing their troops from Trieste.

(In notes delivered to the American and British Embassies in Moscow, the Russians charged the two Western countries had consistently violated the proposed arrangements whereby the U.N. Security Council was to have chosen a governor for the free territory to Trieste.

Tito already has pushed heavy troop reinforcements into Yugoslav Zone B of the free territory and threatened to march them on into Zone A "the moment Italian troops enter."

He said the entry of Italian forc-es into Trieste would be considered by this country as "an act of aggression" which he was prepared to meet with military force. Repeats Stand

A Yugoslav note addressed to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold repeated this stand and asked that the 59 other members of the world organization be notified of the Yugoslav stand on the Trieste issue.
