

Dodgers, Cards Dominate All-Star

Rizzuto Only Yankee Picked

Campy Leads Voting; Roberts, Spahn Named

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Brooklyn's defeated National League champions and St. Louis' third place Cardinals dominated the 1953 Associated Press major league all-star team, capturing half of the 10 positions.

Seven of the 16 big league clubs, four in the National, were named to the AP's eighth annual all-star squad, selected Tuesday by 179 members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. The National League had seven players to only three for the American.

The Dodgers and Cardinals were the only clubs with more than one representative. Oddly enough, the world champion New York Yankees had only one member on the all-star team — shortstop Phil Rizzuto.

And Little Phil barely squeezed in by a two-vote margin over Brooklyn's Pee Wee Reese.

Other clubs with single representatives include Washington, Cleveland, Milwaukee and the Philadelphia Phillies.

The all-star team:
First base — Mickey Vernon, Senators (.337)
Second base — Red Schoendienst, Cardinals (.342)
Third base — Al Rosen, Indians (.338)
Shortstop — Phil Rizzuto, Yankees (.271)
Left field — Stan Musial, Cardinals (.337)
Centerfield — Duke Snider, Dodgers (.336)
Right field — Carl Furillo, Dodgers (.344)
Catcher — Roy Campanella, Dodgers (.312)
Righthanded pitcher — Robin Roberts, Phillies (.23-16)
Lefthanded pitcher — Warren Spahn, Braves (.23-7)
Four Holdovers

Four players are holdovers from the 1952 team. They are pitcher Roberts, outfielder Musial and infielders Rosen and Rizzuto. Musial made the team for the seventh time, missing only once since the poll was inaugurated in 1946.

Musial, whose monopoly on the National League batting title finally was broken after four consecutive seasons, topped all outfielders in the vote-getting department.

He was named on 142 ballots, nipping Snider by a single vote. Furillo, the senior circuit's new batting champion, won the third outfield berth with 93 votes.

The biggest vote-getter on the squad was Campanella, Brooklyn's iron-man receiver. The great slugger commanded all but five of the votes cast, making a shambles of his race with Yogi Berra.

Campy got 174 votes to the Yankee catching star's 5. Last year, Berra edged out Campanella by 2 votes.

Central 2 0 .1000 Philomath 0 2 .000

Friday games: Cascade at Central, Sacred Heart at Stayton, Philomath at Salem Academy.

Cascade High's Cougars and the Central Union Panthers, the two teams battling for the Capitol League's football championship, clash Friday night at Monmouth in the circuit's game of the week. The Friday winner likely will march off with the 1953 title.

Bob Stewart's high-scoring Cascades, who have appeared to be the class of the league on a number of occasions, have won their first three loop outings. Sam Bell's Centrals, in their first season as members of the circuit, have won their only two.

Two other Friday battles in the league have Sacred Heart at Stayton and Philomath at Salem Academy. There is the possibility that the Stayton game will be played under the new set of lights being installed at the high school field. If so, game time will be 8 p.m.

Salem Academy tries for its first win in the Philomath game at 2 p.m. on the Oregon School for the Deaf field in North Salem.

Wolves Tuning For Humboldt

MONMOUTH — (Special) — The OCE Wolves, still in high spirits after their terrific upset victory (19-0) over Oregon Tech last Saturday at Klamath Falls, are busy getting ready for their next football assignment at Arcata, Calif., with powerful Humboldt State next Saturday night.

The Wolves will be favored to take a thumping, as Humboldt has downed such opponents as OTI and the Oregon Frosh.

High praise has been handed to the 14 OCE players who went through the Oregon Tech game last week. The iron man stint was handled by Ends Arden Detering and Joe Roberts. Tackles Ray Hubbard and Ray Sordee, Guards Ray Cummings and Paul Riley, Center Junior Grassman, Quarterback Gene Owens, Halfbacks Charlie Pinlon and Darrel Davis and Fullback Charley Harris, with Guard Jim Atkins, Halfback Bill Arnold and End Stan Hays the only replacements.

The work of Pinlon and Davis at halfbacks, Owens' passing and the defensive work of Riley, Detering and Cummings was particularly lauded by Coaches Bill McArthur and John Chamberlain. Former Sacred Heart Academy player Riley set the Wolves' rock-solid pattern for the upset when he smashed an OTI ball carrier on the opening kickoff, hitting him hard enough that the impact might have been heard in downtown Klamath Falls.

The Wolves will complete their drills Friday before leaving for the California city.

Nat Ace, Haddix Shutout Kings

NEW YORK (AP)—Washington's Bob Porterfield, a hard-luck hurler for most of his big league career, and rookie southpaw Harvey Haddix, in his first full season with the St. Louis Cardinals were the 1953 shutout kings of the majors.

Figures compiled by the Associated Press show Porterfield topped the American League with nine shutouts. Haddix set the pace in the National League with six.

For Porterfield, the 1953 season was a complete reversal of form over his showing of a year ago. In 1952 the 29 year old righthander was on the losing end of seven shutouts, including three by 1-0 scores, and his win-loss record was 13-14.

Gervais Plays Sublimity '11'

MARION B LEAGUE
W.L. Pct. W.L. Pct.

Jefferson 2 1 .667 Mill City 1 2 .333
Sublimity 3 1 .750 Chemawa 0 4 .000
Friday games: Sublimity at Gervais, Chemawa at Jefferson, Mill City at Scio.

Bill Patterson's Gervais Cougars can all but put the clincher on the 1953 Marion County B League football title Friday in their 2 p.m. clash at Gervais with the Sublimity Saints, the feature game of the week in circuit play.

Gervais has a 3-0 league record, and has only to play Scio after the game with Sublimity.

On the other hand, the Subs could be a distinct stumbling block for the spread-formationed Cougars. Sublimity won its first three league games before bowing to Jefferson last week, 25-0. Gervais was idle at the time and will go into the Friday tilt with two weeks of rest.

While Gervais is occupied with Sublimity in the league's top clash Friday, Jefferson will entertain winless Chemawa and Mill City will play at Scio. Both of these games start at 2 p.m. also.

Ray Houre's Jeffersons, although losing 7-0 to Gervais in their game this season, still retain a chance for the title. But it will take a Gervais loss or two to bring the Jeffs in on top.
