4-Year-Old Daughter From China Will Join Salem Family Sunday

Donald Yee To See Child For First Time

By VAN EISENHUT

Staff Writer, The Statesman The 4-year-old daughter of a Salem couple is scheduled to land in Seattle Sunday after a flight from Hong Kong. Her arrival will climax a four-year effort by her father, 29-year-old Donald H. Yee, 835 Academy St., to gather his family in Salem.

The young traveler, making the flight in the charge of air line hostesses, will be greeted in Seattle by her parents. There she will meet for the first time her father and sister and will see her mother again after a separation of nearly two years.

Little Hinge Ngee Yee was born in Canton, China, Nov. 24, father left for the United States to find a new home for his wife and expected child.

Couldn't Take Wife An American citizen, Yee went to China in 1947 and while there was married to Ma So Scheung. He started for America in June of 1948 but because of immigration laws Mrs. Yee could not accompany him. On arriving in the United States, he immediately began his effort to bring his family here. Working through the U. S. Immigration office in Seattle and the American Consul in Hong Kong, he was partially successful early in 1952 when Mrs. Yee joined him in Salem. Daughter Left Behind
