

All-Church Study Course Set By Silverton Methodist Group

SILVERTON — In addition to the regular Sunday services at the Silverton Methodist Church, Mrs. F. J. Roubal will teach an all-church study course under the heading "Life and Task of the Church," Sunday night at 7:30. Monday night at 8 o'clock the educational commission will meet in the Rev. Douglas Harrell's study. Tuesday night at 7:30, the building committee will meet, and Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, the administration commission will meet, both in the pastor's study. The nominations' committee meets Thursday night at 7:30 also in the pastor's study.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Silverton Methodist church will observe Thanksgiving at a special Thanksgiving morning worship hour, starting 10:30 a.m. The building fund offering will be received at this time. Presentation of teacher training certificates will be made at the morning worship hour at Trinity Lutheran Church. Receiving certificates will be Miss Thora Arestad, Mrs. Dune Block, Mrs. M. G. Gunnerson, Miss Nettie Hutterer, Miss Alice Jensen, Mrs. Ludwig Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Menz, Mrs. Bessie Moran, Miss Bonnie Oppend, Samuel Torvold, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Torvold, Mrs. Harold Toft and Mrs. Ben Wage. Teachers were the Rev. J. A. Luthro of Trinity Church, Silverton, and the Rev. J. W. Holte, Salem. The Rev. J. W. Carlson, Woodburn, was dean of the school which lasted five weeks and was held at Grace Lutheran church, Salem. More than 90 persons from seven congregations attended.

Trinity Sunday school staff will meet with Miss Bonnie Oppend Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. A program of colored slides and recordings of native songs of Formosa will be featured at the Wednesday night program sponsored by the Ladies' Missionary and Missionary Alliance Church. The service will be held at the church at 7:45. Miss Doris Bringham and Miss Geraldine Peterson of the Evangelical Alliance Mission will give the program. Stewardship Sunday will be

Members Over 80 Slated as Guests Sunday Morning

Members of the Calvary Baptist Church who have reached their 80th birthday will be recognized Sunday morning. Speaker at the 11 o'clock worship hour will be the Rev. Frank Stannard, a member of the church, who now teaches the Keystone Bible Class. Mr. Stannard is well known in Salem and among the Baptists of Oregon. He has held numerous pastorates in the state, as well as in Washington and California. He will celebrate his 85th birthday this Sunday. The subject of his sermon, which will be broadcast over KGAE, is entitled "This Is the Life." At 4:30 p.m. all octogenarian members will be guests at a tea sponsored by the deaconesses. Their chairman, Mrs. Frank Chapman, will present corsage and boutonnières to the honored ones. Members of the Youth Fellowship will participate in an informal program.

Pastor Plans Two Services To Relate Trip

Two services will be held Sunday evening at the Calvary Baptist Church when Pastor Omar N. Barth continues his series of film lectures describing his tour of the Holy Land and Europe this summer.

The first will begin at 6 o'clock closing about 7:25 and the second will start at 7:50. This week the Pastor's film message is entitled "Magic of the Mediterranean" and includes visits to Southern France, Pisa, Florence, Venice, Rome, Athens and Istanbul, many of which figure prominently in Bible history. The story of these cities will be told primarily with color motion pictures, although a few kodachrome slides will also be utilized.

The two concluding messages in the series will be given on subsequent Sunday nights this month. At the concluding film presentation Nov. 29, the pastor will display souvenirs and remembrances accumulated on the tour, including a number of stamps and coins from each of the twenty countries visited. He will also wear an Arab costume with its distinctive Arab Legion headpiece.

Communion Service Set

The Wesleyan Methodist Church will observe communion service following the 11 a.m. worship service. On Monday evening the church will hold its second business meeting of the conference year. Pastor W. A. Kaufmann, who is also field man for the conference, will conduct the services.

Bible Institute To Salute City

The Bible Institute of Los Angeles will present a program, "Salute to Salem," Monday at 8:30 a.m. over station KSLM. The broadcast is scheduled to point out leading points of interest, personalities and Salem's student representation at the institute in Los Angeles.

Former Member To Lead Service Sunday Evening

"Sin and the Christian" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. Carl-reid Duhrkoop in the Sunday evening service of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church. The Rev. Duhrkoop, a graduate of the Western Evangelical Seminary in Portland, is a former member of the church.

After the service a new series of missionary education programs will be instituted with the showing of a series of slides taken in India concerning missionary work there. The program will be directed by Earle Riggs, local business man, who received the pictures and the information from his daughter who is now in that mission field with her husband.

The Little Rangers, a junior cowboy choir, will sing during the morning Sunday School hour. This is a special feature of the "Round-Up for God" Sunday School contest which closes Sunday.

Narcotic Films Showing Told

Two films, "The Assassin of Youth" and "The Terrible Truth," will be shown by the Youth Fellowship Group of the Free Methodist Church at their meeting Sunday at 6:45 p.m. The films, produced by the Narcotics Foundation of Los Angeles, deal with the effects of narcotics on youth. The public is invited to see these educational films.

National Leader To Head Service

Mrs. Charles A. Hart will speak at the Unitarian Fellowship Sunday on the subject, "General Alliance, Its Purposes and Program." Mrs. Hart, who is national president of General Alliance of Unitarians and Other Liberal Christian Women, has just returned from a series of conferences held at the Unitarian headquarters in Boston. Mrs. Wallace Wharton will conduct the worship service.

Sacred Music Concert Set For Nov. 22

A concert of sacred music is scheduled at the First Methodist Church Sunday, Nov. 22 at 8 p.m. Guest soloist will be Mrs. Josephine Spaulding of Portland, former member of the First Methodist choir. Included on the program will be a violin solo by Miss Marilyn Hanthorn of Portland, accompanied by Miss Barbara Freitag of Yakima. Both attend Willamette University.

Both church choirs, directed by Howard F. Miller, will also sing during the concert. Prof. Joseph Schnelker of the Willamette University music faculty, is the organist.
