Heavy Seas, Winds Thwart Rescue Effort

SEATTLE (A) - Gale winds and heavy seas in the Pacific were by early weakness in wheat, a day night to have defeated all efforts of the Seattle tug Agnes Foss hear the close and a firm tone 16-20; old does, 10,12, few higher. to get a line aboard the crippled throughout the day in corn. freighter Margo.

The tug reached the Margo at 9 a. m. but winds up to 40 knots an hour and waves 20 feet high made it impossible to secure a line before darkness and weather $3.00 mark for the first time 28.00; commercial cows 23.00-26.00; line before darkness and weather closed in.

The freighter has been drifting helplessly about 1,100 miles off the Oregon Coast for a week since she lost a propeller inbound to Portland. The Agnes Foss arrived on the scene after a sixday rescue voyage from Seattle. The cutter Koiner radioed Coast Guard headquarters here that the tug would be forced to wait out "blow" before trying again to take the Margo under tow.

Assn. Elects Roy J. Rice

PORTLAND UP - Garnet Barrat. Heppner, Morrow County judge, Friday was elected president of the Association of Oregon Counties at a convention here.

George I. McBee, Corvallis, was named vice president; Roy J. Quotations Rice, Salem, Marion County commissioner was re-elected secretary-treasurer, and F. L. Phillips. The Dalles, was again named executive secretary.

Sam Stewart, a member of the state tax commission, proposed that the state provide a staff of professional appraisers which could be hired by counties. He said getting trained assessors is a major job for counties.

REPEAT FESTIVAL

DUBLIN (INS) - Ireland is busily preparing for its second great "open house," the Ireland at Home Festival, to take place in the spring. It is a repeat of this year's successful festival Portland Grain which attracted visitors of Irish descent from every corner of the world.
