Turkey Talk

Select the Turkey Dressing Best Suited to Your Family Requirement

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

This is the fourth in a series of six stories about Thanksgiving dinner preparations, running in the Oregon Statesman Wednesdays and Saturdays. Clip them all and have the entire Thanksgiving story. Next Wednesday will be last minute preparation, including the roasting chart.

Most families have special preferences as to the Thanksgiving turkey stuffing. Some like theirs highly seasoned, some mild, some moist and others dry. Many folks like oysters, or fruit, or nuts or sausage. Some like sage stuffing and others like cornbread.

We can't, of course, satisfy all these desires, but we can cover quite a bit of ground in a short period. Here, then, are some suggestions.

First of all, allow about 1 cup stuffing for each pound of turkey—this is a good and simple rule to remember.

Here is a standard recipe for bread stuffing—it yields enough for a 10-pound turkey.

BREAD STUFFING

- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 2 cups chopped celery
- 1 1/2 cups butter or margarine
- 16 cups dry breadcrumbs
- 4 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon pepper
- 2 teaspoons poultry seasoning
- 4 cups water or other liquid

Brown onion and celery in butter in heavy skillet. Combine with bread cubes and seasonings. Pour on the broth and stir lightly to blend. Stuff lightly into turkey.

For an apple stuffing, substitute 4 cups hot unsweetened apple sauce for 2 cups of the liquid.

For an oyster stuffing, add 2 cups cut up oysters to above mixture, cutting down on the poultry seasoning to suit your taste.

Chestnut stuffing is made about the same—for every four cups breadcrumbs, use 1 cup prepared chestnuts. The same proportions are used with walnuts, or other nuts.

For sausage stuffing, to each 6 cups breadcrumbs, use 1/2 pound link sausages, sliced and sauted with bread.

Corn bread may be substituted for part or all of the bread. Then there are other stuffings such as this:

APRICOT STUFFING

- 2 cups breadcrumbs
- 1/4 cup chopped celery
- 1 1/2 cups cracker crumbs
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon each salt, paprika
- 1/4 pound dried apricots

Combine and put loosely into the fowl. If you have a stuffing that pleases the family, stick to it, perhaps a new one will not satisfy. You can vary your own basic recipe from these suggestions.
