Highlights from the alleys: Kay Krejci rolling a high scoring 220 game in the U-Bowl Ladies Classic. Dot Allbright garnering high series of the evening with a dandy 546. Willie West of the Salem Hardware team copping both high game 227 and series 613 during the weekly session of the U-Bowl Classic League. High individual effort of the week was by the old pro, Pinky Hartwell. Pinky shattered the wood for the highest series (four games) rolled to date in the Capitol Major League, an alley scorching 909 total based on games of 209-222-245 and 233. Another nice series that deserves credit was rolled by Duane Cushman of the Nicholson's Insurance gang. Cush had a high 233 in gathering his 668 total. Junior whiz of the week, none other than Bob Ryan who last week captured, for the second straight year, the doubles toga in the Willamette Valley Tournament. I might add that Junior Ryan has continued to scorch the alleys through the week just completed, with series of 617-610 and 749 (4 games). High game of the week honor to Floyd Colburn, anchor man of the Remington Rand entry of the U-Bowl Mercantile League. Floyd shot the new high game of the league, an alley burning 260 gem ...

Entries Due for Women's Tourney

Report from Gwenn Upston, Ladies Association secretary. The first official team entry for the Womens City Tournament is the Roberts Bros. team of the U-Bowl Ladies Classic. Team members are Frances Alshire, Erma Jackson, Ruth Hannum, Charolette Posehl and anchor gal Dorothy Galls who have not, and want to roll in the tournament please get those entry blanks in as soon as possible ...

They say you learn something every day. Such was my case last Friday night when I had the opportunity to travel to the city of Valsetz and to my amazement there I find two of the finest Brunswick bowling alleys in the state. The alleys are owned and operated by the Valsetz Lumber Company Inc. Duane Cushman informs me that he has sold more balls per capita in Valsetz than any other town in the state ...

Note from Bill Young (State Men's Secretary). The entry deadline for the State Tournament at Albany, Oregon, has been extended to the 26th of December, at midnight. Those who have not signed up and still want to enter have until Saturday, December 26, at midnight ...

New member for the Triplicate Club, Fern Hobbensiefken, a member of the Meadows Restaurant team of the U-Bowl Minor League. Fern entered the club with her Monday scores of 103-103-103 and a 309 total ...

The scores are starting to climb in the Christmas Bonus Sweeper now running at the U-Bowl. Top score to date is a three-way tie between Harry Oberman, Tony Prudente and Bob Ryan. Each man has a 674 score to his credit. Tom Brennan with a 672 total and Bloopers Gus—669 round out the top five. The tournament will conclude at 5 p.m. December 24.

Turkey winners in the Mixed Doubles Turkey Shoot held last Sunday night at Capitol Lanes were Chet and Jean Boyce, Tommy and Alberta Thompson, Erma and Len Turnbull, Shirley Laird-Bill Cook, Flo and Bob Briggs (Portland) Sally and Cleve Bennett (Portland).

Grudge Match Held

Results of the grudge match between Ray and Wilmas Tavern-West Salem Machinery held Sunday afternoon at U-Bowl, ended with the machinery crew on top 2958 to 2864. Leading the onslaught with a huge 679 was the capable John Bone (John's score counts also in the bonus sweeper, and with handicap he has a 712 total). Other members and scores of the winning crew, Bob Price—594, Harry Oberman—554, Mike McFarland—588 and Bed Straw—550. For the losing tavern gang it was Bruce Wilberg—573, Orville Mull—508, Lyle P. Dierks—564, Butch Ireland—478 and Warren Miller—528. I might add that the 2958 score was scratch and is probably the highest team series that has been rolled this year. They had team games of 921-1046-991. Mr. Bone in rolling his high series had individual games of 243-247-189. The purse of the match was steak dinners with all the trimmings.

The 4-6 tournament currently running at Capitol Lanes is something to watch, believe me it is. All you have to do is roll the ball between the 4-6 split ten times in a row and you collect a twelve pound turkey. The entry fee is one dollar. Turkey winners to date are Chet Boyce, Bob Ryan, Larry (The Brain) Oslund, Ray ($13.00) Gunn, Larry Stanley, Ed Logan and Putt Putt. The gal winners (they must roll the ball between six times) are Laurel Doerfler and Dot Olney. They tell me Laura got so mad watching hubby trying to win she finally had to put on her shoes, and win their turkey in order to break even with the board ...

Once again we ask all league secretaries to make out a league standing sheet and drop it in the boxes provided at both alleys.

Fort Ord Cops Service Football Crown, 55-19

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Fort Ord's Army Warriors smashed the Quantico Marines 55-19 in the Poinsettia Bowl football game here Sunday with a powerful ground attack that sent Ollie Matson, Lawrence Segovia and Dave Mann on long scoring runs. The victory clinched the armed services' championship for Fort Ord, which had been rated No. 1 ahead of Quantico in No. 2 spot, on the basis of regular season play.

Matson, former San Francisco University and Chicago Cardinals star, playing at fullback, ran 72 and 13 yards for touchdowns.

Segovia, a halfback who played for Monterey, Calif., Peninsula Junior College before entering the service, galloped 77 yards.

Mann, former Oregon State College halfback, raced 39 and 28 yards for scores.

The soldiers from the training center in California started piling up the convincing margin within minutes after the opening kickoff. Halfback Bill Roffler, formerly of Washington State, broke away and ran 14 yards for a touchdown. Fort Ord's only passing touchdown came in the same period when Don Heinrich, quarterback from the University of Washington, tossed eight yards to Ed Henke, who used to play with Southern California and the San Francisco Forty-Niners, in the end zone.
