Holiday Rites Unite Couple Sunday

Poinsettias, Christmas greens sprayed with silver and white tapers formed the setting for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Beth Ann Proebstel and Edward Arnold Young. The couple exchanged their vows at 3 o'clock ceremony at the First Congregational Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McArthur Proebstel of Portland, formerly of Salem, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young.

The Rev. Julian Keiser performed the ceremony. Miss Coralie Joyce Doughton was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. Miss Claudia and Miss Clarice Waters, wearing white net dresses with ice blue trim, lighted the tapers.

For her wedding the bride chose a white lace and nylon tulle gown fashioned with a chapel train. The lace bodice extended into deep points on the bouffant net skirt. The high, rounded neckline was designed with a deep yoke of illusion and the long sleeves were of lace. Her fingertip veil was edged in lace and was caught to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses and white tulle and for "something old" the lace handkerchief which her grandmother carried at her wedding.

Attendants in White and Blue

Miss Janice Coffel, the honor maid, wore an ice blue glitter net waist length gown with a white fur headband. The bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Culbertson and Miss Judie Burdette, wore white glitter net waist length frocks and white fur headbands. They all carried white fur muffs to which were pinned poinsettia corsages. Sharon Young, sister of the groom, was flower girl and wore an ice blue frock and carried a miniature white fur muff with poinsettia corsage.

Gordon Elwood stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Ronald Cross and Bruce Michels.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Proebstel wore a redingote style gown of brown and beige with corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a grey outside . . . many reflections from both trees in the windows and mirrors . . . The individual dinner tables decorated with holly and red candles . . . sprigs of holly on the paper doilies . . . and Santa place cards with a Christmas hankie tucked inside for the feminine guests . . . Later in the evening Attorney General Robert Thornton playing Christmas music and singing . . . even the guests joining in for some of the songs . . . The Toozes' son, Jim, greeting guests for a few minutes before going on to a formal dance . . .

Mrs. Helen Dieckmann, the new Marion County field director for the Willamette Area Council, Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Dieckmann came to Salem from Port Angeles, Wash., where she was executive director of Clallam County Council. She has had extensive experience in camp counselling, Camp Fire guardian and served as camp director for Clallam County, also program director at Camp Sealth, Seattle. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and took graduate work at the University of Washington. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Miss Spagle, Mr. Oakley Are Married

The wedding of Miss Barbara Mae Spagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell A. Spagle, to Arthur L. Oakley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Oakley was solemnized on Friday, December 18 at 4:30 o'clock in the Jason Lee parsonage. The Rev. Brooks Moore performed the ceremony before members of the family including Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Packard, grandparents of the bride.

The bride wore a dress of light blue faille, and carried a bouquet of white flowers, centered with an orchid.

After a honeymoon spent in San Francisco, the young couple will return to Salem for Christmas. While in the south they will visit the bride's brother L. L. Spagle and family. Mr. and Mrs. Oakley are graduates of Oregon State College and he is a member of Phi Delta Theta and she of Sigma Kappa.
